Pentecost 13 - River Sunday

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We usually sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Printed copies of the reflections are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

This is the month of September!

When we reflect on the breadth and depth and length of Creation

Today is River Sunday

When we reflect on rivers, all they bring us and all we owe them

This place is a sacred space

One of the places in which we consider, pray, receive and respond to grace and beauty

One of the places where we can be challenged to hear the demands of the divine and the planet

In this month, on this day, in this place, we journey the River of Life.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Song of the Waters'

Words: ©Norman Habel. Tune (CH4 160): Praise, my soul

Watch once more the windswept storm clouds;

Suddenly the sky has wings!

God has come to rain among us, giving hope to all dry things.

Sing a song of splashing waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth.

Taste the moisture of the morning, smoother than the best red wine;

toast the lifeblood of the planet:
Here's to God's wild wet design!

Sing a song of flowing waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth.

View anew the dark blue ocean,
Whales cavorting, spraying foam;

God at play with deep sea monsters,
feeling very much at home.
Sing a song of laughing waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth.

Feel the breath of God move softly, gentle mists that brush the skin;
Earth is breathing God's own spirit, life renewed from deep within.
Sing a song of living waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou. Kia ora.

CALL TO WORSHIP

We call to the rivers to worship with us:
the Clutha, Rakaia, Manawatu, and Waikato, all rivers that flow to the sea.

We invite the streams to sing:
Trout and water crays, inanga whitebait, Cockabullies and eels sing praise.

We invite the river birds to add their praise.
Whio, and mallard duck,
Kingfisher and dragonflies call their praise.

We join with the waters in their hymn of praise:
waterfalls, singing streams, rushing rapids and still pools, ripples that dance at the river mouth.
Sing, river, sing praise to all creation.

PRAYER

We remember the rivers across our planet, rivers that are the lifeblood of Earth and vital for all forms of life.

We remember the streams of our past, the pools and ponds where we played and the feeling of celebration as we splashed each other.

We remember and rejoice.

We give thanks for rivers, streams that flow with the water of life.

We acknowledge and confess that we have become alienated from Earth and have polluted the rivers of our garden planet.

We are sorry.

We have polluted our rivers with poisons.

We have treated our streams as waste dumps.

We have turned living waters into death-traps.

We have wasted precious waters in luxury living.

We need to be taught to love Earth and return to Earth as our home.

Shalom! Shalom!

We are coming home!

As we come home to Earth,
As we seek to love our home,
As we seek to care for our kin,
Open our hearts.

Creation's glory fills our planet.

May we discern the vibrant presence among us and our kin in creation, especially in the rivers, the streams and waterways of Earth. Help us empathise with creatures who are suffering. May our spirits lift and rejoice with the vibrant world of the rivers and waterways of our planet.

Amen.

SUNG RESPONSE (sung twice seated)

'When Peace, Like a River'

Words: Horatio Gates Spafford (1873), Philip Paul Bliss. Public Domain

Tune: Ville Du Havre. Public Domain

When peace like a river attendeth my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll;
whatever my lot, you have taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul."

Refrain

It is well with my soul;

it is well, it is well with my soul.

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW CANDLE

TIME WITH THE CHILDREN

Colma Froggatt

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together. We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

ST ANDREW'S SINGERS

The River

Words ©Joy Cowley. Music © 2014 Vivien Chiu

Life is like a river
that flows towards the sea.
It has a small beginning, increasing gradually until it's in a larger place,
a current deep and wide,
giving its abundance to the land on either side.

*And I have a question to ask you, my friend.
Where does the sea begin?
Where does the river end?*

The river has its secrets.
In its depths it knows the nature of the ocean
where its water flows.
It hears the seabirds singing.
It feels the touch of foam.
The sea is always calling the river to come home. Chorus

Life is like a river
and deep inside my mind, the call of love grows stronger
as I leave each day behind.
We move with the current of this unseen mystery.
Already we have knowledge of the presence of the sea. Chorus

REFLECTION

'Rivers for Life'

Andrew Matthews

CONTEMPORARY READING

Wendy Matthews

From This is All: The Pillow Book of Cordelia Kenn
By Aidan Chambers

I thought how lovely and how strange a river is. A river is a river, always there, and yet the water flowing through it is never the same water and is never still. It's always changing and is always on the move. And over time the river itself changes too. It widens and deepens as it rubs and scours, gnaws and kneads, eats and bores its way through the land. Even the greatest rivers- the Nile and the Ganges, the Yangtze and the Mississippi, the Amazon and the great grey-green greasy Limpopo all set about with fever trees - must have been no more than trickles and flickering streams before they grew into mighty rivers.

Are people like that? I wondered. Am I like that? Always me, like the river itself, always flowing but always different, like the water flowing in the river, sometimes walking steadily along andante, sometimes surging over rapids furioso, sometimes meandering with hardly any visible movement tranquilo, lento, sometimes gurgling with pleasure, sometimes sparkling in the sun, sometimes appassionato, sometimes misterioso, sometimes staccato, sometimes vivace, and always, I hope, amoroso.

Do I change like a river, widening and deepening, eddying back on myself sometimes, bursting my banks sometimes when there's too much water, too much life in me, and sometimes dried up from lack of rain? Will the I that is me grow and widen and deepen? Or will I stagnate and become an arid riverbed? Will I allow people to dam me up and confine me so that I flow only where they want? Will I allow them to turn me into a canal to use for their own purposes? Or will I make sure I flow freely, coursing my way through the land and ploughing a valley of my own?

HYMN

'Guide me, O thou great Jehovah'

Words and music: Public Domain. John Hughes, Peter Williams, William Williams.

Tune: CH4 167 Cwm Rhondda. Public Domain.

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven
Feed me till I want no more;
Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong deliverer, strong deliverer;
Be thou still my strength and shield;
Be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's destruction
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises, songs of praises,
I will ever give to thee;
I will ever give to thee.

ST ANDREW'S COMMUNITY NOTICES

SATRS – EVENT FOR SEPTEMBER

Tuesday 12 September, 12.15pm Paul Gibson, recent Disability Rights Commissioner will talk to our theme of Courage to change. Paul Gibson was the Disability Rights Commissioner for the Human Rights Commission from 2011-2017. He is a former president of the Disabled People's Assembly and was involved in the development of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities (CRPD). Paul is partially blind and uses Braille and assistive technology. He has 20 years of experience in the health and disability sector including working for Capital Coast District Health Board as a senior disability advisor.

HEALTHY AND SAFETY CAN YOU HELP?

In our Health and Safety planning it would be good to know if we have medically trained personnel in our congregation, or trained first aiders, happy to be called on if needed during Sunday Gatherings and other church events. We would be discreet about such a list, but if Susan or other leaders of church event know who is qualified they can more rapidly turn to those people first. Of course in a city like Wellington we would very quickly ask for ambulance aid, but it is good to know who is trained in what to do initially. Please let Pam Fuller know if you are one of these people. Susan
