EASTER 6

The Divine Mother

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to,
whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

It is recorded that God said
“Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk,
I who took them up in my arms;
but they did not know that I healed them.
I led them with cords of human kindness,
with bands of love.
I was to them like those who lift infants to their cheeks.
I bent down to them and fed them.”

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

AA 94(i) ‘Loving Spirit’

Words: ©1989 Shirley Murray. Music: © 1990 David Dell

Loving Spirit, loving Spirit,
you have chosen me to be,
you have drawn me to your wonder,
you have set your sign on me.

Like a mother, you enfold me,
hold my life within your own,
feed me with your very body,
form me of your flesh and bone.

Like a father, you protect me,
teach me the discerning eye,
hoist me up upon your shoulder,
let me see the world from high.

Friend and lover, in your closeness
I am known and held and blessed:
in your promise is my comfort,
in your presence I may rest.

Loving Spirit, loving Spirit,
you have chosen me to be,
you have drawn me to your wonder,
you have set your sign on me.

OPENING RESPONSES (please remain standing)

We all spring from mothers
Older or younger, active or quiet, generous and cautious
We all have opportunity to nurture, to 'mother' in our turn
Those younger or older, people and causes and groups
We look to the midwife of creation
For love strong enough to co-create human beings

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.
Kia ora.

PRAYER

LORD'S PRAYER

Not a literal translation of the Lord's Prayer "but rather something between a poetic translation and "midrash" based on the ancient roots of the Aramaic words of the prayer."

Mark Hathaway and Neil Douglas-Klotz
www.taooofliberation.com and www.abwoon.com

O Divine Womb,
birthing forth the river of blessing which runs through all,
soften the ground of our being,
and hallow in us a space for the planting of thy presence.

In our depths,
sow thy seed with its greening-power
that we might be midwives to thy Reign.
Then, let each of our actions bear fruit in accordance with thy desire.

*Impart to us the wisdom to bring forth the gifts of the earth and share them daily according to the needs of each being,
and restore that which has been usurped
by injustice to its rightful owners, as we restore to others that which is not our own.*

*Do not let us be seduced
by that which would divert us from our purpose, but make us sensitive to the moment at hand.*

*For from thy fertile soil is born the creativity,
the life-energy, and the dance,
from birthing to birthing. Amen.*

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together.

God bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Lynne Dovey

Hebrew Bible: Isaiah 66:13, Isaiah 49:15, Isaiah 42:14 and Psalm 131:2

Gospel: Matthew 23:37/ Luke 13:34

Contemporary Reading: Extract taken from 'The Shack'
By Wm. Paul Young

She picked up the wooden spoon again, dripping with some sort of batter. "Mackenzie, I am neither male nor female, even though both genders are derived from my nature. If I choose to appear to you as a man or a woman, it's because I love you.

For me to appear to you as a woman and suggest that you call me Papa is simply to mix metaphors, to help you keep from falling so easily back into your religious conditioning.”

She leaned forward as if to share a secret. “To reveal myself to you as a very large, white grandfather figure with flowing beard, like Gandalf, would simply reinforce your religious stereotypes, and this weekend is not about reinforcing your religious stereotypes.”

Mack almost laughed out loud and wanted to say, “You think? I’m over here barely believing that I’m not stark raving mad!” Instead, he focused on what she had just said and regained his composure. He believed, in his head at least, that God was a Spirit, neither male nor female, but in spite of that, he was embarrassed to admit to himself that all his visuals for God were very white and very male.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture
for the word of God among us
for the word of God within us,
We give thanks

HIOS 96 ‘Make spaces for Spirit’

Make spa-ces for Spi-rit! For en-er-gy ris-ing, for Pen-te-cost pre-sence, the wind and the fire, a new kind of lang-uage, a voice and a vi-sion to shift and up-lift us, to rouse and in-spire.

Make spaces for Spirit! For energy rising,
for Pentecost presence, the wind and the fire,
a new kind of language, a voice and a vision
to shift and uplift us, to rouse and inspire.

Make spaces for action by spirited people:
The leader, the teacher, the healer of ill,
the builder, the artist, the bringer of laughter,
the melding and welding of spirit and will.

Make spaces for graces, the gifts of the Spirit,
the fruit of the garden where love is the spring,
the water of blessing, the incense of worship,
the wine poured for sharing, the hope that will sing.

Make spaces for Spirit by changing of systems,
by opening prisons, by debtors' release,
the flaming of courage, the firing of justice,
the Spirit of Jesus, the coming of peace.

HYMN

CH4593 'She sits like a bird'

Words & Music: © Graham Maule & John L Bell
Copyright: 1988 WGRG, Iona Community,
(Admin. by Willow Publishing Pty. Ltd.)

She sits like a bird, brooding on the waters,
hovering on the chaos of the world's first day;
She sighs and she sings, mothering creation,
waiting to give birth to all the Word will say.

She wings over earth, resting where she wishes,
lighting close at hand or soaring through the skies;
She nests in the womb, welcoming each wonder,
nourishing potential hidden to our eyes.

She dances in fire, startling her spectators,
waking tongues of ecstasy where dumbness reigned;
She weans and inspires all whose hearts are open,
nor can she be captured, silenced or restrained.

For she is the Spirit, one with God in essence,
gifted by the Saviour in eternal love;
She is the key opening the scriptures,
enemy of apathy and heavenly dove.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

'I Believe'

from No Longer Strangers

I believe in God, Mother-Father spirit who called the world into being,
who created men and women and set them free to live in love,
in obedience and community.

I believe in God, who because of love for her creation,
entered the world to share our humanity,
to rejoice and to despair,
to set before us the paths of life and death;
to be rejected, to die, but finally to conquer death and to bind the world to herself.

I believe in God who invites us into the community of the church that we may, through faith and communion,
experience God's uplifting and sustaining grace;
that we may fulfil our human responsibility and reach out for our neighbour;
that we may work to bring healing and wholeness to a ruptured and uncertain world...and that we may rejoice in the constancy of nature and the joy of life itself.

I believe in God whose word teaches us that the wheat and the tares grow together; that the paths of life and death, good and evil, too often converge...choice are not clearly defined...
but we confidently and responsibly tread the path we choose and only God can be our judge.

I believe in God who is present and working in this world through men and women.

I sense God's purpose in a spark of light here and there as humankind struggles to keep a human face.

I know God's purpose as I watch children at play...hope born anew in each generation...perhaps to be quickly extinguished, perhaps to continue to burn brightly.

But for that hope I give thanks.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

on card

HYMN

'For all the saints'

Words: ©Susan Jones. Tune: Sine Nomine
Used by permission

For all the saints of every age and day,
who bravely seek to follow Jesus' way;
sharing Good News by what they do and say:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

For hidden saints, who kept home fires alight,
nurturing faith through even darkest night;
that in our day Love's hope may still burn bright:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

For those we know, whose given task was care,
who may have had to struggle to be fair
and through their lives, faith, healing, love to share;
Alleluia! Alleluia!

For sisters, wives, aunts, nieces, mothers too grandmothers, girlfriends, partners old and new midwives of faith, still bringing in the true.
Alleluia, alleluia.

For women who work in the public place
Dealing in law, in business, all at pace
Builders and drivers, carving out new space
Alleluia, alleluia

For women's work for justice and for peace;
for those who suffer and need Love's release,
for all our children, may war someday cease:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

BLESSING

The blessing of the Mother beyond all mothering
the blessing of Jesus, born of Mary and the blessing of She who is the enemy of apathy be with you all now and forever more
Amen we go as midwives of justice to nurture our world with strength and beauty.

END CHILD POVERTY – ACTION STATION PETITION

One in five children in New Zealand live in poverty. This is a not only a national crisis, but an entirely avoidable one. We know what it would take to turn around the lives of hundreds of thousands of New Zealand children living in poverty, and we have the resources to make it happen.

What we need is political courage. Our politicians need to know that New Zealanders are ready to support real action to create real change for our most vulnerable children, and that's where you come in.

Here is another small way of building the pressure to reduce child poverty. To sign the petition visit this website: <http://www.actionstation.org.nz/endpovertynz>
