ORDER OF SERVICE

15 January 2017

Second Sunday After Epiphany

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

We come to re-weave the unravelling fabric of community to re-connect once more with the larger human family to find once more that place of calm.
to remind ourselves that we belong.
and to remember what it is we belong to.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Breathe in the Morning Air'

Words: © Helen Wiltshire. Pilgrim Publishing

Music: Love Unknown WOV 257 (i)

Breathe in the morning air; inhale its fragrancy.
Be still and trust the sacredness that dwells within;
who's ever near; who knows our fears;
whose presence calms our restless souls.

Rest in this sacred space; lie down in pastures green.
Be present to the myst'ry of this holy place.
Hear singing streams; feel earth's embrace;
see how our lives are touched by grace.

Walk in the way of love, of justice and of peace.
Bring loving to a world of pain and loneliness.
Reach out in love and gentleness to heal the hurt of brokenness.

Here in this darkest vale, shadowed by grief and fear, we sense a loving presence that our hearts sustain.
Our fears subside; our minds are calm;
our panic flees, and peace remains.

Trust in the love of God; believe that goodness lives, that hope and joy and beauty will embrace our days.
Pursued by love and touched by grace,
our thankful hearts will offer praise

PRAYER

When hope invites us to journey elusive, beckoning onward
but never in our grasp:

*May we have the wisdom and the courage
to keep travelling on.*

When dreams glimmer in the distance, fading, clouded and hidden or shining with new brightness:

*May we have the wisdom and the courage
to keep travelling on.*

When established patterns collapse into the uncertainty of the unknown and security dissolves into a memory:

to keep travelling on.*

When the illusion of success threatens to divert us and silence our souls' yearning:

*May wisdom and imagination inspire us
to keep travelling on.*

When we think our journey has ended in the star-lit glow
only to find the end is a new beginning:

*May wisdom and imagination inspire us
to keep travelling on.*

JESUS PRAYER

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

TIME WITH CHILDREN

Chris Carey-Smith

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

There is no Rainbow Room today, so we send you off to enjoy playing with the things at the back of the church.

God bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Lynette Burrell

Gospel

John 1:29-42

The First Disciples of Jesus

Contemporary reading

From "The Quest of the Historical Jesus"

by Albert Schweitzer

He comes to us as One unknown, without a name, as of old, by the lake-side
He came to those who knew Him not.
He speaks to us the same word: 'Follow thou me!'
and sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfill for our time.
He commands. And to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple,
He will reveal Himself in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings which they shall pass through in His fellowship, and, as an ineffable mystery, they shall learn in their own experience Who He is.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture and story,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

CH4 533 ‘Will you come and follow me’

Words & Music: © 1987 WGRG, Iona Community. Graham Maule, John Bell.

Admin by Willow Publishing Pty. Ltd.

Music: Kelvingrove

Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

Will you love the ‘you’ you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.

LITANY IN CELEBRATION OF THOSE WHO FOLLOW

How beautiful are the feet of those...

Who walk with a sense of purpose and reality,
Who walk unafraid to be challenged and to change,
Who walk with an understanding of people and an open faith,
Who have the courage to tread unknown paths.

How beautiful are the lips of those...

Who speak aloud the message of Justice,
Who question deeply why poverty exists and why there are poor,
Who dare to choose imagination and live creatively our universal partnership.

How beautiful are the feet of those...

Who have the courage to walk through darkness asking questions about human rights,
Who are to be compassionate leaders – inclusive of the poor and understanding of them,
Who are willing to enter into humble partnership.

How beautiful are the lips of those...

Who proclaim aloud that we must never hesitate to amplify the voice of those who go unheard,
Who recognised the deafness in our land,
the sound of all our people who are dispossessed,
Who celebrate the goodness of the human person
in every race and colour and walk of life.

How beautiful are the feet of those...

Who walk in compassionate love,
Whose way proclaims a spirituality of action,
Who walk a partnership of justice, peace, love, and friendship,
Who know that every step we take is holy,

Who celebrate the goodness of the human person
in every race and colour and walk of life.

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

We give thanks for our life and the courage we are given to live it.
Let our gratitude for life be expressed in our generosity.
Let our faith be expressed in engagement with the world for the purpose of transformation, for peace and love and justice.
Let our hope for our world find full expression in our daily attitude of mind. Amen.

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice not already in the order of service, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Colma Froggatt

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of The United States of America and the Presbyterian Church of the United States. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Carmel Sepuloni and Su'a William Sio and the members of their electorates of Kelston and Mangere. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of Island Bay Presbyterian Church.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

on card

THE CALL TO SERVICE (standing)

Go as far as your courage takes you, for we cannot go beyond the reach of God.
Give as extravagantly as you may,
for we cannot spend all the riches of God.
Care as lavishly as you are able,
for we cannot exhaust the love of God.
Keep journeying and searching, for God will always travel with us.

HYMN

'Draw the Circle Wide'

Words & Music: © Mark A Miller. 2008 Abingdon Press
Admin by CopyCare Pacific Pty Ltd.

*Draw the circle wide.
Draw it wider still.
Let this be our song,
no-one stands alone,
standing side by side,
draw the circle wide.*

God the still-point of the circle,
'Round whom all creation turns;
Nothing lost, but held forever,
in God's gracious arms. Chorus

Let our hearts touch far horizons,
So encompass great and small;
Let our loving know no borders,
Faithful to God's call. Chorus

Let the dreams we dream be larger,
Than we've ever dreamed before;
Let the dream of Christ be in us,
Open every door... chorus twice

BLESSING

Sacred Presence is always and everywhere and we know this Presence most fully in the love of this community, in the joy of watching children at play, in the brilliant colours of creation, and in friends we can turn to in times of need.
Go, confident in the eternal love of God which is with you wherever you are.

SUNG AMEN

*There is a 2-hour parking limit on the street in the Wellington CBD on Sundays.
If you are staying for an after-church activity, you can to move your car into the car park, or move to a new space on the street.*

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in one of the welcome leaflets (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.
