ORDER OF SERVICE

Sunday 9th June 2013

Ratapu 9 Pipiri 2013

The Third Sunday after Pentecost

MATARIKI
CELEBRATION OF NEW ZEALAND

It is said that the ancestors of Māori, including the Polynesians of ancient history, welcomed Matariki by flying kites (pākau). Many Matariki celebrations now involve making and flying kites.

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to,
whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

During the building of the Welcome Centre, the only toilets available are upstairs in the Conference Centre. Access is via the external stairway at the back of the car park. We apologise for lack of disability access until mid-October 2013.

Telling our gospel stories

V1& chorus: William Parker/ Fanny J Crosby; v2 & chorus: Bronwyn White

Tell me the stories of Jesus I love to hear;
Things I would ask him to tell me if he were here;
Scenes by the wayside, tales of the sea,
Stories of Jesus, tell them to me.

Tell me the old, old story

Tell me the old, old story

Tell me the old, old story

Of Jesus and his love.

Sharing the stories of our lives: what helped us see things that have formed our own gospel; what set us free
Changes in thinking, twists on the way
Stories that formed us: tell them today

We share our new, fresh stories

We share familiar stories

We share our good news stories

Of lives transformed by love.

HĪMENE (hymn)

He Waiata mō Aotearoa (Song for Aotearoa)

Lyrics: Bronwyn Angela White - Tune: Hanover—O Worship the King

Give thanks for Creation: orokohanga that cosmic explosion—our whakapapa;
for logos and mythos, for spirit and word
give thanks for the ethos through which they are heard.

Remember ngā tūpuna—those gone before their stars shining on us in Aotearoa for we are the ashes of stars as they die niho taniwha on the cloak of the sky.

Give thanks for the speakers: ngā kaikōrero
we hear and we listen—aroā whakarongo
With courage, with passion we greet the new day
ngā pā harakeke of cosmos and clay.

PANUI: TE WAIRUA KI TE WHANAU (Life in the Community)

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

KOHA (Offering)

Seven Eyes—Hannah Horsfield

KAWANGA (Dedication—Offering prayer)

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table and those given to support the mission of the church through automatic payment.

Wairua Tapu, Creative Spirit,
as we bring our gifts, koha of hand and heart,
inspire us to bring to life our vision of mana whenua
where everyone is valued and understood where the gifts of the spirit bud and flower and bear the spirit's fruit.
Amine.

INOI O NGĀ TANGATA (Prayers of the People)

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Slovakia, and the Reformed Christian Church in Slovakia.

In New Zealand, we remember those in parliament, and today we name Michael Woodhouse and Jian Yang, List MPs.

Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of St Christopher's Presbyterian Church, Seatoun/Strathmore.

Ehara i te mea

Ehara i te mea
No i naiane i te aroha
No ngā
tipuna tuku iho, tuku iho

Not the thing
of recent times, is love but by the ancestors it has been passed down, passed down.

Te whenua, te whenua
Hei oranga mo te iwi
No ngā tipuna
tuku iho, tuku iho

From the land, the land
comes the wellbeing of the people;
by the ancestors it has been
passed down, passed down.

Whakapono, tumanako
Te Aroha ki te iwi
No ngā tipuna
tuku iho tuku iho

Faith, hope
and love;
by the ancestors they have been
passed down, passed down.

PRESBYTERY RESOURCING OCCASION

Saturday 15 June 2013, 4.30 pm – 7.00 pm

Knox Church, 574 High Street Lower Hutt

“New ways of being church for this new season”.

Facilitator: The Rev Martin Stewart, St Stephen's Christchurch

Martin was Moderator of Christchurch Presbytery at the time of the earthquakes and he and Anne share ministry at St Stephen's, Bryndwr and have been exploring a variety of ways of being “church” in their suburb.

The decision has since been made to demolish St Stephen's, Bryndwr. They and the people of both St Stephen's and St Giles', Papanui and the parents and students attending St Andrew's College are now exploring new ways of being church for this new time.

We in congregations in Wellington Presbytery face some similar but also some different challenges - so this is one of a series of opportunities we will be arranging for people from our congregations to come and share, to explore, and possibly discern ways that we can address some of our future challenges.

DCM NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT – IT'S BOOKFAIR TIME AGAIN

Ian Raistrick, Bookfair Co-ordinator writes

“The DCM Bookfair is the largest of its kind in Wellington. With some 90,000 books, as well as CDs, DVDs, vinyl, books and puzzles, it's a BIG event, and one which would not be the success it is without our wonderful volunteers. Thank you for the part you've played in the past, and the support you've given DCM.

DCM is a small organisation, but we're working on some of the biggest problems facing Wellington city. We support the most vulnerable people in our city to break the depressing cycle of life on the street. And we have a big vision – we firmly believe that by working together, we can end homelessness in our city.

The 2013 DCM Bookfair will be held at the TSB Bank Arena on the weekend of 17 and 18 August. We need volunteers to assist with setting-up on Friday, 16 August, at the fair itself on 17 and 18 August and with clearing up on the Sunday afternoon/early evening.

Please let me know if, how and when you can help us. If you know someone else who would like to help, please send me their contact details.”
