The many stories of War and Peace

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to,
whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

We gather to weep and to yearn;
to give thanks and to hope for the future
To give honour where it is due
and to challenge where that is needed;
To pledge ourselves to the cause of peace on earth
and support those fighting on the front lines of debate
confronting matters of truth and justice.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

HIOS 61 'Honour the Dead'

Words: © Shirley Erena Murray. Music: Colin Gibson © 2005 Hope Publishing Company

Honour the dead, our country's fighting brave, honour our children left in foreign grave,
where poppies blow and sorrow seeds her flowers,
honour the crosses marked forever ours.

Weep for the places ravaged with our blood,
weep for the young bones buried in the mud,
weep for the powers of violence and greed,
weep for the deals done in the name of need.

Honour the brave whose conscience was their call,
answered no bugle, went against the wall,
suffered in prisons of contempt and shame,
branded as cowards, in our country's name

Weep for the waste of all that might have been,
weep for the cost that war has made obscene,
weep for the homes that ache with human pain,
weep that we ever sanction war again.

Honour the dream for which our nation bled,
held now in trust to justify the dead,
honour their vision on this solemn day:
peace known in freedom, peace the only way.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Heather Macfarlane

Hebrew Bible

Micah 4: 3-5

<sup>3</sup> And ... they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

<sup>4</sup> But they shall sit every one under their vine and under the fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for ... the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

<sup>5</sup> For all people will walk everyone in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

Gospel

Matthew 5:9

Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God

'Dead poets Speak'

By Rt Rev Andrew Norton (2016)

For this we died?
If not for love what have we done?
You know not the dust or the blood stained earth
and mourned not the death of another mother's son.
Your blind eyes see not their tears flow.

Freedom from what?
To be consumed by consumption
and to hell with the rest
as you admire your flat white silver fern.
Oh how we silence the hushed up wrongs.

Have you news of my boy Jack washed upon the Turkish shore?

By wind and tide tens of thousands flee
and to you, if you will keep faith with we who died
we throw the torch; be yours so hold it high?

Let the dead poets voices be heard,
if not I fear their death was in vain.

My poem was inspired by and draws from works by noted wartime poets Rudyard Kipling, Charles Sorley, Wilfred Owen and James McRae. As you think about Anzac Day this year, I invite you to reflect on their poems that expose their feelings about and experiences of war. Let the dead poets' voices be heard.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
We give thanks.

AFFIRMATION (please join in where you can)

*We believe peace always has to be fought for though weapons of destruction may not be used in the cause
but rather weapons of love and forgiveness.*

We believe peace always needs cherishing for it can be easily lost when individual wants and desires are rated more important than the common good.

*We believe peace is hard to win
for it requires sacrifices of many kinds;
the putting of others before ourselves
or the putting of ourselves before others.*

*We believe there are many ways to achieve peace;
through doing, or through simply being.*

*We believe peace is not peace when it does not walk
hand in hand with justice, security, love and hope.*

*We believe peace between nations, or peoples,
between individuals and within families
springs from peace in each heart
and that peace in the heart springs
from the mystery we call God.*

HYMN

'It is time, let the white poppies bloom'

Words: 2015 Shirley Murray.

Music: © 2015 Colin Gibson Used by permission

It is time! Let the white poppies bloom
and the blood of the past stain no more;
It is time for the sowing of seed
that will outgrow the jungles of war.

*And the soul of the world will be healed (will be healed)
and the darkness give way to the sun,
and the terror of nuclear night will be gone
in a peace that will never be done.*

It is time that the white poppies grow
through the hatreds and hurts that survive,
it is time for the tumbling of towers,
and the building of trust kept alive.

And the soul of the world will be healed...

It is time: let the white petals float
over countries and cultures and lands;
It is time that the dreams that were lost
be reclaimed by our hearts and our hands.

And the soul of the world will be healed...

OFFERING PRAYER

WORDS: On top of stencilled backgrounds will be words in 'pop-out' colours and different fonts and sizes. Sunday's brainstorm listed the words below. ## THE DYING MIND - SYMPOSIUM Autonomy, control, consent, communication, they all depend on a well-functioning brain. We are our memories. Our actions define us to others. When we are dying, almost inevitably, the brain starts to falter. This strikes at the essence of who we are and how we want to die. 'The Dying Mind' was conceived and is led by Dr Brian Ensor, Director of Palliative Care at Mary Potter Hospice with several guest speakers.

They will spend a day updating ourselves on what is happening to the brain, how we can enhance function, mitigate losses, and work with deficits.

The Brentwood Hotel, Kilbirnie on 29th April from 8:30am - 4:30pm $200.00 for further details and to register visit <http://marypotter.org.nz/registration/node/1045>
