ORDER OF SERVICE

15 November 2015

Pentecost 25

*Where do we find love and compassion of divine order - in a Temple or a teacher?
in an institution or in a community?
in ordered Christendom or postmodern chaos?*

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.
Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.
Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.
AA is the NZ hymnbook Alleluia Aotearoa. We will sing the hymns without announcement.
Please note your nearest fire exit.
The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.
In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

Buildings of all sorts have housed our worship for centuries

Chapels, cathedrals, churches

We too build a community of faith

Through closeness, common ideals, commitment

That community stretches beyond walls and over boundaries

People of faith drink from one source but inhabit the planet

Let us celebrate the worthiness of the call to us today

The call we like to think of as God's word for this time,

The call to authenticity.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'And did those feet in former times'

Words: Susan Jones © 2000; this version 2014

Tune: Jerusalem CH4 106

And did those feet in former times
walk upon scree and tussock brown and did the man, Jesus the Christ cross mountains high and rolling downs?
and did he know the morning mist?
and did he know the harbour's sheen?
and did he love this cityscape its terraced streets, the urban scene?

And does he still walk this our land, talking and laughing with us yet?
And does he know that stab of need when all our other friends forget?
And is he there when wine is poured?
And is he there when bread's prepared?
And does he laugh when life's alright?
And does he weep when it is not?

Be with us Christ, as we step out.
Come with us on our lifelong quest.
Be our true guide, on our right hand,
be with us, walking and at rest.
So we will know life to the full,
be there to see us through the night.
For we would be your followers pursue your Way with all our might.

OPENING RESPONSES (please remain standing)

REFLECTIVE HYMN

'Let us reach down deep inside us'

Words: Susan Jones © 2015

Gaelic Traditional Melody arr John Bell FFS 10(i)

(sung with a space between verses)

Let us reach down deep inside us to the place where quiet reigns; Find the Self who lives inside us knows our joy and knows our pains:
Let our ego stand aside there, shadow sharing space with light.
Let our inner selves rejoice at how Love shines in darkest night. (Silence)

Wind and fire and earthquake pass but Spirit is not found in them; Still, small voice is hardly heard, but brings Love which does not condemn.
In lives buffeted by windstorms, rocked by quakes and scorched by fire, stillness brings surprising solace
as we find there, hearts' desire. (Silence)

Sacred calm means minds can settle, hearts grow quiet, souls grow still;
Busy thinking slows its rhythm, gives compassion chance to fill.
Even long-forgotten scars heal
as new balm brings a new way; Every space and every crevice warms as Love arrives to stay. (Silence)

PRAYER AND LORD'S PRAYER

on card

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together.

God bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

Contemporary reading

*From Letters and Papers from Prison, pp 279, 282
by Dietrich Bonhoeffer*

What is bothering me incessantly is the question of what Christianity really is, or indeed who Christ really is, for us today. The time when people could be told everything by means of words, whether theological or pious, is over, and so is the time of inwardness and conscience—and that means the time of religion in general. We are moving towards a completely religionless time; people as they are now simply cannot be religious anymore.

Even those who honestly describe themselves as "religious" do not in the least act up to it, and so they presumably mean something quite different by “religious”...How this religionless Christianity looks, what form it takes, is something that I’m thinking about a great deal...

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

AA72 ‘In this familiar place’

Words and music: Colin Gibson © 1994 Hope Publishing Company

In this familiar place
I know the mystery of your grace.

Refrain:

*For the love that I receive, for the truth that I believe,
I praise and thank you; for this here and now.*

In halting song and word
the music of your voice is heard

Refrain

Among these friends of mine
I taste the company divine.

Refrain

Within this narrow sphere
I learn that you are everywhere.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Fiona McDougal

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Laos and the Buddhist people in Laos and throughout the world. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Scott Simpson and Nick Smith and the people of their electorates of Coromandel and Nelson. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of St Ronan's Presbyterian Church, Eastbourne.

TIME WITH THE ADULTS

HYMN

'The church needs a foundation'

Words: Susan Jones © 2015. Tune: Aurelia CH4 739

The church needs a foundation
Though not of brick or stone
For buildings are but shelter
From rain or hailstorm.
They symbolise commitment
They resonate with praise
But humans form the true church
In these postmodern days.

Through Christendom's great worship
The rafters have been wrung,
We've gazed at stained glass windows,
Made sure the brass has shone.
We've consecrated, maintained We've renovated but Religion's modern rituals
Are those postmoderns cut.

God's commonwealth of spirit
Is not built out of wood
But by our follow'ng Jesus with praxis that is good.
Transforming, 'church' emerges
In fresh expressions, new,
With talk and acts of justice,
Compassion which is true.

In our time we now follow
Jesus upon the Way,
On terms for us authentic,
And honest for this day.
We see our 'church' re-forming,
the Spirit helps it grow;
We see again a future
Where faith will always flow.

SENDING OUT AFFIRMATION

We are the church:
woman, man, trans, straight and gay, child, adolescent, older, younger.

We are the church:
We are enough for this time to do the divine work required of us.

We are the church in this place:
now we go out of this building to be the church in our world.

SUNG BLESSING

AA 95 'May the Mystery of God enfold us.'

Words © Joy Cowley Music: Ian Render

May the mystery of God enfold us, may the wisdom of God uphold us may the fragrance of God be around us, may the brightness of God surround us,
may the wonder of God renew us,
may the loving of God flow through us,
may the peace of God deeply move us,
may the moving of God bring us peace.
