PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Our delight is'

Words © Susan Jones 2014 - 2015 Used by permission

Tune: Praise my Soul

Our delight is in the broadness of the world dawn brings to sight; Harbour, beach and islands' structure, plain and hilltop, mountains' might;
Thanks be giv'n for nature's beauty, celebrate each new day's light.

Our delight is in the living of each moment every day working, playing, walking, sleeping, being family, straight and gay; Grace be giv'n for every minute, wisdom for each interplay.

Our delight is in the creatures sharing with us this our place, moths and birds with stunning markings, dolphins moving with sweet grace; Thanks be giv'n for all creation, celebrate each life, each space.

Our delight is in the loving of each other as we may;
Searching, finding, liking, loving,
talking, list'ning on the way;
Thanks be giv'n for our affections, celebrate them night and day

HYMN

FFS 41 'let my spirit always sing'

Words: Shirley Erena Murray © 1996 Hope Publishing Company

Music: Rusty Edwards

Let my spi - rit al - ways sing, though my heart be win - ter - ing, though the sea - son of des - pair give no sign that you are there, God to whom my days be - long, let there al - ways be a song.

Let my spirit always sing,
though my heart be wintering, though the season of despair give no sign that you are there, God to whom my days belong, let there always be a song.

Though my body be confined,
let your word engage my mind, let the inner eye discern how much more there is to learn, see a world becoming whole through the window of the soul.

Let your wisdom grace my years, choose my words and chase my fears, give me wit to welcome change,
to accept, and not estrange, let my joy be full and deep in the knowledge that I keep.

Let my spirit always sing,
to your Spirit answering, through the silence, through the pain know my hope is not in vain, like a feather on your breath trust your love, through life and death.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Iraq and all those working towards peace in Iraq. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Dr Russel Norman and Denis O'Rourke, list MP's. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of St David's Multicultural Parish, Petone.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

TIME WITH THE ADULTS

AFFIRMATION

By Dorothy McRae McMahon
in Liturgies for the Journey of Life

We celebrate the miracles of grace which change us, born from the womb of God and from the deeply respected struggles of our bodies, minds, hearts and souls, surrounded by costliness yet free for us in the journey towards abundant life.

*We celebrate
the moments when we are turned around and look on ourselves and the world as though we make new entry and a different start with living water for our thirst and life-giving bread for our hunger.*

*We celebrate
the wonder of a creation in which nothing is limited to our horizons of sight or boundaries of energy, courage or hope, but which leaps forth in amazing surprises of good and endless transformations towards its true fullness in the imagination of God.*

HYMN

'Who would true valour see' (altered)

Tune: Monk's Gate

Who would true valour see,
let them come hither;
some here will constant be,
come wind, come weather.
There's no discouragement shall make them once relent their first avowed intent
to be a pilgrim.

Whoso beset them round
with dismal stories
do but themselves confound; their strength the more is.
No lion gives them fright, they'll with great giants fight, and they will have a right to be a pilgrim.

Hobgoblin nor foul fiends
can daunt their spirit, they know they at the end shall life inherit.
Then fear at what people say,
and fancies fly away
they'll labour night and day
to be a pilgrim.

BLESSING

ST ANDREW'S TRUST FOR THE STUDY OF RELIGION AND SOCIETY

Accounting's role in poverty, ecological and financial crisis: a spiritual reflection - Dr Pala Molisa

Tuesday 18 August, 1:15 pm, St Andrew's on The Terrace.

"We live today in a world that is beset by multiple, cascading forms of social and ecological crises from child poverty and deepening inequality to global financial crises and catastrophic climate change. In such a context, the challenge we collectively face if we're to address these crises is to confront all the ways in which our current way of life, our social and economic systems, are producing and deepening these crises. Given the depth of crises, all social practices, all fields, all disciplines, will need to be honestly scrutinized, and we will need to make use of all the resources our knowledge traditions provide for insight and inspiration.

In this lecture, I will argue that accounting is one such practice that ought to be receiving more critical attention than is currently the case for its role perpetuating and exacerbating these crises. And I would also argue that an important way of critiquing accounting, and any other social practice, is by using the insights from our spiritual traditions which historically have been the cultural repositories of humanity's collective wisdom.

Accounting is typically portrayed as technical, apolitical reporting practice that serves "the public interest" by rendering organizations more transparent by objectively portraying the economic facts of business activity. If viewed through a more critical and spiritual lens, however, accounting is much more than that. Not only is it a politically structured social practice that is a central driver of many of the social and ecological problems that we face today, but it is also imbued with those values that are at the heart of humanity's spiritual crisis."

Pala Molisa: Dr Pala Molisa is an accounting academic who lectures at Victoria University Business School's School of Accounting and Commercial Law. His research concerns centre on the role of accounting in facilitating political-economic processes that produce the class-, race- and gender-based inequalities and ecologically destructive consequences that we collectively face today.
