Hato Anaru o Te Parehua

Founded 1840

ORDER OF SERVICE

Sunday 6 July 2014

FOURTH SUNDAY OF PENTECOST
Matariki: Kaitiakitanga me Manaakitanga

Matariki Ahunga Nui

From the stars we come and to the stars we shall return...

listen to the whispers of the old ones who travelled here before us...

Listen to their whispers left hidden in the land and held within the pages of this taonga...

Toitū te whenua — Leave the land undisturbed.

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Nau mai, Haere mai!

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.
Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

*Today's service is created and led by Bronwyn White;
Communion is celebrated by Rev Ken Irwin*

KARAKIA (church order of service)

PUORO (Music) for gathering

E Taku Kuru Pounamu

Translation—not sung

Greetings to you all

Dear friends

Who have arrived here

At this time

Nō reira rē

E hoa mē

Kia ora rē

Koutou katoa

And so it is

Our dear friends

That we extend our greetings

To you all

Kua rongohia ahau

Kei te haere mai koutou

Nō reira rē

E hoa mē

Kia ora rē koutou katoa

I had heard of course

That you were coming

And so it is

Our dear friends

That we extend our greetings to you all

MIHI WHAKATAU (Welcome)

Tēnā koutou, tēnā koutou, tēnā tatou katoa.
Kia ora. Ngā mihi o te ata.
Piki mai kake mai ki Te Hato Anaru o Te Parehua.
E te whānau a Te Karaiti
ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.
Kia ora tatou.

INOI TIA (Prayer)

May the blessings of our ancestors be upon us all.
They set the pathway for us all to follow.
They gave us our heritage, and instilled in our hearts our culture and righteousness to assist us in whatever we do; with honour and a clear mind, and with love for each other.
Let us hold fast to this belief.

KARAKIA – WAIATA

E to matou Matua i te rangi
Kia tapu tou Ingoa.

Kia tae mai tou rangatiratanga.

Kia meatia tau e pai ai ki runga ki te whenua, kia rite ano ki to te rangi.

Homai ki a matou aianeī
he taro ma matou mo tenei ra.

Murua o matou hara,
Me matou hoki e muru nei
i o te hunga e hara ana ki a matou
Aua hoki matou e kawea kia whakawaia;

Engari whakaorangia matou i te kino:
Nou hoki te rangatiratanga,
te kaha, me te kororia,

Ake ake ake. Amine

E to matou Matua i te rangi

Sing along to video—words on screen

Translation—not sung:

Our Parent in the spirit world
Sacred is your Name
Bring us your Chiefly rule;
May it happen in the way that is to you good;
may it happen on earth
in the same way as in spirit world.
Give us now
the food we need this day.
Strip us of our sins;
Give us back what we have lost;
so that we, the slaves of sin,
may be with you again.
Do not lead us into temptation;
May we be whole, away from things evil;
Through your chiefly position,
is the power
and the glory.
Forever and ever
Amen

TE KĀNARA O TE WHARE ĀNIWANIWA (Rainbow room candle)

As it's school holidays, there's no Rainbow Room programme today, so the children are invited to stay at the front or sit with their whanau.

MĀNAWATANGA O NGĀ TĀMARIKI (Blessing the Children)

May the gentle light of Matariki guide and inspire you all this year.

Ma te Atua koe e tiaki. Amine.

KŌRERO PŪMAHARA (Words of Wisdom) Frances Porter & Ken Irwin

Video: Creation stories—How Maui fished up Aotearoa

In the beginning was Te Kore, the void—The Creation—Queenie Rikihana Hyland

In the beginning God created—Genesis 1: 1 - 10 New International Version (NIV)

In the beginning was Te Kukune (the Conception)—Tina Makareti, quoting Bill Bryson, from

Twitch

In the beginning was The Word—John 1:1 - 5 New English Translation

WHAKAUTU (Response)

For words of wisdom from our past for stories handed down from generation to generation:

whakatipuranga ki whakatipuranga for words of healing and understanding:

whakaora me whai mahara

Kia ora koe.

HĪMENE (Hymn)

He Waiata mō Aotearoa (Song for Aotearoa)

Lyrics: Bronwyn Angela White Tune: Hanover—O Worship the King

Give thanks for Creation: orokohanga that cosmic explosion—our whakapapa; for logos and mythos, for spirit and word give thanks for the ethos through which they are heard.

Remember nga tūpuna—those gone before their stars shining on us in Aotearoa for we are the ashes of stars as they die niho taniwha on the cloak of the sky.

Give thanks for the speakers: nga whaikōrero
we hear and we listen—aroā whakarongo
With courage, with passion we greet the new day nga pā harakeke of cosmos and clay.

Kaitiakitanga me Manaakitanga

HĪMENE (Hymn)

Purea Nei (AA115)

Henare Mahanga/Hirini Melbourne

Purea nei e te hau
Horoia e te ua
Whitiwhitia e te ra
Mahea ake nga poraruraru
Makere ana nga here.

Scattered by the wind / Cleansed by the wind washed by the rain and transformed by the sun / shining with the sun all doubts are swept away / our burdens lifted and all restrains are cast down / our bonds untied.

E rere wairua, e rere
Ki nga ao o te rangi
Whitiwhitia e te ra
Mahea ake nga poraruraru
Makere ana nga here,
Makere ana nga here.

Fly O free spirit, fly / Soar, Spirit, soar to the clouds in the heavens / to the heavenly places transformed by the sun / shining with the sun with all doubts swept away / our burdens lifted and all restrains cast down / our bonds untied
Yes, all restrains are cast down / our bonds untied.

PĀNUI: TE WAIRUA KI TE WHANAU (Life in the Community)

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

KOHA (Offering)

E toru ngā mea

Fiona McDougal, flute and Mike Wespel-Rose, guitar

*E toru ngē mea
Ngē mea nunui
E kī ana Te Paipera
Whakapono Tūmanako Ko te mea nui Ko te aroha*

There are three great things spoken of in the Bible:
faith, hope and the greatest of all, love

KAWANGA (Dedication—Offering prayer)

[We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table and those given to support the mission of the church through automatic payment.]

Wairua Tapu, Creative Spirit, as we bring our gifts, koha of hand and heart, inspire us to bring to life our vision of mana whenua where everyone is valued and understood where the gifts of the spirit bud and flower and bear the spirit's fruit. Amine

KAINGA TAHITANGA TAPU (COMMUNION)

COMMUNION HYMN

Companions, let us pray together

Words: David Clark & Witi Ihimaera. Music: David Hamilton

Companions let us pray together,
in this place affirm our faith.
God who made us is here among us,
we stand together in God's grace.

*We are whanau we are one, brothers, sisters of the Son.
We are reaching for our freedom,
the prize that Christ has won.*

The broken Christ stands here among us, shares our suffering and our pain.
In breaking bread we find empowerment to live in aroha again.

The risen Christ brings light and laughter, celebrates the life we share.
The poured out wine of Christ's self-giving inspires us to reach out and care.

Now let us sing to God who loves us and accepts us as we are.
Go out from here and live that message, proclaim our oneness near and far.

WHAKAWHITIWHITI O TE RANGIMĀRIE (Sharing the peace)

Greet your neighbours with one of these phrases:
Tēnā koe, e hoa (greetings, friend) / Peace be with you
Ngā mihi o te Tau Hou (Happy New Year)
Mā te Atua e manaaki (God bless)

THE INVITATION

Naumai, haeremai
unqualified welcome to this Table

Because there is one loaf
we who are many and different are one body, one community of faith.
This Bread is to nourish and strengthen us on our journey as followers of the Way of Jesus.
This cup of blessing for which we give thanks, is for refreshment and sustenance.
We salute Jesus, the author and pioneer of our faith.

PRAYERS OF THANKSGIVING AND REMEMBERING OUR TIPUNA

Eternal God, we thank you that despite our brokenness, our ignorance, our lack of justice, you still persevere with us.

You come as a mountain—like Te tangi o te kio—
a sign to help us in our search for identity.
You come as a river—like Te Awakairangi—
a sign of your power flowing into our lives.
You come as a tree—like the Totara—majestic and strong, filling us with awe.
You come as the birds—like ruru by night, and korimako by day, calling us into your presence.
You come as a strong northerly wind—to blow away old habits and past mistakes.
You come as place—like Whanganui-a-Tara—giving us a home where we may live.
In your church—your whare karakia—you surround us with your presence, empower us to be your people, and entrust us to do your will.

We thank you for the life of Jesus Christ, your child, sent to live as one of us:
that through him the poor might find release;
the oppressed, liberty;
the sorrowful, joy;
the sick, wholeness;
and the course of human history be reshaped.

So with the living and with all who have gone before us,
we praise your name:

Beloved and blessed God of strength and tenderness
We in this circle are full of your glory
Hosanna all around
Blessed are we who come to celebrate liberation
Hosanna all around.

Now we give thanks for our ancestors in the faith, for the faithful followers of every age who have followed The Way of Jesus.

We remember those in our community who have gone before us and are now dead
Those who surround us now
Those who will come after us.

We give thanks for the Communion of Saints.

We thank you for The Way of Jesus, the one we call Light of the World, and for the gift of your Spirit to support and guide us.

Yes, it is right to give you thanks and praise.
You said: "Let there be Light!" and there was light.

Your light shines strong even when our own lights flicker.

THE STORY: REMEMBERING WHAT JESUS DID

Wise and gracious God, Creator of all good things, Redeemer of this broken world,
you who bless all people and the earth itself.
You are the source of love in the world.
We see you in our friends and lovers, our partners and children.
We see you in the bodies of hungry people, tortured people, and the tortured earth.

We believe in you, we love you, we know you are with us, because we remember the power you revealed to us in the life of Jesus, - our brother and our friend.

On that night so long ago.
Jesus hosted a meal with his friends.
Through grain and grape, bread and wine and in fellowship with his friends,
Jesus spoke of his enduring love for each of them.

That story has become our story as we continue to celebrate love and hope in our community of faith.

So we BREAK THIS BREAD to be shared by us all
And we LIFT UP THIS CUP as a cup of blessing to be drunk by us all.

BLESSING THE FOOD & DRINK

He konei koe e te Ariki
Manaaki tia mai enei kai
Hei ora mo te tinana
Kia mahi ano kia koe
Amine

MUSIC DURING DISTRIBUTION: Aku Mahi

Aotearoa calls to people throughout the land, welcome to my work...

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We give thanks, God that we have gathered together in this sacred place, that we have been refreshed at this meal.
We thank you for each person here.
We recommit to being your community for each other for our city and our world.
Amine

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Bosnia and Herzegovina and pray for understanding between people of different religious traditions in the world. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Maryan Street and Metiria Turei List MPs. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of Plimmerton Presbyterian Church.

MĀNAWATANGA (Blessing)

Bronwyn White

In mingling our wairua in the hongī in passing the peace of Christ from hand to hand in sharing the sacred meal, and morning tea we create a reality in which manuhiri and tangata whenua become one iwi.

Go in peace, knowing past hurts are healed, weaving our korero of faith and our mahi of aroha kaitiakitanga for our earth and its peoples manaakitanga for those in need into our every day
Amine.

*There is a 2-hour parking limit on the street in the Wellington CBD on Sundays.
If you are staying for an after-church activity, you can move your car into the car park, or move to a new space on the street.*

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in a "Belonging" form (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.

REHEARSALS FOR WATER FOR WEST BANK MUSIC-A-THON

Rehearsals are at 9am in the hall, for those interested in singing in the St Andrew's Singers group for the musicathon, which runs from 10.00am Monday 9 August to 10am Sunday the 10th at St John's in the City. We have been given a tentative time of 12.30pm on Saturday.

If any queries please email Vivien Chiu on music@standrews.org.nz.

SPIRITED CONVERSATION @ THISTLE INN Monday 7 July 7 pm (meal from 5.30 pm) "Jan and the Public Good."

Jan Rivers is a local librarian and political activist passionate about politics, current affairs and New Zealand's future. She grew up in an environment influenced by progressive post-war government policies in the UK and recognises the need for progressive pro-people policies in today's New Zealand.

Why Public Good?

While there are a number of organisations addressing individual issues there is no broad-based organisation that explicitly takes up the whole idea of wider recognition of the role of people and communities – rather than politicians and corporates – in shaping our nation.

There is a need for a citizen group that advocates for the role of an effective public sector – backed by a beneficent state – in providing not only public services but also in addressing complex problems like climate change and environmental degradation, an aging population and high levels of inequality (and its corrosive effects). Public Good aims to ensure that we all have a stake in New Zealand society.

Jan will talk about her influences leading to the work on public good, its journey to date and the upcoming conference Democracy, Ethics and the Public Good to be held jointly with the St Andrew's Study Trust as part of its 2014 Choices theme.

POETS QUARTET - Sunday 24 July

During this session DVD and CD will be used to explore the poetry of: Rumi, David Whyte, Hafiz and Naomi Shihab Nye. A lectio divina and group discussion approach will be used to discover how these poets use words to describe the ineffable and indescribable.

Facilitator: Pip Nicholls www.thegentleartofknowing.co.nz

Venue: St Andrew on the Terrace, The Terrace, Wellington (wheelchair accessible)

Cost: $10 a session

Enquiries/registration to: Pip Nicholls (04) 562 6364 or pip.nicholls@xtra.co.nz

"WHY COME TO CHURCH?" Lloyd Geering will be speaking on this topic at the Tawa Union Church Service on Sunday 13 July at 9.30am. A welcome has been extended.

WW1 ANNIVERSARY: PEACE VIGILS ON 4 AUGUST 2014

Monday, 4 August, is the 100th anniversary of the start of World War One, "The war to end all wars".

Peace Movement Aotearoa, in association with Quakers, is coordinating nation-wide candle-lit vigils on 4 August, in conjunction with pacifist and peace groups in other parts of the world who will be holding vigils to mark the anniversary and to highlight our mutual belief that conflict must be resolved peacefully rather than by war.

The three themes for the vigils in Aotearoa New Zealand are remembrance, ending war, and promoting peace.

The vigils are at 6pm on Monday, 4 August, at local war memorials or other suitable locations, and will all have the same messages based on the three themes above.

The details for each vigil will be added to the World War One web page at <http://www.converge.org.nz/pma/ww1.htm> as soon as they are confirmed.

If you are interested in helping to organise the vigil in your area, or have ideas for messages on banners and placards, please contact Peace Movement Aotearoa email pma@xtra.co.nz or tel 04 382 8129 as soon as possible. Thank you.

DCM'S ANNUAL BOOKFAIR is now less than two months away, 16-17 August 2014, at the TSB Bank Arena. The DCM Bookfair is the largest of its kind in Wellington, with some 90,000 books, as well as CDs, DVDs, vinyl and puzzles. Funds raised help DCM to make a real difference in people's lives. Our programmes are practical and useful, and often people are able to achieve well-being and independence for the first time in a long time.

Volunteers are needed during the Bookfair on 16 and 17 August to help out on the tills, greeting shoppers, walking the floor, as well as help outside the venue leafleting and encouraging people to come to the TSB Bank Arena. We also need volunteers to assist with setting up on Friday, 15 August, 10am-3pm, and with clearing up on the Sunday afternoon, 4-6pm.

If you are able to help in any way, please phone DCM any week day on 384 7699 or email office@dcm.org.nz

St Andrew's on The Terrace now has a bin in the church foyer for donations for the book fair.
