PENTECOST 5

Young people working together in a community garden during “Detroit Summer” an initiative led by Grace Lee Boggs and friends.

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics. Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. AA is the NZ hymnbook Alleluia Aotearoa. We will sing the hymns without announcement.

*Please note your nearest fire exit.
The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.
In an earthquake: stop, drop and hold.*

1st verse solo

Before the world began,
one Word was there;
grounded in God he was,
rooted in care;
by him all things were made,
in him was love displayed;
through him God spoke, and said,
"I AM FOR YOU".

All

Life found in him its source, death found its end;
light found in him its course, darkness its friend.
For neither death nor doubt nor darkness can put out the glow of God, the shout,
"I AM FOR YOU".

The Word was in the world which from him came:
unrecognised he was,
unknown by name;
one with all humankind,
with the unloved aligned,
convincing sight and mind,
"I AM FOR YOU".

All who received the Word
by God were blessed; sisters and brothers they
of earth's fond guest.
So did the Word of Grace proclaim in time and space and with a human face,
"I AM FOR YOU."

OPENING RESPONSES

You are home to the exile touch to the frozen daylight to the prisoner authority to the silent anger to the helpless laughter to the weary direction to the joyful:
come, our God, come

WELCOME

PRAYER

Sometimes it is easier to imagine you staying far away from us, O God.

We hold to a hope that, if you are in the distance, you cannot address our lives so directly.

But then, a distant God might not understand the complexities with which we struggle, and that feels lonely and we become anxious that you will not forgive us.....

Silent reflection

So, here we are, in our humanness, O God with all its messiness and pretences.

If we tend to hold you in some romantic green and glorious place:

Forgive us limiting your presence among us.

If we are tempted to push you away from us,

Forgive our lack of faith in your love.

When we think you do not see us:

Be present on the road before us

And remind us of our calling again.

For we know there is no place which is distant from the love of God.

Thanks be to God.

In this familiar place
I know the mystery of your grace,
*For the love that I receive, for the truth that I believe,
I praise and thank you for this here and now.*

In halting song and word
the music of your voice is heard,
*For the love that I receive, for the truth that I believe,
I praise and thank you for this here and now.*

Among these friends of mine
I taste the company divine,
*For the love that I receive, for the truth that I believe,
I praise and thank you for this here and now,*

Within this narrow sphere
I learn that you are everywhere,
*For the love that I receive, for the truth that I believe,
I praise and thank you for this here and now.*

WORD IN TEXTS

Ross Young

Hebrew Bible

Isaiah 55: 10-13

For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,

We give thanks.

REFLECTION

One good word?

Music for reflection:

“Romance” from ‘Five Bagatelles for Clarinet & Piano’ by Gerald Finzi
Nick Walshe, clarinet & Vivien Chiu, piano

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In the beginning before time, before people,
before the world began,
God was.

Here and now
among us, beside us.
enlisting the people of earth
for the purposes of heaven,
God is.

In the future,
when we have turned to dust
and all we know has found its fulfilment, God will be.

Not denying the world, but delighting in it,
Not condemning the world but redeeming it through Jesus Christ,
by the power of the Holy Spirit, God was,
God is,
God will be.

Calm and patient is the Spirit,
Word of God for people now, moving slow like nature's cycles, showing what to do, and how.

Calling us in times of exile,
pointing us towards our home,
visioning a better future than the past we've always known.

Reimagining with wonder possibilities we missed, working for a new creation, strength'ning us to take the risk.

Broken vet'rans are rebuilding houses, as inspired by Grace hiphop songs, commun'ty gardens transform lives and desert place.

Here we bring, small or great,
Gifts to offer on this plate,
what we've earned, what we own,
tithe or token, bread or stone.

Wild flowers grow, birds find seed,
God attends to each one's need,
as we share, all can live, as we love, we learn to give.

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table and those given to support the mission of the church through automatic payment.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Colma Froggatt

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Botswana and pray for the Botswana Christian Council. Here in New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Su'a William Sio and Dr Nick Smith and the people of their electorates in Mangere and Nelson. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of The Wellington City Salvation Army.

You shall go out with joy and be led forth in peace, and the moun-tains and the hills shall break forth in sing-ing. There'll be shouts of joy, and the trees of the field shall clap, shall clap their hands, and the trees of the field shall clap their hands, and the trees of the field shall clap their hands, and the trees of the field shall clap their hands, and you'll go out with joy.

You shall go out with joy
And be led forth with peace,
And the mountains and the hills shall break forth in singing.

There'll be shouts of joy
And the trees of the fields
Shall clap, shall clap their hands.

And the trees of the fields will clap their hands
And the trees of the fields will clap their hands
And the trees of the fields will clap their hands
And you'll go out with joy.

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN

Let us rejoice with God's creation and live in peace!
May our lives be touched by Jesus, the living word.
Hear the voice of the Spirit as she calls us home!

Thanks to Bruce Corkill, our organist this morning.

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in a "Belonging" form (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.

WW1 ANNIVERSARY: PEACE VIGILS ON 4 AUGUST 2014

Monday, 4 August, is the 100th anniversary of the start of World War One, "The war to end all wars".

Peace Movement Aotearoa, in association with Quakers, is coordinating nation-wide candle-lit vigils on 4 August, in conjunction with pacifist and peace groups in other parts of the world who will be holding vigils to mark the anniversary and to highlight our mutual belief that conflict must be resolved peacefully rather than by war.

The three themes for the vigils in Aotearoa New Zealand are remembrance, ending war, and promoting peace.

The vigils are at 6pm on Monday, 4 August, at local war memorials or other suitable locations, and will all have the same messages based on the three themes above.

The details for each vigil will be added to the World War One web page at <http://www.converge.org.nz/pma/ww1.htm> as soon as they are confirmed.

If you are interested in helping to organise the vigil in your area, or have ideas for messages on banners and placards, please contact Peace Movement Aotearoa email pma@xtra.co.nz or tel 04 382 8129 as soon as possible. Thank you.

DCM'S ANNUAL BOOKFAIR 16-17 August 2014

The DCM Bookfair at the TSB Bank Arena, is the largest of its kind in Wellington, with some 90,000 books, as well as CDs, DVDs, vinyl and puzzles. Funds raised help DCM to make a real difference in people's lives. Our programmes are practical and useful, and often people are able to achieve well-being and independence for the first time in a long time.

Volunteers are needed during the Bookfair on 16 and 17 August to help out on the tills, greeting shoppers, walking the floor, as well as help outside the venue leafleting and encouraging people to come to the TSB Bank Arena. We also need volunteers to assist with setting up on Friday, 15 August, 10am-3pm, and with clearing up on the Sunday afternoon, 4-6pm.

If you are able to help in any way, please phone DCM any week day on 384 7699 or email office@dcm.org.nz St Andrew's on The Terrace now has a bin in the church foyer for donations for the book fair.
