GATHERING

We gather together from inner city and outer suburbs

To become the family of God in this place

We gather together from this land and from lands overseas

To become the family of God in this place

We gather together from younger to older, from active to passive

To become the family of God in this place

Enable us to hear what words and songs, conversations and music,
have to say to us today

That we might be drawn closer into the depth of being which is called God.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

FFS 57 'Song of faith that sings forever'

Words: © 1999 Shirley Murray

Music: © 1999 Colin Gibson. Hope Publishing Company

Song of faith that sings forever
through God's people, ages long,
Word that holds the world together
when our hearts take up the song,
always, always somewhere sounding,
though the source we do not see,
counterpoint to all despairing,
it is hope that sets the key.

Song of faith in exultation,
raising through the vaults of prayer,
tune of simple celebration
offered up in open air,
song in chapel and cathedral,
descant to our daily tone,
song from sickbed or in prison:
faith must often sing alone.

And when life would overwhelm us,
when there seems no song to sing,
hear the constant voice of courage
out of fear and suffering:
all who've loved and trusted Jesus,
all who lift us to be strong,
endless, endless are the voices
of the faith that makes the song.

May it be for you a time of learning and fun.

God bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

HYMN

FFS 11 'Come teach us, Spirit of our God'

Words: © 1992 Shirley Murray
Alternate Tune: WOV 515 Richmond

Come, teach us, Spirit of our God,
the language of your way,
the lessons that we need to live,
the faith for every day.

Excite our minds to follow you,
to trace new paths in store,
new flight paths for our spirit space,
new marvels to explore:

Engage our wits to dance with you,
to leap from logic's base,
to capture insight on the wing,
to sense your cosmic grace:

Inspire our spark to light from you,
to catch creation's flair,
new artistry to celebrate,
new harmonies to dare:

Delight our hearts to worship you,
to learn compassion's code,
to live in context of your love,
great teacher who is God!

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Annemarie Treadwell

Hebrew Bible

Jeremiah 1:4-10

Gospel

Luke 4:21-30

Fifty years ago, the Rev. William Holmes stood in the pulpit of his Methodist Church in Dallas, Texas, and spoke hard truths to his community and voiced comfortable platitudes.

Many, if not most, sermons fade from memory by Sunday lunch, but people in Dallas still talk about one the Rev. William Holmes gave there 50 years ago, just after the assassination of President John F Kennedy.

While he didn't blame Dallas for the crime itself, Holmes unflinchingly described the city as an incubator for political extremism and incivility, the kind of place where many worried an assassination might occur.

The sermon made the CBS News anchored by Walter Cronkite and brought the young Methodist pastor death threats, forcing him and his family to go into hiding under police protection.

In short, all hell broke loose because of the tough love Holmes preached in Dallas two days after Kennedy's killing there.

On November 22, 1963, Holmes and his wife, Nancy, had joined the crowd at the Dallas Trade Mart, awaiting a luncheon with President Kennedy and the First Lady, Jacqueline Kennedy. At age 34, Holmes had a Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology at Dallas' Southern Methodist University and had done post-graduate work at Union Seminary in New York, where he studied with Reinhold Niebuhr and Paul Tillich.

That same afternoon Holmes began working on the sermon he would give on Sunday, November 24th, at Northaven. He got a call from a friend at the National Council of Churches, who said he hoped the Dallas clergy would respond to the assassination with more than “pious platitudes and sentimental phrases.” Holmes offered neither when he stepped to the pulpit at Northaven.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

FFS 25 'God of the Bible'

Words: © Shirley Murray. Music: © Colin Gibson

God of the Bible, God in the Gospel,
hope seen in Jesus, hope yet to come,
you are our centre, daylight or darkness,
freedom or prison, you are our home.

*Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change. (repeat)*

God in our struggles, God in our hunger, suffering with us, taking our part,
still you empower us, mothering Spirit,
feeding, sustaining, from your own heart.

Those without status, treated as nothing,
you have made royal, gifted with rights,
chosen as partners, midwives of justice,
birthing new systems, lighting new lights.

Not by your finger, not by your anger
will your world order change in a day,
but by your people, fearless and faithful,
small paper lanterns, lighting the way.

Hope we must carry, shining and certain
through all our turmoil, terror and loss, bonding us gladly, one to the other,
till our world changes, facing the Cross.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (remain standing) "In This Hour – Liturgies for Pausing"

By Dorothy McRae-McMahon

We will affirm the voices of justice
for they are the soundings of God.
We will raise the announcements of hope for they are the songs of the Creator.
We will celebrate the actions of grace
for they are the footprints of the Spirit.

We will watch for the winds of love,
moving gently among the grieving.
We will listen for the stories of wonder,
speaking softly from the hearts of the humble.

*We will breathe in the dreams for a new day,
for they rise like everlasting incense
from deep in the soul of God.*

*In our present, our past and our future,
God is the God of all that is.
This we believe.
From this we will live.*

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

The money and food we bring both now, and in other ways, is part of ourselves and our substance.

As we give them away we pray for those who will handle them and benefit from them.

May this offering enrich those whom it touches.

Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

HYMN

FFS 29 'God speed us on our way'

Music: © Shirley Murray. Words: © Shona Murray

God speed us on our way,
safe keep us every day,
give us wing, cause to sing,
all this we wish and pray.

God give us space to thrive,
all senses kept alive,
health and hope, means to cope,
joyfully to arrive.

God lead us to the new,
places and points of view,
roads to take, friends to make,
more life to travel through.

BLESSING (together)

May the overwhelming sense of Godness surround us and dwell deeply within us.

May the life-enhancing shadow of Jesus guide our acting and our thinking.

And may the breath of the Spirit constantly renew and encourage us.

SUNG AMEN

WRESTLING WITH GOD - BY LLOYD GEERING - A BOOK REVIEW

I have had this book lying around for ages. I decided to have a go at reading it over these Christmas Holidays. This included carrying it on a 4 day tramp when weight was at a premium.

Once I started it I found it riveting. It was of high interest to me in three different areas. Firstly as a biography of Lloyd's life. From a boyhood in New Zealand and Australia to schooling and University years then marriage and the ministry - and later the great controversies over theological issues. It has been a life full of joys and successes but also sorrows and strains and controversy. And Lloyd is very open about all of this - and I would say fair.

The second was the way the book details the story of the Presbyterian Church and also Christianity in general in both New Zealand and the western world over the last hundred years.

And thirdly was the way the book describes Lloyd's personal theological evolution over that same period - which matched and later helped to lead the development of a progressive Christianity in New Zealand. As Lloyd says - the theological ideas he was communicating were not new and had been developing in other parts of the world for 50 years or more already.

Lloyd is a remarkable communicator and a remarkable New Zealander. This book gives a deep insight into a major and important part of our New Zealand history as well as being a fascinating personal story.

You may have gathered by now that I think you may enjoy reading it.

And don't forget the many other small books we have by Lloyd on a wide variety of topics. I am now reading one of them - the short 4 chapter book - "Creating the new ethic".
