PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Our delight is in the living'

Words: ©Susan Jones 2014-2015

Tune: Praise my Soul. Used by permission

Our delight is in the broadness
of the world dawn brings to sight;
Harbour, beach and islands' structure,
plain and hilltop, mountains' might;
Thanks be giv'n for nature's beauty,
celebrate each new day's light.

Our delight is in the living
of each moment every day,
working, playing, walking, sleeping,
being family, straight or gay;
Grace be giv'n for every minute,
wisdom for each interplay.

Our delight is in the creatures
sharing with us this our place,
moths and birds with stunning markings,
dolphins moving with sweet grace;
Thanks be giv'n for all creation,
celebrate each life, each space.

Our delight is in the loving
of each other as we may;
Searching, finding, liking, loving,
talking, list'ning on the way;
Thanks be giv'n for our affections,
celebrate them night and day.

OPENING RESPONSES

On this day we celebrate the oneness of humanity

the oneness of the family of humankind

On this day we seek understanding of the dislocation others suffer

dislocation of members of our own human family

This day we ponder the words of Jesus the refugee calling us to welcome refugee, outcast and stranger

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

PRAYER

LORD'S PRAYER (sung)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom the power and the glory
are yours now and forever.
Amen, amen, amen, amen,
amen, amen, amen, amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

Hebrew Bible

Deuteronomy 26: 1-11

Gospel

Matthew 2: 7-18

Contemporary Reading

from Wednesday's Children (Hutchinson, 1967) by Charity Blackstock
Writing of Jewish refugee children after World War II

By now the war had been over for a long time. And after a while suffering becomes such a confounded bore. Except, naturally, for the victims... You will remember yourself, when the war was at last finished, your appalled pity for the sufferers... We all wept and agonized, we would have done anything to mitigate the pain, we held out our arms to a battered universe.

But you cannot continue holding out your arms; they grow stiff. You cannot weep forever; the instinct for self-survival is too strong. And so by degrees your compassion wanes; in the end you perform upon it that most drastic of operations, you abort it, you forget it. I do not see how people can possibly do anything else, but the unfortunate and tedious thing is that the mutilated remain boringly mutilated, the deranged remain deranged and have to be hidden away in mental hospitals. All those who are damaged, disturbed and derelict are left to cope alone with an alien and unsympathetic world which has now no time for them, where once again the normal standards apply, where, once again, the rat-race has begun...

...Compassion should be universal: instead we all limit it to the particular people that interest us, and ignore the rest.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture
for the word of God among us
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

'Stars move'

Words: ©2014 Roddy Hamilton used by permission

Music: ©2015 Vivien Chiu

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, key of D major (indicated by two sharps), and 3/4 time. It begins with a tempo marking of ♩=50. The melody features a recurring triplet pattern of eighth notes. The lyrics are written below the staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across measures. The score is divided into five systems, each starting with a measure number (1, 5, 9, 13, 17). The final measure of the fifth system ends with a double bar line.

Stars move, light chan - ges, sea - sons come and go, but your word stays.

5 Old years end, new years be - gin, time pas - ses, but your word stays.

9 Man - gers are packed a - way, na - ti - vi - ties are stored, trees are ta - ken down, but your word stays.

13 Ho - li - days end, school be - gins, vi - si - tors go home, but your word stays.

17 Storms pass, nights shor - ten, days length - en, but your word, your word, stays.

Stars move
light changes
seasons come and go
but your word
stays

Old years end
new years begin
time passes
but your word
stays

Mangers are packed away
nativities are stored
trees and taken down
but your word
stays

Holidays end
school begins
visitors go home
but your word
stays

Storms pass nights lengthen
days shorten
but your word,
your word
stays

AA153 'When we lift our pack and go'

Words: © 1992 Shirley Murray & Ian P Render

Music: © 1992 Hope Publishing Company. Used by permission CCLI Licence 3341550

When we lift our pack and go,
when we seek another country
moving far from all we know,
when we long to journey free,
God is in the other place,
God is in another's face,
in the faith we travel by,
God is in the other place.

Through the loneliness of night,
through the sky's uncharted spaces
not a sparrow falls in flight
but a loving God will care:

God is in the other place,...

Sons and daughters must depart,
friends will go on other journeys,
only constant is the heart
that can trust its God to be:

God is in the other place,...

In the hands outstretched to greet,
through the open doors of strangers
there is love we yet can meet
and believe the Christ is there:

God is in the other place,...

Isaiah 40:28-31; 43:1-7 From Bread of Tomorrow edited by Janet Morley

Oh people, you shall not drown in your tears
but tears shall bathe your wounds.

Oh people, you shall not die from hunger
but hunger shall feed your souls.

Oh people, you are not weak in your suffering
but strong and brave with knowing.

Oh people, if you have known struggle
only then are you capable of loving.

Oh people, be aware of the love you have let not your tears submerge it let not your hunger eat it let not your suffering destroy it –

Oh people, bitterness does not replace a grain of love:
Let us be awake in our love.

HYMN

FFS15 'Fancy Noah sailing in the ark (Rainbow People)'

Music & Words by Colin Gibson

©1998 Hope Publishing Company

Used by permission CCLI Licence 3341550

Fancy Noah sailing in the Ark, ploughing through the wind and rain and dark;
all of a sudden, feel that bump,
landed safe on Ararat's hump,
welcome to the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, every creature too,
rainbow people, well what a motley crew,
with a snow white dove to guide them,
and an olive leaf their sign,
rainbow people in a rainbow world.

Some folk want a world of this and that,
mostly this, if that is what they're at;
all God's plenty is our store,
open wide the old Ark's door,
step into the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, bridging earth and sky,
rainbow people, God's promise in their eye,
and a shining arch to point them
to the harmony of all things,
rainbow people in a rainbow world.

Some folk want their world all black and white,
some folk like their world just wrong or right,
we like colour, we like hue,
we like me and we like you;
welcome to the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, children of the light,
rainbow people, declaring God's delight
in the multitudinous colours
of a multifarious world,
rainbow people in a rainbow world.

Some folk want a world of wrath and flame,
we prefer the gentle falling rain,
black clouds gather, still it shines,
pledge of seed and harvest times,
welcome to the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, joyful, full of mirth,
rainbow people, all colouring the earth
with the love and grace and laughter
of a plenitudinous God,
rainbow people in a rainbow world.
Rainbow people in a, rainbow people in a,
rainbow, rainbow world.

NOTICES

CUPPA AND CHAT

We're trialling an idea for a regular get-together midweek, since some have expressed a wish to know people better. Each Wednesday coffee, tea, etc., will be available in one of the rooms in the Centre. The idea is to meet for an hour. You could bring your lunch if you want. You might then get on with your day. Or, you might go to the lunchtime concert and lunch afterwards.

After a time, the group can decide whether it is happy simply chatting or if it wants to do more. It might change name (or not). The idea is to see what evolves.

THE THIRD TESTAMENT PROJECT

The First and Second Testaments of the Bible comprise books chosen by people centuries ago. In the twenty first century let's compile a 'Third Testament'. We simply need books nominated which St Andrew's people have found...

- a. nourish their soul and/or develop their wisdom
- b. inform about the sacred/human intersection
- c. offer help on the journey of life.
- d. develop and grow their spirituality/faith/discernment
- e. increase awe, wonder and reverence (any or all of the above)

It's easy:

1. Choose your book - (it's probably already sprung quickly to mind) –anything from the last 1600 years or so.
2. Write a brief paragraph about why this book is your choice (connecting with at least one of the reasons above)
3. If possible, choose and include a key paragraph or quote from the book itself.
4. Email the paragraphs to the church office - office@standrews.org.nz - or post/hand it in to the office with your name and contact details and the details of the book. Head your email 'Third Testament'.
5. Do this by the end of June.

A small selection of nominations will be presented at a St Andrew's Sunday gathering in July. All nominating paragraphs will be printed in a booklet available to everyone. Any questions about any part of this process, direct to Mike Wespel-Rose, Ross Young or Susan Jones.
