Matariki

Matariki is the Māori name for the seven-star constellation that rises in the north-east before dawn in June. In Western astronomy it is known as the Pleiades, and it forms the shoulder of Taurus the Bull.

Matariki marks the start of a new phase of life. It is a time of festivity for Māori. Matariki is an important time in the Māori calendar, associated with the start of the cold season when the pātaka kai (food storehouses) are full and land at its most unproductive.

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to,
whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We usually sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Printed copies of the reflection are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

E te whānau a te Karaiti / Brothers and sisters in Christ,

The year turns on the rising of the stars of Matariki deep in the dawn, to the north-east;

A time of remembering, renewing and rejoicing

as the year turns from the old to the new;

So today we reflect on what is past and what is to come,

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

AA 155 'Where mountains rise to open skies'

Words: ©Shirley Murray Music: Dunedin by Vernon Griffiths © 1971 Faber Music Limited London

Where mountains rise to open skies

your name, O God, be echoed far from island beach, to kauri's reach in water's light, in lake and star.

Your people's heart, your people's part

be in our caring for this land,

for faith to flower, for aroha

to let each other's mana stand

From broken word from conflict stirred from lack of vision, set us free to see the line of your design,

to feel creation's legacy

Your love be known, compassion shown,

that every child have equal scope:

in justice done, in trust begun

shall be our heritage and hope.

Where mountains rise to open skies
your way of peace distil the air,
your spirit bind all humankind,
one covenant of life to share!

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou. Kia ora.

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together.

We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

'It's Matariki...Time for Planting your Dreams

Huhana: Posted on Tuesday, 9 June 2015 5:38 p.m.

<http://www.tumanakogloballeadership.co.nz/blog/2015/06/09/Its-Matariki-The-Maori-New-Year-2016-Time-for-Planting-your-Dreams.aspx>

Matariki is the perfect time to grow the soils of our inner Heart and Soul, to feed our own spirit, to nourish our bodies, to rest more to rejuvenate our Sacred Purpose for our lives in all aspects of our lives. This is the time to formulate the new seeds for our garden of life and LOVE, AROHA when we need to get clear about what those seeds look like...we need to throw out the old ones that we have been hanging onto, for whatever the reason and just take the few that will really give the best value for what we wish for our health, our wealth and our happiness.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us, we give thanks

OFFERING PRAYER

As the new year begins we continue to give of our money, for the work of this place so it can stretch beyond these walls. And of our food, for those who do not have enough. May every gift do what it was given to achieve. We ask this with open hearts, backing our gifts with our lives.

So may it be Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Belgium and Luxembourg and the United Protestant Church of Belgium. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Clayton Cosgrove and Marama Davidson list MPs. Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Inglewood United Church.

HYMN

'O when I see the awesome world'

Words: Susan Jones © 2017 Music How Great Thou Art CH 4 #154

O when I see the awesome world around me,
and think of all the worlds which lie beyond;
I see bright stars, I see the circling planets,
auroras' shimmer, north and south's display.

*Then sings my soul, in gratitude and praise,
How great this world, the expanse of space.
Then sings my soul, in gratitude and praise,
How great this world, the expanse of space!*

When Matariki climbs above the skyline shining its starlight o'er this lovely land.
The old year done, a new year rises for us remembering, rejoice on every hand.

*Then sings my soul, in gratitude and praise,
Bring new year in, let's start again.
Then sings my soul, in gratitude and praise,
Bring new year in, let's start again!*

And when I think, that deep inside the atom
are bosons, quarks, invisible to me;
My mind gropes for ability to grasp it this nano-world, so packed with energy.

*Then sings my soul, in gratitude and praise,
Such energy, such precious life!
Then sings my soul, in gratitude and praise,
Such energy, such precious life!*

BLESSING

Mostly, everyone needs a new start,
a beginning which acknowledges the past with all its triumphs and mistakes but which allows us to move forward vowing to do better with our own and others' lives

Matariki gives that new start today.

Let us go beyond these walls

knowing Love surrounds us every moment of every day

letting those we live and work and play with know that too

SUNG AMEN

THANK YOU

CAN YOU HELP?

A volunteer opportunity to consider from Ben Gray: The Wellington Welfare Guardian Trust has been set up to train and support volunteers to act as Welfare Guardians for people who lack capacity and have no Enduring Power of Attorney in place and no one willing to be their Welfare Guardian. The role of the Welfare Guardian is to make decisions in relation to health and welfare (and not property and money) for the subject person.

We are seeking people willing to volunteer to be trained to fulfil this function when applications are received from the carers of subject persons. Our system is based on the successfully running Otago Welfare Guardian Trust, More detail can be found at <https://welfareguardians.nz/>

Liberation and restoration in a world of mass incarceration

Thursday, 29 June 2017 7:00pm - 8:30pm Free Public Lecture Central Baptist Church (Boulcott Street, CBD) Centre for Theology and Public Issues Wellington 64 4 385 7400 ctpi-wellington@otago.ac.nz

Rates of incarceration in Aotearoa New Zealand have risen steadily over the past decade while crime rates have gradually fallen. And nearly 51% of those incarcerated are Māori, even though they are only roughly 15% of the population. In addition to the social cost of absent parents, children, neighbours, and friends, mass incarceration costs us billions of dollars that otherwise could be spent on things like education, healthcare, conservation, and economic development. As now Prime Minister, Bill English, once said, our prisons are a "moral and fiscal failure." Join Tom Noakes-

Duncan, and panelists Chris Marshall, Allison Robinson, Liam Martin, and Kim Workman, as they get to the bottom of mass incarceration. Listen, as they hold out a vision of justice based on liberation and restoration, rather than retribution. Speak with them as they lift up the role that faith communities can play in reintegration of prisoners after their incarceration.

HELP MAKE HEALTH FUNDING AN ELECTION ISSUE

YesWeCare.nz and United Community Action Network [UCAN] invite you to Health Funding Crisis Forums on Saturday 1st July from 10 am - 3.30 pm. Forum will be held in Christchurch. It will be streamed online to events in, Wellington, any self-hosted events and online for those who can't attend an event or where there isn't one yet. Without action, more Kiwis are going to miss out on the mental and physical health care they need, when they need it.

We've invited the most active community groups, workplace and health activists to work on a grassroots election plan.

Campaigning has made mental health a key election issue. We need to keep the pressure up and make physical health funding a key election issue as well.

TIME TO CELEBRATE!

For four years unions, faith groups, community organisations and unions in the Living Wage Movement have campaigned for the Living Wage at Wellington City Council. We've had some big wins and WCC has taken some big steps forward.

Now we're preparing to celebrate.

On 28 June Wellington City Council will vote on taking another major step:

- The full NZ Living Wage rate of $20.20 for all directly employed workers and all those employed in CCOs by 1 July.
- The full NZ Living Wage rate for Council's Spotless cleaners and Recon security workers by 1 July.
- Lifting other contracted workers to the full NZ Living Wage rate as the next step.

We are confident this has the support of Council. Join others from the Living Wage Movement to thank the Mayor and councillors for their support of the Living Wage and to celebrate our victory.

12 noon – 12.30, Thursday 29 June
