APPROACH

God of the Waters

By Scott A Ressman (inspired by Mark 1:4-11, Luke 3:21-22)

God of the waters. Water of birth, moving us from safety into the world.

God of the waters. Water of connection, engaging the playful Spirit,
the passionate Christ,
the challenging God.

God of the waters. Water of life,
Sustaining, quenching, cleansing.

God of the waters. Water of trouble, journeying us from here to there,
from the known to the unknown.

God of the waters.
Birth us. Connect us.
Live in us. Trouble us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Song of the Waters'

Words: ©Norman Habel. Tune (CH4 160): Praise, my soul 87.87.87

Watch once more the windswept storm clouds;
Suddenly the sky has wings!
God has come to rain among us, giving hope to all dry things.

Sing a song of splashing waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth.

Taste the moisture of the morning, smoother than the best red wine;
toast the lifeblood of the planet:
Here's to God's wild wet design!
Sing a song of flowing waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth.

View anew the dark blue ocean,
Whales cavorting, spraying foam;
God at play with deep sea monsters, feeling very much at home.

Sing a song of laughing waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth.

Feel the breath of God move softly, gentle mists that brush the skin;
Earth is breathing God's own spirit, life renewed from deep within.

Sing a song of living waters,
pulsing through the veins of Earth.

WELCOME and SHARING THE PEACE

This morning we remain seated as we share the Peace of Christ. With Rev Jim Cotter we remember that this is Christ's Peace, not ours, a blessing that is the same for everyone. As we offer peace, welcome and healing to others may we be open to healing and transformation for ourselves and for our world.

Kia ora tatou. Kia ora.

Peace be with you. And also with you.

Peace be with all living things and beings. Peace be with us all.

GATHERING – MEDITATION - PRAYER

This Season of Creation Sunday we reflect on rivers and lakes and oceans.

Prayers by Rex Hunt, Norman Habel & Lyn Cox (adapted)

As we reflect on the mysteries of the ocean depths, we celebrate the wondrous seas that surround us.

May we empathise with the groaning of creation beneath us.

May we sense the Presentness of God in the tides and currents.

May we care for the oceans and all our waterways.

May it be so.

(silence)

Creative spirit, source of life and love:

We give thanks for the beauty of this day and for the company of those assembled here.

We give thanks for the breezes of change, clearing our heads and bringing fresh ideas. May they cleanse our minds of the oppressions and isms that divide us.

We give thanks for oceans of love, rivers of connection, tears of relief, and pools of serenity.

May healing waters flow over us and through us and among us, wearing down the sharp rocks of despair to bring joy in the morning.

(Silence)

We remember our excitement when waves washed on our feet, and sand oozed between our toes.

We remember and rejoice.

Now away from the busyness of life and in the silence of this sacred place, let us give thanks for the gift of water, and the mystery of an endless horizon, stretching out across the ocean.

(Silence)

We give thanks for all these and more.

We accept our gifts and commit to building, sculpting, painting, Singing and dancing them to life;
to abundant life.

JESUS PRAYER – Give us water sufficient for our living

This prayer was prepared by the Student Christian Movement India and first published by the Ecumenical Water Network a project initiated by the World Council of Churches comprising a network of churches and Christian organizations promoting people's access to water around the world.

Our God, father and mother, from, through and to whom all lives flow,
Your name is holy for you water every creature with life.
May the 'waters rolling in justice' come down among us and dwell as in your presence.
Give us water sufficient for our living, and help us to share water and other resources with those who are dying of thirst.
Forgive us our insincerity, insensitivity and irresponsibility in saving and preserving water, and for our abuse of creation.
And teach us to forgive one another.
Lead us not into the temptation of accumulation, greed and power over water,
and deliver us from avaricious life styles.
For your word is like water cleansing us from evil, your reign is righteousness flowing like an ever-flowing stream dismantling the powers and principalities from generation to generation, from history to history, for ever and ever.
Amen.

CREATION HYMN

‘In our world’

Words: © 2016 Susan Jones. Music: © 2016 Vivien Chiu. Used by Permission. All Rights Reserved

In our world we find delight for creation, day and night, brings us solace, joy;
Spirit grows, refreshes, gleams as the earth fuels richer dreams
just by being here;

Chorus:
May this beauty never end
May this solace always be here
May the human race take notice
And show divine compassion.

Maui dolphin skims the waves
Gray and sleek, graceful at play
Aotearoa’s child;
Paua clings beneath the tide
Hiding beauty deep inside
Aotearoa’s jewel;

Chorus:
May this beauty never end
May this blueness always be here
May the human race take notice
And show divine compassion.

Water trickles, rushes, spouts Deep calm lake drains to river mouth
Power wrested from snow;
Humans, animals and plants need hydration, need the chance to refresh and grow:

Chorus:
May this beauty never end.
May this water last for everyone.
May the human race take notice.
And show divine compassion.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Ten Resolutions

From The Greening of Christianity. By Lloyd Geering

Let us take time to stand in awe of this self-evolving universe.

Let us marvel at the living ecosphere of this planet.

Let us set a supreme value on all forms of life.

Let us develop a lifestyle that preserves the balance of the planetary eco-system.

Let us refrain from all activities that endanger the future of any species.

Let us devote ourselves to maximising the future for all living creatures.

Let us set the needs of the coming global society before those of ourselves, our tribe, society or nation.

Let us learn to value the human relationships that bind us together into social groups.

Let us learn to appreciate the total cultural legacy we have received from the past.

Let us accept in a self-sacrificing fashion the responsibility now laid upon us for the future of our species and of all planetary life.

These are our resolutions, our affirmations and intentions, for the healing of the earth, its oceans and seas.

So may it be. Amen.

HYMN

AA85 'Let Justice Roll Down Like a River'

Words and music © Colin Gibson

*Let justice roll down like a river, let justice flow down to the sea;
let justice roll down like a river
let justice begin through me.*

Justice for all who go hungry,
crying to God to be fed, left in a world of abundance to beg for a morsel of bread. Let justice roll...

Justice for those who are homeless, victims of war or of need, trapped on the borders of nowhere, lost in the canyons of greed. Let justice roll...

Justice for all who are powerless, yearning for freedom in vain,
plundered and robbed of their birth-right, silently bearing their pain. Let justice roll...

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

Every good gift comes from our mother the earth, our father the sky from the goodness of the land and the bounty of the sea.

May Sophia-Wisdom speak to us in all creation and may these offerings be multiplied like the fishes and loaves at Galilee—swelling tides of generosity to those in need:

an earth transformed

through our generosity of spirit and our gifts. Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Sri Lanka and Christian World Service Partners in Sri Lanka focussing on training and income generation, home gardens, research into sustainable agricultural and campaigning on the rights of the poor. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Sam Peseta Lotu-liga and Tim Macindoe and the members of their electorates of Maungakiekie and Hamilton West. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of the Pacific Islanders Congregation, Newtown.

HYMN

'Bring, O Morn, Thy Music'

Words: © William Channing Gannett (1840-1923) public domain. Tune: © Nicaea(CH4 111)

Bring, O morn, thy music! Night, thy starlit silence!

Oceans, laugh in rapture to the storm-winds coursing free!

Suns and planets chorus, praise to all found holy. ~

Life was, and is, and evermore shall be.

Life, around, within us, witnesses our purpose, ~ rises full and holy in beast and bird and tree.
Watch all nature's beauty, rise in adoration. ~
Life was, and is, and evermore shall be.

Life nor death can part us, from this Love eternal, shared amidst the beauty of our living, full and free!
Homeward draws each spirit, to one spirit yearning ~
Love was, and is, and evermore shall be.

BLESSING

As the currents of our lives swirl us about blurring the clear and simple shoreline challenging our expectations, pushing us off-course at the still centre, Sophia-Wisdom speaks from the deeps in us re-charting our course reminding us to look to the stars

When our footprints turn to puddles and our sandbars liquidise
When through the cloud and mist we hear the shriek of gulls not the murmur of waves

Christ-Spirit sings in us—Peace, be still And we go out where it's deeper letting down our nets.

When the waves, disinterested, pound the rocks;
As tempests rage in others' lives and we feel helpless

We cast our bread upon the waters compass and chart to those imperilled on life's seas living compassionately, working for peace

We pick up starfish, knowing each one is precious returning with them to the Source of Life.

Go in peace

And may the Creative Wisdom of the deep and wide sea
The Challenging Teacher of calmed storms and healed lives
And the Comforting Spirit who leads by still water be with you and all you love
This day and always
Amen
