WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics. Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. AA is the NZ hymnbook Alleluia Aotearoa. We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.
The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.
In an earthquake: stop, drop and hold.

GATHERING

Hope brings us here:
hope of inspiration,
hope of justice,
hope of empowerment
hope of love.

In the presence we name God,
let us celebrate hope for the flourishing of life.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

AA 85 'Let justice roll down like a river'

Words: Colin Gibson

Music: © 1994 Hope Publishing Company

Chorus:

*Let justice roll down like a river,
let justice flow down to the sea;
let justice roll down like a river
let justice begin through me.*

Justice for all who go hungry,
crying to God to be fed,
left in a world of abundance to beg for a morsel of bread.

Chorus:

Justice for those who are homeless,
victims of war or of need,
trapped on the borders of nowhere,
lost in the canyons of greed.

Chorus:

Justice for all who are powerless,
yearning for freedom in vain,
plundered and robbed of their birth-right, silently bearing their pain.

Chorus

OPENING RESPONSES

REFLECTIVE HYMN

‘Let us reach down deep inside us’

© 2015 Susan Jones

Music FFS 10 (i) Gaelic Traditional Melody arr. John Bell

Let us reach down deep inside us
to the place where quiet reigns;
Find the Self who lives inside us knows our joy and knows our pains:
Let our ego stand aside there,
shadow sharing space with light.
Let our inner selves rejoice at how Love shines in darkest night.

Wind and fire and earthquake pass but Spirit is not found in them;
Still, small voice is hardly heard, but brings Love which does not condemn.
In lives buffeted by windstorms, rocked by quakes and scorched by fire, stillness brings surprising solace
as we find there, hearts’ desire.

Sacred calm means minds can settle, hearts grow quiet, souls grow still;
Busy thinking slows its rhythm,
gives compassion chance to fill.
Even long-forgotten scars heal
as new balm brings a new way;
Every space and every crevice warms as Love arrives to stay.

By Jono Ryan from 'Expressing Love for our Communities' in Justice and Action: Social Transformation in our Communities
Published by PCANZ and Presbyterian Support

As we consider responding to the needs outlined in this booklet, we need to ask: Why is love important? Love is central to the gospel story that defines us as a Church. We are a people formed by God's love, and called to bear witness to God's love for a broken world.

The call to love reminds us of the inherently relational nature of Christian ministry; in the gospels God's love was not conveyed via a brochure or programme, but by God becoming present among us in Christ, and relating to us in love. And without love, as Paul reminds us, our efforts can be like "a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal" (I Corinthians 13:11)

Our response to those affected by child poverty and family violence is an invitation to share Christ's love for a hurting world and, in so doing, to discover this love anew for ourselves.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
We give thanks.

HYMN

WOV 558 'When I needed a neighbour were you there?'

Words and music: © from Green Print for Song 1963 Stainer & Bell Ltd

When I needed a neighbour, were you there, were you there?
When I needed a neighbour, were you there?

Chorus:

*And the creed and the colour and the name won't matter
Were you there?*

I was hungry and thirsty, were you there, were you there?
I was hungry and thirsty, were you there?

Chorus

When I needed a shelter, were you there, were you there?
When I needed a shelter, were you there?

Chorus

Wherever you travel, I'll be there, I'll be there.
Wherever you travel, I'll be there.

*And the creed and the colour and the name won't matter
I'll be there*

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We affirm all people are created in such a way that their creation was named as 'good.'

We affirm all human beings in our world are made in the image of that which we call God

We affirm that any loss of dignity, damage or abuse to the bodies and souls of human beings is therefore an offence beyond all measure.

We affirm that Jesus noticed the forgotten, reconciled the outcast and enriched the poor.

We affirm that the Spirit makes no distinction between race or creed between gender, transgender or orientation between rich or poor, leader or follower

We affirm all are one body of humanity which needs to be loved, accepted and wanted, noticed and cared for, supported, empowered and enabled to be the best they can be and so assisted to contribute their unique gifts and strengths to this hurting world.

We affirm the Church has a vital role in living this out as we welcome, accept and acknowledge others, loving, enabling and supporting all people so everyone knows the power and dignity of being fully human.

OFFERING PRAYER

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Kenya and the Methodist Church in Kenya. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Grant Robertson and Adrian Rurawhe and their electorates of Wellington Central and Te Tai Hauauru. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of St John's in the City Presbyterian Church.

HYMN

AA 156 'Where the road runs out'

Words and Music: © 1992 Colin Gibson

Where the road runs out and the signposts end,
where we come to the edge of today,
be the God of Abraham for us;
send us out upon our way.

Chorus:

*Lord, you were our beginning,
the faith that gave us birth.
We look to you, our ending,
our hope for heaven and earth.*

When the coast is left and we journey on to the rim of the sky and the sea,
be the sailor's friend, be the dolphin Christ;
lead us on to eternity.

Chorus:

When the clouds are low and the wind is strong,
when tomorrow's storm draws near,
be the spirit bird hov'ring overhead who will take away our fear.

Chorus:

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN

Saying 'Yes!' to life: being human together

Where should we take advice on how to live from? What should I aspire to become? What would count as a fulfilling and dignified life? What kind of community is suitable for both human and spiritual growth? Come and hear Australian secular Buddhist teacher Winton Higgins in conversation with Noel Cheer as they discuss what it means to be human and in community with others.

(Winton Higgins)

Winton Higgins began meditating and practising the dharma in 1987. He took up teaching (mainly insight) meditation in 1995, in city classes and in silent residential retreats in rural venues in Australia. Since that time Winton's meditation teaching has developed towards non-formulaic insight practice based on the Buddha's original teachings, while he inclines towards a secular approach to Buddhism.

(Noel Cheer)

While in Wellington, Winton will also be running a weekend workshop, information on which can be found on the SATRS website.

THINKING AHEAD – ROSTERS FOR DECEMBER – FEBRUARY

The end of the year is fast approaching and it will soon be time to begin thinking ahead to the Festive Season and Summer Holidays. At St Andrew's of course there will be lots going on as always with Advent Services and many other activities. Now that we have updated and refreshed the duty roster information, it is time to consider preparing the next roster for December through to the end of February. So when you are busy putting events and holidays into your diary please spare a thought for the office and let us know what your availability is likely to be for this period. Many thanks.
