Pentecost 10

Jesus Walking On Water

Henry Ossawa Tanner 1859-1937

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

We usually sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Printed copies of the reflection are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

We are called as a community of faith, a supportive community, in which we love into being new possibilities for one another, calling out of each other the best we have to offer.
In so doing we follow the pattern of Jesus who constantly accepted people as they were, while drawing them on to realise what they could be.
In worship we build and nurture a community where such fostering of new possibilities can take birth and grow.

We celebrate life, past, present and future
in the presence we name God.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

‘Wake, now my senses, and hear the earth call’

Words: © Thomas J S Mickelson

Tune: Slane WOV 45

Wake, now my senses, and hear the earth call;
feel the deep power of being in all;
keep, with the web of creation your vow, giving, receiving as love shows us how.

Wake, now my reason, reach out to the new,
join with each pilgrim who quests for the true;
honour the beauty and wisdom of time;
suffer your limit, and praise the sublime.

Wake, now compassion, give heed to the cry;
voices of suffering fill the wide sky;
take as your neighbour both stranger and friend, praying and striving their hardship to end.

Wake, now my conscience, with justice your guide;
join with all people whose rights are denied;
take not for granted a privileged place;
God's love embraces the whole human race.

Wake, now my vision of ministry clear;
brighten my pathway with radiance here;
mingle my calling with all who will share;
work t'ward a planet transformed by our care.

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

TIME WITH THE CHILDREN

Graham Howell

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together.

We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

HYMN

CH4 533 ‘Will you come and follow me’

Words & Music: © 1987 WGRG, Iona Community. Graham Maule, John Bell.

Admin by Willow Publishing Pty. Ltd.

Music: Kelvingrove

Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don’t know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

Will you love the ‘you’ you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside

and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.

OFFERING PRAYER & DEDICATION

For the gifts we receive and the gifts we share
we give thanks.

For the abundant universe, with resources enough and to spare
we give thanks.

May our offerings of money and food, compassion and goodwill, be multiplied to those who receive them blessing them, as we are blessed to give. Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice not already in the order of service, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Sandra Kirby

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Brazil and the Christian World Service Partner organisation the House of Passage, providing hope to the young girls living on the streets or in the slum communities of Recife, North East Brazil. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Marama Fox and Julie Anne Genter List MPs. Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Bell Block/Lepperton Co-operating Church, Brooklands Co-operating Church and St James' Presbyterian Church New Plymouth.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

CALL TO SERVICE (standing)

Spirit of God, brooding over the waters of our chaos, inspire us to generous living.

Wind of God, dancing over the desert of our reluctance,
lead us to the oasis of celebration.

Breath of God, inspiring communication among strangers, make us channels of your peace.

HYMN

WOV 384 'For all Christ's friends'

Words: William Wallace ©2011 World Library Publications.

Music: Sine Nomine by R. V. Williams

For all Christ's friends whose lives this world have blessed, who by their faith and actions Christ confessed,
we praise you God, their source of graciousness.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

You were their hope, their comfort, their delight;
you helped them grow in wisdom and in might;
in joy and pain you were their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Like them may we have Christ-like caring ways,
lives lived with wonder, tenderness and praise,
that we may live for others all our days.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O great Communion spanning time and space,
beyond our wealth, our learning or our race,
we can be one in Jesus and his grace.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

They shall be one who value people's worth,
one when they work for justice on the earth,
one when they love the God of all new birth.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Lord, give us strength to live the Prophet's dream,
Lord, fill our lives with love's life-giving stream;
then with God's poor we shall the world redeem.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

BLESSING & SUNG AMEN

May you be blessed with a restless discomfort about easy answers, half-truths and superficial relationships, so that you may seek truth boldly and love deep within your heart.

May you be blessed with holy anger at injustice, oppression, and exploitation of people, so that you may work for justice, freedom, and peace among all people.

May you be blessed with the gift of tears to shed with those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation, or the loss of all they cherish, so that you may reach out your hand to comfort them and transform their pain into hope.

May you be blessed with enough foolishness to believe that you really can make a difference in this world, so that you are able, in community with others, to do what is claimed cannot be done.

*There is a 2-hour parking limit on the street in the Wellington CBD on Sundays.
If you are staying for an after-church activity, you can move your car into the car park, or move to a new space on the street.*

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in one of the welcome leaflets (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.

ST ANDREW'S COMMUNITY NOTICES

ST ANDREW'S ASKS YOU - WHAT KIND OF SOCIETY DO WE WANT?

This election year St Andrew's presents the issues to the general public. Keep these dates free and make sure you invite others. Tuesday 15 August 5.30-7.00pm Fair Incomes for NZ. Paul Barber and Max Rashbrooke and others.

Thursday 31 August, 6-7.30pm (note different time) we host political candidates for the Centre for Theology and Political Issues' series 'Keeping Faith in Politics'

NEWCOMERS AND INFORMATION EVENING

Friday 25 August, in Conference Room 1 from 7-9pm.

This evening is for parish councillors, pastoral partners and most importantly for anyone who considers themselves to be a newcomer to St Andrew's on The Terrace. During the evening you will receive information about belonging to St Andrew's, have an opportunity to ask questions for clarification and a chance to meet each other. The evening will be followed on Sunday 1 October with a welcome for newcomers during the morning service. Any newcomers unable to attend on 25 August please let Susan know so that she can ensure you have information about belonging to St Andrew's and can make your choices about how to connect with the community. Tea/coffee and nice eats will be served from 6.45pm onwards, so it would be helpful if you would RSVP to office@standrews.org.nz by Tuesday 22 August please. If you are unsure about your status as a new comer, please come anyway, get informed and have some fun!

ROSTERS FOR SEPTEMBER THROUGH TO END NOVEMBER

Those who volunteer to help on our service duty rosters, now is the time to have a look at your dairies for the next period September through to the end of November. Please advise as soon as possible if you plan to be away during this time. Thank you. Rosemary and Karyn office@standrews.org.nz Thank you to those who have already been in touch.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

We have reduced the number of chairs stored in the foyer and the back of the church to increase the space available for morning tea and to reduce risk. We are planning to have only 20 chairs at the back of the church and 40 in the foyer. These need to be stacked only 5 chairs high to be safe. Please do not carry more than 2 chairs at a time. Chairs do move around a lot in this place! If you can tidy them away when you see them out of place, that would be helpful. Only shift chairs if your body can stand the strain! Thank you! Susan

YOU DON'T BAKE CAKES? BUT YOU WILL BUY SOME?

Asking for Volunteers to run a cake stall late November or early December to sell Christmas Cakes, shortbread and gingerbread. Or you might like to sell some at your work place? Also Volunteers to help with cake packaging, icing gingerbread Christmas trees and Gingerbread people (no skills required - maybe a group meeting in November?). Volunteer sign-up sheets at the back of the church. All donations of butter, dried fruit, eggs or spirits welcome - or donations to buy them. Order forms for buying goodies will be out in a week or two. Also would like the loan of some medium (15 cm) sized baking tins - sizes at the back of the church along with 3 sample cakes, so you know what will be available. Contact is Maxine Cunningham - jimax117@gmail.com.

WIDER CHURCH AND COMMUNITY NOTICES

PEACE MOVEMENT AOTEAROA

Sunday, 20 August to Saturday, 2 September - Tumanako! Children's Art Works for a Peaceful World: 2017 commemoration of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Tumanako! is an exhibition commemorating the Hiroshima and Nagasaki nuclear attack in 1945. Marking this year's 72nd anniversary it will be local children's art expressing their hopes and dreams for a peaceful world to thrive in. At the same time it will also recognise this year's 30th anniversary of NZ becoming a nuclear free country. The exhibition will display artworks of children aged 8-15 years old from all over New Zealand. The exhibition opens at 1pm on Sunday, 20 August, at Wharewaka, and will run at the Central Library until Saturday, 2 September. Organised by SGINZ, more information is available at <http://www.sginz.org/HiroshimaHope70>

BILLETS NEEDED!

On the weekend of 18-20 August 2017 Presbytery Central is holding a Gathering at St. John's in the City, Wellington. We would love to provide a range of billeting options for out of towners attending. If you are able to offer a billet, please contact Rev Richard McLean on (04) 233 8572 (office) or e-mail richard@ppp.org.nz. Please indicate whether you could accommodate a single person, a couple, a family or a combination; if your offer is for one or both nights (Friday/Saturday); and if you could transport guests to/from St John's in the City if required. Plan to attend too.

INVITATION TO ATTEND

Rev Allister Lane writes "We know you will have your loyalties to your congregation, but as part of the Presbyterian tribe in this region we ask you to please consider coming and joining in worship with the Presbytery on Sunday 20th August 10:00am at St Johns in the City. (There are some congregations already planning to come into the city for this special occasion of corporate worship). This service is part of the biannual Presbytery Gathering weekend, which is coming to Wellington for the first time ever! After the worship service, you are invited also for lunch."

We sincerely look forward to seeing as many of you there as possible.

Please find the information pack online: (or at the back of St Andrew's)

PARLIAMENT STARTS CONSIDERATION OF THE EXPUNGEMENT BILL

On 6 July, the Minister of Justice introduced the Criminal Records (Expungement of Convictions for Historical Homosexual Offences) Bill and proposed a Parliamentary apology to men convicted for homosexual acts. The bill's been referred to the Justice and Electoral Committee. Public submissions must be made by 18 August 2017. The relevant Parliamentary website page is: <https://www.parliament.nz/en/get-involved/topics/all-current-topics/historical-homosexual-offences-proposed-to-be-expunged/>

The process in a nutshell: The deadline is critical: 18 August. The submitter can ask to be heard (appear before the committee) - a good idea - you can expand on your written submission and answer questions. "What do you need to know?"

Submissions are publicly released and published on Parliament's website. Only your name or organisation's name is required. Keep contact details separate. If included on the submission they will become publicly available when the submission is released.

If you wish to include information of a private or personal nature in your submission you should discuss this with the clerk of the committee before submitting.

If you wish to speak to your submission, please state this clearly. Further guidance on making a submission can be found from the Making a Submission to a Parliamentary Select Committee link in the 'Related documents' panel. If making a submission don't hesitate to ask the Rainbow Wellington Board for assistance (rainbowwellington@gmail.com). In the event you appear before the Committee, get a few friends or RW members along to give you "moral support". (Hearings are open to the public and news media.) The RW Board will prepare a submission on behalf of Rainbow Wellington, but also encourages individual submissions.

DRAMA CHRISTI PRESENTS PARFUMERIE,

a comedy adapted by E.P.Dowdall from the Hungarian "Okat Illatszertar" by Miklos Laszlo. Parfumerie is a comedy/drama about life in a perfume-cosmetic shop, written and set in 1937 Hungary. The play centres around two themes, the story of the shop owner's troubled marriage and the tale of two young romantics. Performances over two weekends are as follows. Please note carefully the different performance times.

Friday 18 August at 7.30pm, Saturday 19 August at 7.30pm, Sunday 20 August at 4.00pm
Thursday 24 August at 7.30pm, Friday 25 August at 7.30pm, Saturday 26 August at 7.30pm
Sunday 27 August at 4.00pm. In Drama Christi Studio Theatre, behind carpark at Wesley Church, 75 Taranaki Street, Wellington. Waged: $15 Unwaged: $10. Bookings are recommended – phone: 389 9879 or email; pawf@xtra.co.nz

LIVING WAGE ELECTION FORUM: PUT THIS DATE IN YOUR DIARY

The Living Wage Movement is planning an election forum in Wellington. Please diary this date now and organise others from your faith group, community organisation and union to attend.

Wellington: 30 August, 7-9pm, at St Peters on Willis, 211 Willis Street, Wellington.

We call on political parties to commit to taking a lead on the Living Wage. We ask the parties forming a Government to adopt the Living Wage for core public service and extend the Living Wage to their contracted workforce. Let's organise now to show the political parties that we want them to take leadership on the Living Wage.

St Andrew's on The Terrace invites you to participate in the second of two evenings of pre-election discussion and debate

Second forum: Fair Income levels for All

Date: Tuesday 15 August, 2017

Time: 5:30 – 7 pm

Topic: How do we ensure every family and individual in New Zealand has a fair income so they can participate well in society?

Panel members:

Chair: Lyndy McIntyre, Living Wage
Paul Barber, NZ Council of Christian Social Services

Max Rashbrooke, Journalist and Author.

Regina Tito-Campbell, DCM Outreach Worker.
