PROCESSIONAL HYMN

This is a time we honour and name

Words and Music: Carolyn McDade from Seeds of Change

This is a time we honour and name
those who gathered before us
This is a time we hear God's word
in the voices seldom heard
Who shatter all myths of pretension.

Out of the truth of those turned away,
blamed, oppressed and discarded
Who shall reap and who shall sow?
Who decides what seeds will grow,
and who lays a claim to the harvest?

*Fire of passion, light of vision,
into the ashes we sow seeds of change
rooting a wisdom, dark and fertile
yielding a harvest of hope,
good for all people, who live in the land.*

Cycles, move; people can change,
turning fresh in the morning
Blossoms of joy amidst the pain
Love that died is born again
and sacred all lands and all people.

Out of the ash, a cauldron of green
fresh, eager, and faithful.
Hope long scorned by 'powers that be'
lives now as people free
their dreams for tomorrow reviving.

*Fire of passion, light of vision,
into the ashes we sow seeds of change
rooting a wisdom, dark and fertile
yielding a harvest of hope,
good for all people, who live in the land.*

WORD IN TEXTS

Lynne Dovey

New Testament

Colossians 3: 12-17

The earth is full of songs, some joyful,
some angry, others full of tenderness or grief.
Everywhere there are songs and singers
who are eager to share their melodies.
But the world is short of listeners.
Yes, my friends, listeners are rare.
It's a shame when a singer must pay someone by appointment to hear a song,
a listener who counts rhythm on a watch.
Wouldn't it be a great old world
if we saw each other's songs as treasure?
Then we could say, "Yes please,
sing to me your song of anger,
for I too know anger, and perhaps your anger and mine can hold hands and do something creative."
Or we could say, "Sing out your grief.
my heart is open and it will collect the beauty of your tears"
Unfortunately we too, wear watches
and often we are deafened by our own songs,
tunes that have gone unheard for years.
What a pity! What a waste!
Oh God, help us to value the songs of earth
and to know every one as a gift of heaven.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture, song and story,
For the word of God among us,
For the word of God within us,
We give thanks

Come and find the quiet centre (FFS: 10(i))

Words: © Shirley Murray; Music: Gaelic trad, arr. John Bell

Used by Permission CCLI Licence #341550

Come and find the quiet centre
in the crowded life we lead,
find the room for hope to enter,
find the frame where we are freed:
clear the chaos and the clutter,
clear our eyes, that we can see
all the things that really matter,
be at peace and simply be.

Silence is a friend who claims us,
cools the heat and slows the pace,
God it is who speaks and names us,
knows our being, touches bases,
making space within our thinking,
lifting shades to show the sun,
raising courage when we're shrinking,
finding scope for faith begun.

In the Spirit let us travel,
open to each other's pain,
let our lives and fears unravel,
celebrate the space we gain:
there's a place for deepest dreaming,
there's a time for heart to care,
in the Spirit's lively scheming
there is always room to spare!

Nothing is lost on the breath of God

Words & Music: Colin Gibson © 1996 Hope Publishing Company

Used by Permission CCLI Licence #341550

Nothing is lost on the breath of God,
nothing is lost forever;
God's breath is love, and that love will remain,
holding the world forever.
No feather too light, no hair too fine,
no flower too brief in its glory,
no drop in the ocean, no dust in the air,
but is counted and told in God's story.

Nothing is lost to the eyes of God,
nothing is lost forever;
God sees with love, and that love will remain,
holding the world forever.
No journey too far, no distance too great,
no valley of darkness too blinding,
no creature too humble, no child too small for God to be seeking and finding.

Nothing is lost to the heart of God,
nothing is lost forever;
God's heart is love, and that love will remain,
holding the world forever.
No impulse of love, no office of care,
no moment of life in its fullness,
no beginning too late, no ending too soon,
but is gathered and known in its goodness.

He came singing love

Words and music: Colin Gibson © 1994 Hope Publishing Company
Used by Permission CCLI Licence #341550

He came singing love,
and he lived singing love;
he died singing love.
He arose in silence.
For the song to go on we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

He came singing faith,
and he lived singing faith;
he died singing faith.
He arose in silence.
For the faith to go on we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

He came singing hope,
and he lived singing hope;
he died singing hope.
He arose in silence.
For the hope to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

He came singing peace,
and he lived singing peace:
he died singing peace.
He arose in silence.
For the peace to go on we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

HYMN

Spirit of God in the clear running water

Words and music: Miriam Therese Winter
© 1977 by Thank You Music. Used by Permission

Spirit of God in the clear running water
Blowing to greatness the trees on the hill.
Spirit of God in the finger of morning:
Fill the earth, bring it to birth,
And blow where you will.

*Blow, blow, blow till I be
But the breath of the Spirit blowing in me.*

Down in the meadow the willows are moaning
Sheep in the pastureland cannot lie still.
Spirit of God, creation is groaning:
Fill the earth, bring it to birth,
And blow where you will.

*Blow, blow, blow till I be
But the breath of the Spirit blowing in me.*

I saw the scar of a year that lay dying
Heard the lament of a lone whippoorwill.
Spirit of God, see that cloud crying:
Fill the earth, bring it to birth,
And blow where you will.

*Blow, blow, blow till I be
But the breath of the Spirit blowing in me.*

Spirit of God everyone's heart is lonely Watching and waiting and hungry until.
Spirit of God, we long that you only
Fulfill the earth, bring it to birth,
And blow where you will.

*Blow, blow, blow till I be
But the breath of the Spirit blowing in me.*

Brother, sister, let me serve you

Words and Music: Richard Gillard

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey,
and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other
walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow
till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony,
born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

These Hills

Words and music: Colin Gibson. Faith Forever Singing (# 63)
Used by Permission CCLI Licence #341550

These hills where the hawk flies lonely,
beaches where the long surf rolls,
mountains where the snows meet heaven,
these are our care.
Pastures where the sheep graze calmly,
orchards where the apples grow,
gardens where the roses cluster,
these are our prayer.

Forests where the tree ferns tower,
rivers running strong and clear,
oceans where the great whales wander,
these are our care.
Race meeting race as equals,
justice for age-old wrong,
worth for every man and woman,
these are our prayer.

Cities where the young roam restless,
lives brought to deep despair,
homeless and powerless people,
these are our care.

Places where the Word is spoken,
hands held in serving love,
faiths of our many cultures,
these are our prayer.

All that the old world gave us,
all that the new world brings,
language, ideas, customs,
these are our care.

Life finding joy and value,
faith seeking truth and light,
God heard and seen in all things,
this be our prayer.

Draw the circle wide

Words and music by Gordon Light ©2008 Abingdon Press
(Admin. by CopyCare Pacific Pty Ltd) Used by Permission CCLI Licence #341550

Chorus:

Draw the circle wide.

Draw it wider still.

Let this be our song,

no-one stands alone,

standing side by side,

draw the circle wide.

God the still-point of the circle,
'Round whom all creation turns;
Nothing lost, but held forever,
in God's gracious arms.

chorus

Let our hearts touch far horizons,
So encompass great and small;
Let our loving know no borders,
Faithful to God's call.

chorus

Let the dreams we dream be larger,
Than we've ever dreamed before;
Let the dream of Christ be in us,
Open every door...

chorus twice

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN

And now may the blessings of life
be upon us, and upon this community.

May the memories we gather here give us hope for the future.

May the love that we share

bring strength and joy to our hearts,

and the peace of this community be with us

until we meet again. Amen.
