FIG TREE

'Bearing Fruit – who gives a fig?'

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.
Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.
Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.
We will sing the hymns without announcement.

*Please note your nearest fire exit.
The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.
In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.*

GATHERING

On this third Sunday of Lent
we ponder strange words about living and bearing fruit – or not,
refusing to change and dying because of it;
about thirst quenched by living giving waters;
may the fertility of the Spirit touch our lives.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

CH4 540 'I heard the voice of Jesus say.'

Words: Horatius N Bonar. Tune: Kingsfold CH4 291

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
'Come unto me and rest;
lay down, thou weary one, lay down
thy head upon my breast':
I came to Jesus as I was,
weary, worn, and sad;
I found in him a resting-place,
and he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
'Behold, I freely give the living water; thirsty one,
stoop down and drink, and live':
I came to Jesus, and I drank
of that life-giving stream;
my thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
and now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
'I am this dark world's Light;
Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
and all thy day be bright':

I looked to Jesus, and I found in him my Star, my Sun;
and in that light of life I'll walk,
till travelling days are done.

OPENING RESPONSES (please remain standing)

Contemporary reading

'How I talk to God'

By Kelly Belmonte

Read more about Kelly Belmonte on her great poetry site All Nine

Coffee in one hand
leaning in to share, listen:
How I talk to God.

First, second, third, fourth chance to hear, then another:
How God talks to me.

"Momma, you're special."
Three-year-old touches my cheek.
How God talks to me.

Foetal position
under flannel sheets, weeping
How I talk to God.

While driving I make lists: done, do, hope, love, hate, try.
How I talk to God.

Moonlight on pillow
tending to my open wounds
How God talks to me.

Above the highway
hawk: high, alone, free, focused.
How God talks to me.

Pulling from my heap
of words, the ones that mean yes:
How I talk to God.

Rash, impetuous
chatter, followed by silence:
How I talk to God.

Infinite connects with finite, without words:
How God talks to me

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

HIOS 53 'God within our deepest thought'

Words: © 2005 Shirley Erena Murray. Music: ©2009 Colin Gibson

God within our deepest thought,
come where human words fall short,
come when human eye and ear cannot get the message clear, when the signals we receive tell no truths we can believe.

From the earth our voices rise:
battle cries and lullabies,
blessings met with blasphemies,
pictures that distort and tease,

human triumph, human joy,
human play, inhuman ploy.

Give us honesty and grace
each within our listening place,
each with eye to what is true,
finding treasures old and new,
widening our view to see where another's truth might be.

Yours the truth that Christ has brought,
yours the love his life has taught;
give us insight to discern,
make us passionate to learn language of the loving Way
new-translated for our day.

REFLECTION

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

With humility we give thanks that we have goods and money we can give this day. We ask those distributing these resources will be gifted with wisdom and insight in the giving. We look to the day when all people will be gathered at the feast of love and satisfied in the ways they need satisfying.

Amen.

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Cameron Smart

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Namibia and the Council of Churches in Namibia. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Kanwaljit Singh Bakshi and Chris Bishop list MP's. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of the Pacific Islanders Congregation Church of Christ The King.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

on card

AFFIRMATION

*We affirm that we do give a fig.
We give a fig about a lot of things:
Clean water for all,
Compassionate treatment of older people,
Security at the most mundane level,
Relief for cyclone and terrorism victims.*

*We think being spiritual is vital for our lives to be in balance;
We know trusting the Way
even though where it will lead
may not be known,
keeps us open and vulnerable
in the best possible way.*

*We give a fig about peace about justice, and about violence-free homes
and so today, as all days,
we vow to nurture fig trees in this orchard
so they will bear fruit which nourishes humankind, knowing the fruiting process will be Spirit-led.*

HYMN

AA 54 'God of the galaxies'

Words: © 1992 Shirley Erena Murray.

Music: ©1992 Douglas Mews Hope Publishing Company

God of the galaxies spinning in space,
God of the smallest seed, our living source,
yours is the gift of this beautiful place.

Let us care for your garden and honour the earth.

Careless and covetous, gross are our greeds, taking the riches the garden provides,
wasting its goodness, forgetting its needs.

Forests and rivers are ravaged and die,
raped is the land till it bleeds in its clay,
silenced the birdsong and plundered the sea.

Let there be beauty, and let there be air fragrant with peace, never poisoned with fear, freed from the plagues of pollution and war.

Life is a holy thing, life is a whole, linking each creature and blessing us all,
making connections of body and soul.

Post-Holocaust: Continued Persecutions of Sexual Dissidents since World War II

William J Spurlin, Brunel University

St Andrew's on The Terrace

Wellington, New Zealand

Tuesday, 8 March, 12:15pm – 1pm

This lecture provides a contextual overview of the experiences of gay men and lesbians under National Socialism, especially the ways in which the Nazi regime targeted homosexual men and the varying degrees of tolerance and actual persecution directed by the regime toward lesbians. Operating on the premise that Nazi homophobia must not be reduced to a momentary aberration in history, the main focus of the lecture addresses the ways in which homophobia continued to find expression in the post-war criminalisation of homosexuality in both the former West and East Germany, and the failure to recognise more broadly across Europe the crimes perpetrated against gay and lesbian victims of Nazi atrocities. The postwar medicalisation of homosexuality, evident in the diagnostic history of homosexuality in the various editions of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM), whereby homosexuality was pathologised initially as a sociopathic disturbance in DSM-I (1952), and then as a psychopathology in DSM-II (1968), aligned psychiatry and biomedicine with the social and cultural perpetuation of gender and sexual norms throughout the 1950s and 1960s. Even after the historic 1973 decision to remove homosexuality from the DSM, pathologisation continued with the entry of a new diagnostic category 'Gender Identity Disorder in Children' (DSM-III, 1980), which remained in the DSM until 2013 and is aimed at gender-atypical children and the fear of gay outcome, the traces of which remain in the current DSM-V in the revised diagnostic category 'Gender Dysphoria in Children.'

The lecture also examines medical and social discourses about homosexuality that repathologised it in the early days of the HIV/AIDS pandemic in the West whilst examining continued pathologisations and stigmas in the postcolonial and developing world around HIV/AIDS. The lecture concludes by addressing gender and sexual rights as human rights and addressing violent crimes that continue to be perpetuated against gender-atypical children, gay men, the transgendered, and lesbians in the present day, as well as the continued criminalisation of homosexuality in many parts of the world. By illuminating the ways in which homophobia intersects with other forms of domination and continues to shape contemporary society and culture, and by approaching historical sources on the Holocaust and National Socialism with new questions about sexuality and gender, we deepen the meaning of the Holocaust and help shape its ongoing significance.
