WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to,
whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.
Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.
Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.
We will sing the hymns without announcement.

*Please note your nearest fire exit.
The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.
In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.*

GATHERING

We continue our journey of life and growth
as individuals and as community bringing our unique and diverse personalities;
we acknowledge who we are in our fragile humanity,
we recognise our needs, motivations and responses;
we come with our past, we look to the future
let us celebrate life in the presence we name God.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Kia Ora Whanau

Words: Jim Russ (adpt Chris Carey-Smith) ©1997 Elkanah Music

Kia ora whanau kia ora whanau
it's so good to be together again
Kia ora whanau ehoa mai
welcome we belong right here.

Kia ora whanau haere mai
come and discover afresh
listen, question, imagination
connecting Life and Faith.

OPENING RESPONSES (please remain standing)

Universal Spirit, who leads us to growth
in whatever circumstances we find ourselves...
When we don't notice your daily blessings

Remind us of your tender care

When we serve you out of duty

Remind us we are free to love and be loved

When we waste your resources

Remind us that your Spirit renews us

When we lose our self-respect

Remind us of our inherent value

When we are envious and dissatisfied

Remind us of the joy of awareness and contentment

We celebrate together the generosity of your grace and love.

WELCOME

Kia ora whanau a te Karaiti.

Kia ora.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

PRAYER

Sometimes we need stability and security
sometimes we need variety and excitement sometimes our cup is half full, sometimes half empty sometimes we are generous and sometimes needy sometimes we are satisfied with life
other times we yearn for more let us find peace with who we are and our journey so far may we be open to new horizons, adventures, experiences

LORD'S PRAYER - Sung in Maori

COMMUNION HYMN

Amazing Grace

Words: John Newton (1725-1807)

Music: Arr from Edwin Othello Excell (1851-1921)

Amazing grace (how sweet the sound)
that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
the hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come:
'tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

COMMUNION LITURGY

Lift up your hearts,

We lift them up

Let us give thanks.

We give thanks for life and all it means for us

It is indeed good to give thanks for in our lifetimes
we have come and gone, farewelled others and welcomed them back;
We have known what it is like to be away from home
and what it is like to return.

Sometimes the pain of parting has helped us grow
and the welcome has been heart-warming
We see Jesus leave home and return, not always receiving a warm welcome yet continuing to do what he needed to do for his own integrity and the good of others.

We give thanks the Gospel story of parent and children tells us, no matter how many ties we might strain of kinship and relationship, there is always welcome at the gate to home.
Sharing in this feast of life symbolises
that welcome, that reception, that embrace of Love, just as a loving parent welcomes their child home with a feast.

So we say today in our own words what others
have expressed through the centuries:

Holy, holy, holy One, filled with power and might Heaven and earth are filled with your glory;
the glory of the power that is Love;
Blessed are those who come in the name of all that is life-giving and loving.
Hosanna in the highest, let gratitude ring across the sky.

We have been told that the night Jesus was betrayed
he first gathered with his friends (people much like us)
for the feast of the Passover.

After supper, we are told, he took bread
and when he had given thanks, broke it, and said,
'This is my body, which is for you: this do in remembrance of me.

Also the cup, after supper, saying words like,
'This cup is the new covenant: this do, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.'

We give thanks for these elements, grain from earth and juice from vine asking that they might nourish us for our spiritual journey. AMEN

Communion is served by intinction. You are invited to come to the front of the church and receive the bread, or a gluten-free cracker, taking a piece large enough to dip into the wine (silver cup) or grape juice (pottery cup). Eat the bread dipped in wine or juice. Or, remain in your seat to be served if mobility is difficult.

If you don't wish to receive communion, you may remain in your seat we are glad you are here with us.

REFLECTION

REFLECTIVE ACTIVITY

Today we consider two interactive themes: Freedom and Stability.

Freedom - Write on a piece of paper something you would like do that is adventurous, or challenges you might take. Alternatively reflect on risks you have taken that may or may not have worked out. Hang them in the breeze, symbolising how their direction may vary and change.

Stability - Take a stone and feel how hard it is. Think about those things and people that give you security. Do you need to loosen your grip, or do you need more stability? Press your rock into the sand, and dwell on how it makes you feel.

HYMN

AA113 'Our life has its seasons'

Music: Colin Gibson ©1992 Hope Publishing Company.

Words: Shirley Murray

Our life has its seasons, and God has the reasons
why spring follows winter, and new leaves grow,
for there's a connection with our resurrection
that flowers will bud after frost and snow,

*So there's never a time to stop believing, there's never a time for hope to die,
there's never a time to stop loving,
these three things go on*

There's a time to be planting,
a time to be plucking,
a time to be laughing,
a time to weep,
a time to be building,

a time to be breaking,
a time to be waking,
a time to sleep,

But there's never a time....

There's a time to be hurting,
a time to be healing,
a time to be saving,
a time to spend,
a time to be grieving,
a time to be dancing,
a time for beginning,
a time to end,

But there's never a time...

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Nepal and the Hindu people in Nepal and throughout the world. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Andrew Bayly and Paula Bennett and the people of their electorates of Hunua and Upper Harbour. HYMN

AA52 'God of our every day'

Music: ©1992 Colin Gibson. Hope Publishing Company.

Words: © 1992 Shirley Murray

God of our every day,
friend who will walk our way,
light who can change the focus of our seeing:

Capture our heart and mind,
be in the work we find,
till all we do becomes your mode of being.

Speak to our spirit's void,
hands that are unemployed,
lives that are lived without
a true direction:

gifts that are hid, unearth,
lift us to know our worth that in ourselves we see your own reflection.

Shine through our winter's grey,
break through depression's day,
live in the little deaths
we die in growing:
meaning for whom we grope,
home of our strongest hope,
power and peace,
through all creation flowing.

BLESSING

SUNG AMEN

PALM SUNDAY INVITATION TO LUNCHTIME PRESENTATION

Endang Haryai, Director of Yayasan Pembinaan Anak Cacat Malang

Yayasan Pembinaan Anak Cacat (YPAC) is a children's disabled facility based in Malang, East Java. It survives on local and international donations and receives very little support from the Indonesian central government. YPAC (Malang) is part of a national YPAC organisation in Indonesia.

Acknowledging the generosity of the Indonesian Ambassador, and the Indonesian Embassy generally, the Rehabilim Trust have funded a NZ visit by the Director of the YPAC: Ibu (Mrs) Endang Haryani. On Sunday 20th March Mrs Haryani will make a presentation at a finger food lunch following the morning Gathering. She is known to Duncan and Erlinawati Graham who will also be present. The presentation will take place in Conference Rooms 1 & 2 in the Centre over a finger food lunch. Please bring a plate of finger food to share.

RAINBOW ROOM HOUSEKEEPING

A reminder that Chris Carey-Smith will have safety forms available after Church again for all helpers who didn't get them last week. These are now due in.

THANK YOU

'To be the object of someone's love is a splendid thing'. Thank you St Andrew's community for your kindness and care expressed to me following the passing of my sister-in-law Sheryl. After many months of staying every weekend and supporting her, with sadness and gladness we encouraged her to leave us, and as a family we gathered to remember and farewell her. To belong to such a family and a workplace is a treasure. Thank you. David

WRITERS WEEK

Writers Week is fast approaching. In addition to every other excellent New Zealand Festival happening, from 8—13 March you can also get your fill of stimulating discussion in Wellington's Embassy, BATS and Circa Theatres.

Packing quite some punch is the Gala Showcase: Fighting Talk on Thursday 10 March. Five writers who have never appeared on stage together before will share their personal stories on the theme of 'rapprochement' {noun: the development of friendlier relations between countries or groups}. Robert Dessaix, Mariko Tamaki, Etgar Keret, Courtney Sina Meredith and Sally Gardner are coming from all corners of the globe to be in Wellington, and each have a tale of conflict, and possibly also of resolution, to tell. Writers Week includes sessions on running and the science of endurance, to genetics and brain surgery, selling books, special effects, slam poetry and magical worlds. To find out more and see some highlights to help you navigate your week of words visit <http://www.festival.co.nz/2016/writers-week/> or email nzfestival@festival.co.nz

Post-Holocaust: Continued Persecutions of Sexual Dissidents since World War II

William J Spurlin, Brunel University

St Andrew's on The Terrace

Wellington, New Zealand

Tuesday, 8 March, 12:15pm – 1pm

This lecture provides a contextual overview of the experiences of gay men and lesbians under National Socialism, especially the ways in which the Nazi regime targeted homosexual men and the varying degrees of tolerance and actual persecution directed by the regime toward lesbians. Operating on the premise that Nazi homophobia must not be reduced to a momentary aberration in history, the main focus of the lecture addresses the ways in which homophobia continued to find expression in the post-war criminalisation of homosexuality in both the former West and East Germany, and the failure to recognise more broadly across Europe the crimes perpetrated against gay and lesbian victims of Nazi atrocities. The postwar medicalisation of homosexuality, evident in the diagnostic history of homosexuality in the various editions of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM), whereby homosexuality was pathologised initially as a sociopathic disturbance in DSM-I (1952), and then as a psychopathology in DSM-II (1968), aligned psychiatry and biomedicine with the social and cultural perpetuation of gender and sexual norms throughout the 1950s and 1960s. Even after the historic 1973 decision to remove homosexuality from the DSM, pathologisation continued with the entry of a new diagnostic category 'Gender Identity Disorder in Children' (DSM-III, 1980), which remained in the DSM until 2013 and is aimed at gender-atypical children and the fear of gay outcome, the traces of which remain in the current DSM-V in the revised diagnostic category 'Gender Dysphoria in Children.'

The lecture also examines medical and social discourses about homosexuality that repathologised it in the early days of the HIV/AIDS pandemic in the West whilst examining continued pathologisations and stigmas in the postcolonial and developing world around HIV/AIDS. The lecture concludes by addressing gender and sexual rights as human rights and addressing violent crimes that continue to be perpetuated against gender-atypical children, gay men, the transgendered, and lesbians in the present day, as well as the continued criminalisation of homosexuality in many parts of the world. By illuminating the ways in which homophobia intersects with other forms of domination and continues to shape contemporary society and culture, and by approaching historical sources on the Holocaust and National Socialism with new questions about sexuality and gender, we deepen the meaning of the Holocaust and help shape its ongoing significance.
