'Land of Primal Forest'

Words: Bill Wallace. Tune: Hymn to Joy WOV 92 (Beethoven)

Land of shining primal forests
Sculptured ribbon framed by sea;
Land of mystic snow clad markers
Charged with raw vitality.
Valleys wreathed in mists of morning
Earth caressed by sparkling light
Gift of God, our awesome homeland
Signed with nature's cross by night.

To the nation's patterned weaving
We have brought our vibrant threads
Gifts of language, gifts of custom Precious gifts of heart and head.
Let us name our river, mountain,
Make this soil our spirit's earth,
Find the Christ in land and people
Bring God's tender dream to birth.

Dream our country's future pathway,
Shape that journey day by day,
Use the Treaty's founding wisdom
Share the power and share the praise.
Then beyond the present struggles
Festive joys and lurking fears,
Nation-building based on justice
Shall empower the people's prayer.

OPENING RESPONSES (Luke 2:14)

He kororia ki te Atua

Salute to God

He maungarongo ki te whenua

Peacefulness to the land

He whakaaro pai ki te tangata

Goodwill to the people

PRAYER (ending with)

Equip us again to walk gently and humbly with you and with each other, looking at ourselves and our world through your eyes of respect, and hope, and light. AMEN

MIHIMIHI PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying “Kia houhou te rongo – let us make peace.” The response is “Kia ora”. Or, simply saying “Hello” is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

WORD IN TEXTS

HEBREW BIBLE

Micah 4:1-3 & Isaiah 19: 23, 24

CONTEMPORARY READING

Paraphrase of Micah & Isaiah passages

In the days that are to come the mountain of God’s peacefulness shall tower high above
Mount Taranaki

The people of the world
shall make pilgrimages to it:
‘Come, let us climb God’s mountain to the highest temple of God’s people;
God will teach us the just life and show us how to live God’s Way.

From Parihaka and its Holy Mountain God’s true way – genuine justice will spread over the whole earth!

God shall quell the world’s quarrels even among far away nations.
Guns and bayonets shall be forged into ploughs and pruning knives.

Taiaha and mere will fashion goodwill and peacefulness.

There shall be no more war
no more military training
no more armed forces!

When God's day comes there will be an open road from Wellington to Parihaka.

Pakeha will come as pilgrims to Parihaka

Maori as pilgrims to Wellington worshipping together

In that day
Pakeha will be genuine partner, comrade of Maori living for the good of the world which God has blessed:

"Blessed is Aotearoa – my people,
Blessed is Pakeha my fashioning,
Blessed is Maori, my heritage!"

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

AA59 'He came singing love'

Words & Music: Colin Gibson.
© 1994 Hope Publishing company

He came singing love and he lived singing love;
he died singing love.
He arose in silence.
For the love to go on we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

He came singing hope and he lived singing hope;
he died singing hope.
He arose in silence.
For the hope to go on we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

He came singing peace and he lived singing peace;
he died singing peace.
He arose in silence.

For the peace to go on we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people Kuwait and all those working to find solutions to the problems posed by oil production. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Alastair Scott and David Seymour, list MP's. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of Upper Hutt Uniting Parish.

AA85 'Let justice roll down like a river'

Words & Music: Colin Gibson
© 1994 Hope Publishing company

Refrain:

*Let justice roll down like a river,
let justice flow down to the sea;
let justice roll down like a river
let justice begin through me.*

Justice for all who go hungry,
crying to God to be fed,
left in a world of abundance to beg for a morsel of bread.

Refrain

Justice for those who are homeless, victims of war or of need,
trapped on the borders of nowhere,
lost in the canyons of greed.

Refrain

Justice for all who are powerless, yearning for freedom in vain,
plundered and robbed of their birth-right,
silently bearing their pain.

Refrain

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN

We go now into God's world, with peacefulness

And we are sure the God of Peace is already there!

E aroha me tumanako me te rangimarie tatou tatou e

May love, hope and peace be with us all

AMEN

So please spare a thought for the office and let us know what your availability is likely to be for this period. Thank you to those who have already been in contact, please keep them coming in. Please email office@standrews.org.nz Thank you.

LIVING WAGE SUPPORTERS

The campaign is not over yet and we know we have to keep solidly campaigning until every worker at Wellington City Council is paid the current Living Wage and WCC is a fully accredited Living Wage employer. Although Morning Report coverage was balanced and positive, the Dominion Post has chosen to carry a negative and inaccurate story. <http://www.stuff.co.nz/business/73450003/wellington-city-council-pays-more-staff-a-living-wage-costing-ratepayers-24m>

We are keen to get as many letters to the editor as possible in response.

Please take the time if you can to keep supporting the councillors' decision. You can do this by: Sharing messages on social media, writing to the DomPost as a Wellingtonian wanting to congratulate the Mayor and 8 councillors on standing up for the Living Wage (200 word letters to letters@dompost.co.nz), emailing the Mayor and councillors congratulating them (all email addresses in this style: Justin.lester@wcc.govt.nz) and of course supporting the next Living Wage Wellington action.

Wednesday 11th November at 7.30pm, in the St John's Centre Hall, Willis Street.

This presentation by Peter Thirkell covers the most important issues you need to be aware of – including a brief summary of the historical Christian view of euthanasia and suicide; an overview of developments over the last decade including overseas jurisdictions, the modern-day rationale for euthanasia and why legalisation in NZ is being pursued, and a response in reply based primarily upon non-religious arguments. There will be a chance for questions and encouragement to make a submission to the Health Select Committee, currently considering the issue of euthanasia in New Zealand.
