

ORDER OF SERVICE

26th November 2017

Pentecost 25 Art and Spirit

Trinity by Anton Rublev

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: stop, drop and hold.

GATHERING

The heavens proclaim the glory of God.

The skies display God's craftsmanship.

Day after day they continue to speak;

night after night they make God known.

They speak without a sound or word;

their voice is never heard.

Yet their message has gone throughout the earth, and their words to all the world.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Reckless extravagance'

Words: © Andrew Pratt Music: Was Lebet, WOV 104

Reckless extravagance, laughter and daring, lavish exuberance, thunder and light, burning compassion and love un-exhausted, pouring from God with all passion and might.

Artist, explorer, composer and scholar fathom the wonder of being and need, piercing the mystery of love and creation, take us where hope and existence would lead.

Searching the future, yet held in the present, cradled by all that has brought us to birth,
here we would open our hearts to our neighbours, loving with passion, for all we are worth

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

PRAYER

.....And as we near St Andrew's Day, we give thanks for images and stories of St Andrew, which connect us to one strand of our history, our Scottish roots.

We remember

Andrew the curious, Andrew the networker and Andrew the dedicated disciple, patron saint of Scotland and we hold him in honour now.

BLESSING THE CHILDREN

God bless you as you go to the Rainbow Room. May you learn a lot and enjoy your time together. Bring back to us all your energy and enthusiasm

We bless you. Amen.

HYMN

'Sing of Andrew'

Words: © Carl P Daw Jr Tune: Nettleton

Sing of Andrew, John's disciple, led by faith through ways untrod, till the Baptist cried at Jordan,
"There behold the Lamb of God!"
Stirred by hearing this new teacher,
Andrew, freed from doubt and fear,
ran to tell his brother Simon, God's Anointed One is here!"

Sing of Andrew, called by Jesus from the shores of Galilee, leaving boats and nets and kindred, trusting in that "Follow me."
When a lad's small meal fed thousands,

when inquiring Greeks found care,
when the Spirit came in blessing,
Andrew faithfully was there.

Sing of Andrew, bold apostle, sent to make the gospel known,
faithful to his Lord's example, called to make a cross his own.
So may we who prize his memory honour Christ in our own day, bearing witness to our neighbours, living what we sing and pray.

HYMN

'Ancient peoples sought transcendence'

Words: © Fiona McDougal, based on "The Role of Art in Christian Tradition" by Juliet Benner
Tune: Scarlet Ribbons

Ancient peoples sought transcendence
through their images of God.
Abrahamic faiths forbade this,
holding idols to be wrong.
Still the sacred scriptures showed that stories conveyed truth and light.
Imager'y and metaphor touch peoples' hearts and minds alike.

Early Christian catacombs had paintings and mosaics drawn.
God the creator's not depicted, Jesus as th'incarnate one could be shown in Bible stories, made his presence seem more real.
Strengthened those who suffered greatly for their faith, and did not yield.

Middle Ages brought new riches;
artists' meditative work served to deepen understanding, increase faith and spread the Word.
Pilgrims ending weary journeys, saw ahead cathedral spires.
In the grandeur, glass and friezes sensing hopes and truths much higher.

Zealous Protestant reformers, focused on the Word of God.
They, believing art was sinful rampaged, pillaged and destroyed.
Now we use art in our worship, healing depths words cannot reach.
Mystery beyond all knowing, love of God expressed for each.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

OFFERING

With gratitude we acknowledge your many gifts to us.

A world of beauty that stirs our hearts to wonder,
art which moves and inspires us, people who give support and care.

May the gifts we offer create strength and hope in the lives of others, making your love real in our world,

Amen.

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table and those given to support the mission of the church through automatic payment.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Mike Wespel-Rose

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of the Presbyterian Church of the Democratic Republic of Congo. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Huo Raymond and Willie Jackson, Labour Party MPs. Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Stratford and St Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

HYMN

'Moved by the Gospel'

Words: © Ruth Duck Tune: Kingsfold WOV 500

Moved by the Gospel, let us move with every gift and art.
The image of creative love indwells each human heart.
The Maker calls creation good, so let us now express with sound and colour, stone and wood, the shape of holiness.

Let weavers form from broken strands a tapestry of prayer.
Let artists paint with skilful hands their joy, lament and care.
Then mime the story: Christ has come.
With reverence dance the Word.
With flute and organ, gong and drum,
God's praise be ever heard.

O Spirit, breathe among us here, inspire the work we do.
May hands and voices, eye and ear attest to life made new.
In worship and in daily strife create among us still.
Great Artist form our common life according to Your will.

BLESSING

God the creator inspire us now, Jesus our guide
lead us on our way, Spirit of love
enfold all we are and do.
AMEN

ST ANDREWS TRUST FOR THE STUDY OF RELIGION AND SOCIETY (SATRS)

Board Vacancy: The Constitution for the SATRS Trust Board allows for three nominees from the parish. The chair, Pam Fuller is a Parish member. With the recent retirement of Jim Cunningham we are looking for new members.

The Board meets on the first Tuesday of the month at 5pm February to December to discuss the work of the Board and plan the year's activities. Additionally, Board members are expected to attend and assist with events as and when they are able. The administrative work of the Board is currently supported by Peter Cowley, who is employed by SATRS for a few hours per week.

If you would be interested in learning more about the Board you can contact Pam Fuller on pjfuller@gmail.com or if you would be interested in putting your name forward to Parish Council to join the Board please contact Lynne Dovey on lynne.doveynz@gmail.com.

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY 2018

Education for Ministry is an adult learning programme designed to link Christian faith with daily life, and to deepen Christian discipleship. It combines scholarly and systematic Bible study and education in theology and church history, with small group worship, prayer and companionship. What we learn through our study is joined to our own lives and experiences through the process of theological reflection. EfM is a four-year programme though group members sign up for one year at a time. The EfM programme covers the Christian tradition from the earliest period to the present.

Year 1: The Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament)

Year 2: The New Testament

Year 3: Church History

Year 4: Theology, Ethics, and Inter-faith Encounter

In New Zealand, the EfM programme also includes a unit which focuses on The History of the Church in Aotearoa New Zealand. EfM groups meet weekly for 2-3 hours and are led by a trained mentor. The curriculum is designed for 36 weekly sessions over a 12-month period and requires 3-5 hours pre-reading and preparation weekly. There are groups in Wellington and the Hutt Valley. If you are interested, check out the EfM website <http://www.efm.org.nz> or speak to/contact to Fiona McDougal fionaredsquirrel@gmail.com

'SOMETHING NEW TO SAY' BY BRONWYN ANGELA WHITE

A collection of liturgy resources for Advent and Christmas in Aotearoa.

Pre-order and pre-pay to help with printing costs! 'Something new to say' is available as an ebook from Amazon, but Bronwyn is getting quotes to have it printed in soft copy.

With each pre-paid for copy, you'll also receive either a free copy of her earlier book, 'you who delight me', or a 30% discount off the price of the third book in her "Words of spirit and faith" series. Approximately a cost of around $20.00 per book, depending on the number of orders.

Please get in touch on email bronz99@live.com or via the 'you who delight me' Facebook page. Bank account details so you can deposit your pre-payment will be sent once printing quotes are in.

ADVENT GATHERING

Methodist and Presbyterian Women cordially invite you to come to the Advent Gathering - Monday 4 December 2017 at 7:30 pm at Johnsonville Uniting Church, Dr Taylor Terrace, Johnsonville. Please bring a plate of finger food per car, to share.

LIVING WAGE

Councillor Paul Eagle was very supportive of the Living Wage on Wellington City Council. Now he has been "elevated" to become the local M.P. there will be a bi-election to replace him. It is important to maintain the momentum for full adoption of the Living Wage by Council, so a meeting with the candidates has been arranged for Tuesday December 5th from 7 - 8.30pm at the Samoan Assembly of God Church, 193 Rintoul Street in Berhampore. Much of our success up to now in promoting the Living Wage comes from our political leaders realising that it has community support. So once again, please come and support this if you can, and though it doesn't matter if you don't live in the Southern Ward for numbers are what counts, if you do it is extra important to show your support.

Join us to share the Living Wage story with candidates and to seek their commitment to continue Council's support for the Living Wage.
