The Path of Foolish Wisdom

"I bowed to God and God winked at me, and I knew that we were friends"

Jesus as Holy Fool—Massello

Holy FOOL

ARTWORKS

Michael Leunig

A peculiar central character has inhabited my drawings and paintings for as long as I care to remember; an abiding mysterious protagonist for whom I have maintained a deep respect and warm regard over many years... I am not really sure if this being is a male or a female – or a child or an adult, and it doesn't bother me that I don't know or don't care. Mostly the character looks pathetically ill defined – but enchantingly so in my view. Furthermore, I'm not even sure if this 'person' is fully human – it looks quite sub-human or creaturely in a primal humorous sort of way...

Yet it persists, and there it is again, I can't stop it – wandering semi-consciously from my hand and off my pen or brush onto the paper - with its wide wondering eyes and foolish grin – or a dopey downcast gaze. A corny cartoon character. A nature loving fool. A sensitive soul. A free spirit. A joyous innocent. A shabby wanderer. A dawdling playful simpleton...

Only in recent times have I come to realize that what I have been so constantly depicting is the world of the holy fool: the people, the creatures, the circumstances and the peculiar ecosystem of the spirit. If you yearn for something you may end up creating it. –Michael Leunig

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

Michael Leunig

God let us be serious.

Face to face. Heart to heart.

Let us be fully present.

Strongly present. Deeply serious:

The closest we may come to innocence.

Amen

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

AA 146 We are an Easter People

Words: © Bill Wallace. Music: Alive—Alison Carey

We are an Easter people,
ours is an Easter faith,
the yeast is rising in our hearts,
our wine has vintage taste.

*Christ is risen, Christ is risen,
risen in our lives.*

We are an Easter people,
ours is an Easter faith,
our tears are freed to flow and heal our shattered hopes and hearts.

*Christ is risen, Christ is risen,
risen in our lives.*

We are an Easter people,
ours is an Easter faith,
our fears have died, we rise to dream,
to love, to dance, to live.

*Christ is risen, Christ is risen,
risen in our lives.*

WELCOME and SHARING THE PEACE

This morning we remain seated as we share the Peace of Christ. With Rev Jim Cotter we remember that this is Christ's Peace, not ours, a blessing that is the same for everyone...As we offer peace, welcome and healing to others may we be open to healing and transformation for ourselves and for our world.

Kia ora tātou.

Kia ora.

Peace be with you.

And also with you.

I honour the Divinity within you and I honour the Divinity within you.

Peace be with all living things and beings—now and always.

Peace be with us all.

PRAYER

Rev Jim Cotter

In Prayer at Night's Approaching

Fools to the world, we know the wisdom of God.

Unknown, we cannot be ignored. Dying, we still live on.

Disciplined by suffering, we are not beaten down.

Knowing sorrow, we have always cause for joy.

Poor ourselves, we make many rich. Penniless, we own the world.

Steadfastly we turn our wills towards God,

to meet hardships and afflictions, hunger and weariness, illness and failure, with sincerity, insight, patience, kindness, speaking the truth in love, resilient in the power of the Spirit.

We have wounded your love:

Binder of wounds, heal us.

We stumble in the darkness:

Light of the world, transfigure us.

We forget that we are your home:

Spirit of God, dwell in us.

O God of Joy, we rejoice in you ...

You run to meet us like a welcoming friend,

you laugh with us in the merriment of heaven,

you feast with us at the great banquet, clown of clowns, fool of fools,

the only Entertainer of Jesters.

HYMN

AHB38 Here hangs a man discarded

Tune: Aurelia. Words: Brian Wren ©1975, 1995 Hope Publishing Company

1. Here hangs a man discarded, scarecrow hoisted high,
a nonsense pointing nowhere to all who hurry by Can such a clown of sorrows still bring a useful word when faith and love seem phantoms and every hope absurd?
2. Can he give help or comfort to lives by comfort bound when drums of dazzling progress give strangely hollow sound?
Life emptied of all meaning, drained out in bleak distress, can share in broken silence
my deepest emptiness:

3. And love that freely entered the pit of life's despair can name our hidden darkness and suffer with us there.
Christ, if you now are risen, help all who long for light to hold the hand of promise and walk into the night.

RESPONSE

For inspiration in scripture and image, koan and paradox,
For the image of God in every person—jester, sage or fool,
For the cornerstone in every reject—
we give thanks.

HYMN

Your stories tell our lives

Words (Post-Christian prayer) © Bronwyn Angela White (2010) and Music (2016)

JESUS, YOUR WORDS, repeated by your friends retold, reworked, interpreted for ears unused to Midrash, used to meet the ends of politics, and altered through the years to build a church you had no mind to found create a Christ you made no claim to be still with an own-life in our hearts resound inspiring us with truths which set us free:

 Your stories tell our lives, dare and invite affirm our shadow-selves and offer light.

JESUS, YOUR DEATH, through ritual mystified as though some merit from your blood accrued, transformed as though your being crucified was an unusual fate; as though imbued with an unwonted grace; as if some powers (the sacrificial lamb led to the knife) led you somehow to better death than ours, a martyr's death, exalted over life

 Yet still your body, lowered into earth affirms in us the promise of re-birth.

JESUS, YOUR FRIENDS, awash with guilt and loss needed to find some meaning in their pain, found their salvation in an empty cross;
in mourning, shared your life, saw you again:
Your words inspiring them to spread the news,
Your vision showing them that living starts where love is shared, when power is rightly used,
Your spirit, resurrected in their hearts.

 We share our stories, selves; grief, celebration:
 affirm through love our powers of re-creation.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Rev Jim Cotter

In Love Re-membered

Let us be fools for Christ's sake:

In facing the truth, may we be set free from illusion.
In accepting our wounds, may we be healed.

In embracing the outcast, let us be redeemed.

In discovering our child, may we grow to maturity.

In seeking true innocence, may we no longer harm.

In yielding to dying, may abundant life flow into us.

In vulnerable risk, may we know love's pain and joy.

In the release of laughter, may we hear the chuckle of God.

In the folly of the Cross, may we see the Wisdom of God.

So may it be.

HYMN

WOV 183 Lord of the Dance

Music: adapted from Simple Gifts Words © Sydney Carter

I danced in the morning when the world was young

I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun

I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth

At Bethlehem I had my birth

Dance, dance, wherever you may be

I am the lord of the dance, said he

And I lead you all, wherever you may be

And I lead you all in the dance, said he

I danced for the scribes and the Pharisees

They wouldn't dance, they wouldn't follow me

I danced for the fishermen James and John

They came with me so the dance went on

Dance, dance, wherever...

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame

The holy people said it was a shame

They ripped, they stripped, they hung me high

Left me there on the cross to die

Dance, dance, wherever...

I danced on a Friday when the world turned black

It's hard to dance with the devil on your back

They buried my body, they thought I was gone

But I am the dance, and the dance goes on

Dance, dance, wherever...

They cut me down and I leapt up high

I am the life that will never, never die

I'll live in you if you'll live in me

I am the Lord of the dance, said he

Dance, dance, wherever...

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Lois Robertson

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Nigeria and the Christian Council of Nigeria. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Simon Bridges and Jonathan Coleman, and the people of their electorates of Tauranga and Northcote. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of Otaki/Waikanae Presbyterian Church.

AA 137 The kingdom is within you

Words & Music: Cecily Sheehy

*The kingdom is within you, the kingdom is within you.
Why do we go searching for the answers of the mighty?
The kingdom is within you, the kingdom is within you.
Like a little seed planted in the ground, let it grow.*

I will set my face to the wind, scatter my handful of seed on high.
Needn't have to worry where the great wind takes it;
seeds will grow wherever they're planted.
All we need is courage to keep on facing the wind.
The kingdom is within you...

I will set my hand to the plough;
don't look back, it's too late now.
The fullness of the kingdom is not quite yet, but the seed of the kingdom is here and now.
Don't split the seed; be patient, let it grow.
The kingdom is within you...

BLESSING

Michael Leunig

*God give us rain when we expect sun.
Give us music when we expect trouble.
Give us tears when we expect breakfast.
Give us dreams when we expect a storm.
Give us a stray dog when we expect congratulations.
God play with us, turn us sideways and around.*

...Go in peace, to love boldly, live faithfully and serve joyfully.
