PENTECOST 2

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to,
whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.
Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

We come to re-weave the unravelling fabric of community;
to reconnect once more to the larger human family;
to find once more that place of calm;
to remind ourselves that we belong;
and to remember what it is that we belong to.

Let us celebrate life in the presence we name God.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Words: Gretta Vosper; Music WOV 28 'Lobe den Herren'
Used by Permission CCLI Licence #341550

Sing praise to all that has offered us life and sustains us – all that has opened our hearts to the love borne within us:
Family and friends,
Beauty we see without end –
gifts that our lives lay before us.

Sing praise to all that has opened our mind to new vistas –
all that has called us to seek out new truths through the ages:
Vision and word,
Music that sought to be heard,
These are the gifts that will mould us.

Sing praise to minds that will fashion our bold new tomorrows – yesterdays wisdom released from its dogma and credos.
Evermore free
to live out what we believe walking the path that Life hallows.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Christians from early days found Christ in showing hospitality...

So we too welcome all.

The Celts of old gathered round hearths
to share stories, eat and drink , and keep warm.....

Maori have their rituals of welcome and hospitality....

So we also gather together.

People of all lands and times join in circles of community.

*So we make a circle today,
to create a place of openness and listening;
to see with new eyes;
to make space for encounter;
and to catch a glimpse of God.*

HYMN

Words: Brian Wren; © 1991 Hope Publishing Company
Music WOV 468 Tallis' Canon Used by Permission CCLI Licence #341550

A man of ancient time and place
with foreign speech and foreign face, reveals the glory, power and grace
of costly, unexpected love.

A rabbi, schooled in Moses' Law,
a male, amending Herod's flaw,
arouses wonder, rage and awe
with costly, unexpected love.

By teasing word and healing deed,
a leper touched, an outcast freed,
he bears the fruit and plants the seed
of costly, unexpected love.

The cost we barely can surmise
when, lifted up before our eyes,
the face of God we recognise
in crucified, unfathomed love.

May faith and hope within us grow,
the way of Christ to tell and show,
and may the Spirit breathe and blow
in costly, unexpected love.

HYMN

Words: Author not known

Music: Londonderry Air

Who is this man, who gathered people to him
and touched their lives along each dusty way,
who spoke to all with passion and with peacefulness
and valued all their ordinary days?

Who is this man, who at the day's long ending,
would draw apart to wait on God and pray?

Who, in the mystery that knows no ending,
would find God's wisdom and would know God's words to say?

Who is this man, who gave to women dignity
in partnership of worth and equal grace?

Who listened to the stories that they told him,
and honoured each whatever was their place;
who let them choose to come and join his company
and learned with them God's love of every race,
who showed to each the courage of their nature
to care and tend each lonely and each suffering face?

Who is this man, who spoke to men of gentleness
and showed them all the children at his side;
who taught of love and justice for all people,
and took a towel and washed away their pride?
In him they saw the strength of truth and mercy,
and how he trusted God to be his guide,
knew how he led them through misunderstanding,
and then forgave them when they ran away to hide.

Who is this man, who calls us now to follow,
a shadow presence asking us to be
companions on the way through this life journey,
to live in truth, to set our tired world free?
So, let us find each other now in partnership,
with ears to hear and eyes awake to see,
that we might grow in grace and understanding,
and walk beside that man who comes from Galilee.

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN

BEING SMART ON CRIME - IT MAY WORK BUT IS IT JUSTICE?

Kim Workman

New Zealanders are starting to recognise that the criminal justice system is failing too many, costing too much, and helping too few.

To effectively tackle these challenges, we must abandon heated rhetoric and explore policies based not on ideology, but on evidence. Kim Workman talks about the shift from a 'Tough on Crime' policy to a Smart on Crime policy, which emphasises cost-effective, evidence-based solutions to crime. He discusses the balance between being safe, and being just.

SPIRITED CONVERSATION @ THISTLE INN Monday 7 July Jan and the Public Good

Jan Rivers is a local librarian and political activist passionate about politics, current affairs and New Zealand's future. She grew up in an environment influenced by progressive post-war government policies in the UK and recognises the need for progressive pro-people policies in today's New Zealand.

Why Public Good?

While there are a number of organisations addressing individual issues there is no broad-based organisation that explicitly takes up the whole idea of wider recognition of the role of people and communities – rather than politicians and corporates – in shaping our nation.

There is a need for a citizen group that advocates for the role of an effective public sector – backed by a beneficent state – in providing not only public services but also in addressing complex problems like climate change and environmental degradation, an aging population and high levels of inequality (and its corrosive effects). Public Good aims to ensure that we all have a stake in New Zealand society.

Jan will talk about her influences leading to the work on public good, its journey to date and the upcoming conference Democracy, Ethics and the Public Good to be held jointly with the St Andrew's Study Trust as part of its 2014 Choices theme.

SAVE THE DATE – SATURDAY 6 SEPTEMBER 2014 FROM 1-4 P.M.

St Andrew's Centre Spring Fair (otherwise known as Handmade Heaven +)
Handmade wearables, hangables, edibles, growables and quality recyclables
Plenty of other people will be milling around using the wonderful facilities of our centre and church that day, so we plan to have a big fundraiser in the afternoon and you are invited to be part of it.

More information coming soon, but in the meantime, start being creative: paint, draw, knit, sew, grow, bake, brew, photograph, make or compose something we could sell!

(N.B. No 2nd-hand clothes or books please, to avoid overlapping with other established fundraisers)

For creative ideas, contact Sue at sue.mcrae.nz@gmail.com or Bronwyn at bronz99@live.com
