WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

Come in. Come into this place which we make special by our presence.

Come into this place,
where the ordinary is sanctified,
the human is celebrated,
the compassionate is expected.

Come into this place.

Together we make it a sacred place.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

WOV 669 'I am the light of the world'

Words & Music: © 1969 Jim Strathdee

*I am the Light of the World
you people come and follow me.
If you follow and love, you'll learn the mystery of what you were meant to do and be.*

When the song of the angels is stilled.
When the star in the sky is gone.
When the kings and the shepherds have found their way home.
The work of Christmas is begun! (chorus)

To find the lonely and the lost,
to heal their broken souls with love,
to feed the hungry children with warmth and good food,
to feel the earth below the sky above! (chorus)

To free the prisoner from their chains,
to make the powerful care,
to rebuild the nations with strength and goodwill,
to be at one with people everywhere. (chorus)

To bring hope to every task you do,
to dance at a baby's new birth,
to make music in an old man's heart,
and sing to the colours of the earth. (chorus)

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

PRAYER

We gather grateful for the companionship of hearts and minds seeking to speak the truth in love.

We gather grateful for our heritage,
for the women and men before us whose imagination, dedication and prophetic words and deeds make possible our dreams and our insight.

And we gather grateful for the gift of life itself, mindful that to respect life means both to celebrate what life is
and to insist on what it can become.

May we always rejoice in life,
and work to cultivate a sense of its giftedness.

JESUS PRAYER

Jim Cotter paraphrase on card

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

TIME WITH CHILDREN

Ellen Murray

BLESSING THE CHILDREN

There is no Rainbow Room today, so we send you off to enjoy playing with the things at the back of the church.

God bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

HYMN

FFS 14 'Faith has set us on a journey'

Words: © Shirley Erena Murray

Tune: WOV 499 Ebenezer by John Williams

Music: © 2013 Frank Ralls Music

Faith has set us on a journey
past the landmarks that we know, taking risks with no insurance
but the Word that tells us "Go!"
Friend or job or home or lover
we may need to leave behind,
outworn truths and ways of thinking,
baggage to the past consigned.

Some are swags of easy conscience
who with others hitch a ride,
some are tourist-package Christians,
dollar-safe, with Book and guide.
There are others on this journey -
those who long and pray and search, heave the stones to free the structures,
love the Christ and leave the Church.

We are this unlikely people
in the Body knit as one,
company of clowns and cripples -
some are wise and some can run.
Prophets are our travel agents,
gospel-makers lay this road:
to the place of peace and promise faith will take us into God.

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Contemporary reading

'A Fine Wind is blowing'p13

By Francis Macnab. Contemporary version of Psalm 27

*How easy the author succumbs to every noise and anxiety. How easy it is to fall in heap.
But the author wants to believe, wants courage and strength. They are God's gift.*

The headlines in the papers every day can arouse a lot of anxiety.
Even in the safety of my home,
one noise at night can make my heart jump with fright
and I start believing the house could be surrounded by who-knows-what - coming to get me.

And then I know that I have succumbed to my own scattered fear when what I need to do is refocus on what is good and beautiful in life.

So I focus on the Presence of a loving caring God who raises me out of my stress,
and helps me stand tall again,
in spite of the things that make me anxious.

Deep inside, I hear my heart say to me
"Come on, take hold of that good Presence".

Even then in my anxiety I hear myself say
"Oh God, help me. Do not hide yourself from me.
Though mother and father are of no help to me,
surely there is a God who will bring me
to my moment of strength".

Yes, I say to that Good Presence
"Show me the way.
I do not want to be like those who throw themselves on the useless heaps of life".
I want to believe in the Goodness of Life.
I am ready to wait for that.

Yes I shall breathe better.
I shall gather my courage and my strength.
God gives them to me. If only I will wait for God's gift.

Gospel

Matthew 4:12, 18-23

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks

Ross Scott

(Ross will play North American Flute to be concluded with the reading of the Michael Leunig Prayer)

“We shall be careful”: Michael Leunig prayer

which was written for the commencement of 2008

We pray for the fragile ecology of the heart and the mind.
The sense of meaning
So finely assembled and balanced and so easily overturned. The careful, ongoing construction of LOVE.

As painful and exhausting as the struggle for truth
and as easily abandoned.

Hard fought and won
are the shifting sands of this sacred ground,
this ecology.

Easy to desecrate and difficult to defend,
this vulnerable joy, this exposed faith,
this precious order. This sanity.

We shall be careful.
With others and with ourselves.
Amen.

HYMN

FFS 57 ‘Song of faith that sings forever’

Words: © Shirley Erena Murray. Music © Colin Gibson

Song of faith that sings forever
through God’s people, ages long,
word that holds the world together
when our hearts take up the song, always, always somewhere sounding,
though the source we do not see,
counterpoint to all despairing,
it is hope that sets the key.

Song of faith in exultation,
raising through the vaults of prayer,
tune of simple celebration
offered up in open air,
song in chapel and cathedral,
descant to our daily tone,

song from sickbed or in prison:
faith must often sing alone.

And when life would overwhelm us,
when there seems no song to sing,
hear the constant voice of courage
out of fear and suffering:
all who've loved and trusted Jesus,
all who lift us to be strong,
endless, endless are the voices of the faith that makes the song.

OFFERING PRAYER

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Sandra Kirby

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Paraguay and Uruguay and the Methodist Church of Uruguay. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name David Seymour and Scott Simpson and the members of their electorates of Epsom and Coromandel. Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Johnsonville Uniting Church.

HYMN

'From ancient times the stories flowed'

Words © Susan Jones.

Tune: Lucerna Laudoniae WOV 77

David Evans. By permission of Oxford University Press

From ancient times the stories flowed
From the Storyteller's heart;
Sons and parents, seeds that grow
Jesus taught with every part

*By words and actions, clear and bright
He brought life and love and light*

In the temple Jesus taught on the Sabbath calm and still people listening, as they thought,
heard his words of truth and skill.

*By words and actions, clear and bright
He brought life and love and light*

Then he saw a crooked back needing healing, love and more He supplied it, earning flak
from those who revered the law

By his actions, clear and bright Jesus changed her crippled life

We the story tellers now spelling out what's just and right
should the Law to people bow?
Or should Law insist it's right?

*By word, by actions, do the right
To our world bring love and light.*
