with our prayers and songs

We come to think of people who have died and who shine like stars around us.

We come to thank our lucky stars for warm homes, for hearty food and clean water

We come to share

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

CH4 'Let us build a house where love can dwell'

Words and Music: Marty Haugen

Used by permission

Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions;
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of all shall end divisions:

*All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

Let us build a house where prophets speak,
and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
All are welcome...

Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:
a banquet hall on holy ground where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God through Jesus is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us:
All are welcome...

Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone to heal and strengthen, serve and teach,
and live the word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of love's face;
let us bring an end to fear and danger:
All are welcome...

Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace;
let this house proclaim from floor to rafter:
All are welcome...

OPENING RESPONSES

Mihi ki te whenua

Greetings to this land

To the icy June winds that race across the harbour to the Tararua mountains, dusted with snow to the harbour, storm-tossed and grey

Greetings to those who have gone before us, to our ancestors

who laid down the path we walk on and to loved ones

whose absence still aches like an open wound

He mihi aroha

Mihi ki a koutou katoa

And warmest greetings to all of you if this is your first visit to St Andrew's or if you have returned after an absence

we welcome you.

Your presence enriches us and this time together.

He mihi aroha.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Ken Irwin

Hebrew Bible

1 Samuel 15:34-16:13

Gospel

Mark 4:26-34

The Parable of the Growing Seed

26 He also said, "This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man scatters seed on the ground. 27 Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. 28 All by itself the soil produces grain—first the stalk, then the head, then the full kernel in the head. 29 As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come.”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

30 Again he said, “What shall we say the kingdom of God is like, or what parable shall we use to describe it? 31 It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds on earth. 32 Yet when planted, it grows and becomes the largest of all garden plants, with such big branches that the birds can perch in its shade.” 33 With many similar parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as much as they could understand. 34 He did not say anything to them without using a parable. But when he was alone with his own disciples, he explained everything.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture for the word of God among us for the word of God within us, We give thanks

REFLECTION

Rev Wayne Te Kaawa

WAIATA

AA 30 'E te Ariki'

Maori Song

E te Ariki, he ataahua koe,	Jesus, how lovely you are,
He rangimarie, he ngawari.	you are peace, you are gentle.
Tiaho mai, te whetu marama.	Shine forth, bright star.
E te Ariki, he ataahua koe.	Jesus, how lovely you are:

E te Matua, Tama te ara,	O Father, your Son is the way,
Wairua Tapu, orange nui.	your Holy Spirit – everlasting life
Tiaho mai, te whetu marama.	Shine forth, bright star.
E te Matua, he ataahua koe.	O Father, how lovely you are:

As stars are points of light more intense than we can imagine, we know Love lights up lives in ways more profound than we fully understand.

We know Jesus lived out such a life of Love that he shone light into even the darkest corners and illuminated even the deepest shadows.

*We know Spirit works among us now coaxing us open,
spreading circles wider,
shining the light of Love over every one.
so all can stand tall, proud and confident on the land beneath our feet;
those born upon it and from it together with those whose people arrived later;*

*In this the season of returning starlight when planting of new life reminds us of the ever renewing circle of Life;
we believe all are loved, accepted and known.*

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

*With humility we give thanks that we have goods and money we can give this day. We ask those distributing these resources be gifted with wisdom and insight in the giving. We look to the day when all people will be gathered at the feast of love where they can be satisfied in the ways they need satisfying.
Amen.*

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Guinea and the All Africa Conference of Churches. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Nikki Kaye and the Rt Hon John Key, and their electorates of Auckland Central and Helensville. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of St Giles' Presbyterian Church, Kilbirnie.

Chorus:

Draw the circle wide.

Draw it wider still.

*Let this be our song,
no-one stands alone,
standing side by side,
draw the circle wide.*

God the still-point of the circle,
'Round whom all creation turns;
Nothing lost, but held forever,
in God's gracious arms.

chorus

Let our hearts touch far horizons,
So encompass great and small;
Let our loving know no borders,
Faithful to God's call.

chorus

Let the dreams we dream be larger,
Than we've ever dreamed before;
Let the dream of Christ be in us,
Open every door...

CUPPA AND CHAT

We're trialling an idea for a regular get-together midweek, since some have expressed a wish to know people better. Each Wednesday coffee, tea, etc., will be available in one of the rooms in the Centre. We are in the Common Room, (Level 2) at 11am, Wednesday June 17th. The idea is to meet for an hour. You could bring your lunch if you want. You might then get on with your day. Or, you might go to the lunchtime concert and lunch afterwards.

After a time, the group can decide whether it is happy simply chatting or if it wants to do more. It might change name (or not). The idea is to see what evolves.

THE THIRD TESTAMENT PROJECT

The First and Second Testaments of the Bible comprise books chosen by people centuries ago. In the twenty first century let's compile a 'Third Testament'. We simply need books nominated which St Andrew's people have found...

- a. nourish their soul and/or develop their wisdom
- b. inform about the sacred/human intersection
- c. offer help on the journey of life.
- d. develop and grow their spirituality/faith/discernment
- e. increase awe, wonder and reverence (any or all of the above)

It's easy:

1. Choose your book - (it's probably already sprung quickly to mind) –anything from the last 1600 years or so.
2. Write a brief paragraph about why this book is your choice (connecting with at least one of the reasons above)
3. If possible, choose and include a key paragraph or quote from the book itself.
4. Email the paragraphs to the church office - office@standrews.org.nz - or post/hand it in to the office with your name and contact details and the details of the book. Head your email 'Third Testament'.
5. Do this by the end of June.

A small selection of nominations will be presented at a St Andrew's Sunday gathering in July. All nominating paragraphs will be printed in a booklet available to everyone. Any questions about any part of this process, direct to Mike Wespel-Rose, Ross Young or Susan Jones.

Christopher Evan Longhurst

These lectures will look at building the new St. Peter's Basilica in Rome and the role this structure plays in uplifting the human spirit to the uncreated source of all beauty. From the High Renaissance to the High Baroque, from Pope Julius II (r.1503-13) to Pope Alexander VII (r.1655-67); from Bramante's classic floor plan to Michelangelo's colossal dome, from Maderno's imposing facade to Bernini's captivating piazza, it unfolds the history, architecture, furnishings and treasures of the building and decoration of the new St. Peter's, Rome. A must for connoisseurs of fine culture, art history, religion and the arts, or anyone who has visited or wants to visit this remarkable, unique and influential site.
