PROCESSIONAL HYMN

COC7 'Carol our Christmas'

Words: © Shirley Murray. Music: © Colin Gibson

Carol our Christmas, an upside down Christmas;
snow is not falling and trees are not bare.
Carol the summer, and welcome the Christ Child,
warm in our sunshine and sweetness of air.

Sing of the gold and the green and the sparkle,
water and river and lure of the beach.
Sing in the happiness of open spaces,
sing a nativity summer can reach!

Shepherds and musterers move over hillsides.
Finding not angels but sheep to be shorn;
wise ones make journeys whatever the season.
Searching for signs of the truth to be born.

Right side up Christmas belongs to the universe,
made in the moment a woman gives birth;
hope is the Jesus gift, love is the offering,
everywhere, anywhere, here on the earth.
Carol our Christmas, an upside down Christmas;

snow is not falling and trees are not bare.
Carol the summer, and welcome the Christ Child,
warm in our sunshine and sweetness of air.

LIGHTING THE ADVENT CANDLE AND THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

Partner Story from Nicaragua

Read by Angus

At 15 years, Giselle is determined to help. Drugs, alcohol and unemployment are a fact of life in her rural village in Nicaragua. She worried about her brother and other young people sinking further into depression and despair. When CEPAD (Council of Protestant Churches of Nicaragua) offered her and two others training as a Peaceful Community Mentor, she leapt at the chance. There is no other help in her community and with training from CEPAD she will be able to confront some of the violence, mediate conflicts and build self-esteem among her peers.

Lighting the Advent Candle of Peace

Today is the second Sunday in Advent. Advent is a time of waiting and preparing to celebrate Jesus' birth. It is a time to hope for peace between people, and to walk in the light God gives us. Each week between now and Christmas we will light a candle in our Advent wreath. The wreath is round to remind us of God's never-ending love. The branches are green to remind us of new life. The candles remind us of the light which came into the world with Jesus: light to brighten all of earth's dark places; light that grows stronger when we join in the work of building and rebuilding lives.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

We light the candle of Peace, with prayer for the strengthening of rural communities in Nicaragua AMEN

JESUS' PRAYER

Jim Cotter paraphrase on card

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

THE NIGHTS OF CHRISTMAS - Sung as the Nativity Scene is built up

On the first night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me, a dear little baby to see.

On the second night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

On the third night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
the Prince of Peace, Christ Emmanuel,
as a dear little baby to see.

On the fourth night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
a donkey waiting there, the Prince of Peace,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

On the fifth night of Christmas,
the Lord God sent to me, animals ... standing near,
a donkey waiting there, the Prince of Peace,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

On the sixth night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
Mary holding Jesus, animals ... standing near,
a donkey waiting there, the Prince of Peace,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

On the seventh night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
Joseph watching over, Mary holding Jesus,
animals ... standing near, a donkey waiting there,
the Prince of Peace, Christ Emmanuel,
as a dear little baby to see.

On the eighth night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
Shepherds with their sheep, Joseph watching over,
Mary holding Jesus, animals ... standing near,
a donkey waiting there, the Prince of Peace,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

On the ninth night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
Angels singing praises, Shepherds with their sheep,
Joseph watching over, Mary holding Jesus,
animals ... standing near, a donkey waiting there,
the Prince of Peace, Christ Emmanuel,
as a dear little baby to see.

On the tenth night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
Wise men of old, Angels singing praises,
Shepherds with their sheep, Joseph watching over,
Mary holding Jesus, animals ... standing near,
a donkey waiting there, the Prince of Peace,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

On the eleventh night of Christmas,
the Lord God sent to me, gifts for our king,
Wise men of old, Angels singing praises,
Shepherds with their sheep, Joseph watching over,
Mary holding Jesus, animals ... standing near,
a donkey waiting there, the Prince of Peace,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

On the twelfth night of Christmas, the Lord God sent to me,
a bright shining star, gifts for our king,
Wise men of old, Angels singing praises,
Shepherds with their sheep, Joseph watching over,
Mary holding Jesus, animals ... standing near,
a donkey waiting there, the Prince of Peace,
Christ Emmanuel, as a dear little baby to see.

‘Nativity’ by Joy Cowley

Read by Klara

Look now!
It is happening again
Love like a high spring tide is swelling to fullness and overflowing
the banks of our small concerns

And here again is the star that white flame of truth blazing the way for us
through a desert of tired words

Once more comes the music
angel song that lifts our hearts and tunes our ears
to the harmony of the universe, making us wonder how we ever could have forgotten
And now the magi within us gathers up gifts of gold and myrrh,

while that other part of ourselves,
the impulsive, reckless shepherd runs helter skelter with arms outstretched to embrace the wonder of it all

We have no words
to contain our praise
We ache with awe,
we tremble with miracle,
as once again,
in the small rough stable of our lives
Christ is born

HYMN

COC45 'There's straw in the manger'

Words and music: Colin Gibson
© 1998 Hope Publishing Company

There's straw in the manger and babies in danger,
some shepherds possessed by the folly of love.
The register's ringing, the shop choirs are singing,
it's bargains galore in the folly of love.
It's midsummer madness and everyday badness;
the usual scene for the coming of Christ.
It's parcels and wrapping, it's father caught napping,
and children awake in the folly of love.

It's suntan and lotion, it's surf and commotion,
it's sand in the sandwiches, folly of love.
It's crackers and candles, it's shorts and it's sandals, plum and pudding in summer, the folly of love.

It's friends and relations, it's neighbours and nations enjoying a moment of peace and goodwill.
It's crowds at the local, old aunties gone vocal,
and 'house full' signs out, O, the folly of love.

It's fam'lies united, it's grandmas delighted,
it's long distance calls in the folly of love.
It's caravans, camels and fellows in flannels,
three kings chasing stars for the folly of love.
It's postcard Madonnas receiving full honours,
Saint Nicholas wearing a cotton wool beard.
It's trees hung with baubles, angelical warbles,
and God come to earth in the folly of love.

DRAMATISED STORY - THE SHARED STABLE FEAST

HOSPITALITY PRAYER

Brigit the fifth-century Irish saint, was famed for her hospitality. The following prayer is attributed to her. As we recite it let us consider our own need to be God's hospitality to others

*I should like a great lake of finest ale, for the King of Kings
I should like a table of the choicest food, for the family of heaven.
Let the ale be made from the fruits of faith,
and the food be forgiving love.
I should welcome the poor to my feast, for they are God's children.
I should welcome the sick to my feast, for they are God's joy.
Let the poor sit with Jesus at the highest place,
and the sick dance with the angels
God bless the poor, God bless the sick, and bless our human race.
God bless our food, God bless our drink, all homes, O God, embrace.*

HOLY COMMUNION – THE FEAST FOR ALL

*St Andrew's is an open community and all are invited to Christ's table.
Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome to participate in the communion. This is God's meal for all people.*

COMMUNION LITURGY (adapted from Liturgies for High Days by Dorothy McRae McMahon)

We place on this table our offerings:
The bread from Joseph's hoard,
wine brought by those considered outcast;

Made from the wheat of the field and the grape of the vine, ingredients of the feast of life.

We gather around this table, the Table of Christ,
We claim our place here, by right of invitation
by virtue of being human by the grace of being loved without condition or limit.

Christ be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them up!

Let us give thanks

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give thanks that Jesus

includes children, boys and girls

includes adults, men, women, intersex and transgendered, gay and straight, those of every colour, and personality.

We give thanks that we can approach this table,

no matter who we are or who we have been,

no matter what our confusions or how deep our doubts.

We thank you that Mary and Joseph and Jesus Christ,

in the way they lived on earth,

revealed God as one who calls us on to a life greater than we have ever known or could have imagined.

And so we add our praises

to those of the faithful of every time and place,

joining with the whole of creation in the eternal hymn;

Holy, holy, holy God of power and vulnerability

All the universe is full of the glory of the power of love.

Blessed are those who walk in the name of all that is holy.

Hosanna in the highest!

At his last supper with his friends,

(people who were much like us,)

Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said:

'This represents the new covenant,
eat this in remembrance of me'

And also after supper the cup saying:

'This is the cup of new life also Drink this in remembrance of me'

Spirit of all, bless these elements,
this bread and this wine, gifts of the earth,

That as we eat and drink together
in this feast for all,
we may be drawn to you afresh
and nourished for the journey of life.

Come, eat and drink for all is ready

Communion is served by intinction. You are invited to come to the front of the church and receive the bread, or a gluten-free cracker, taking a piece large enough to dip into the wine (silver cup) or grape juice (pottery cup). Then eat the bread dipped in wine or juice.

Or, you are welcome to remain in your seat to be served.

If you don't wish to receive communion, you may remain in your seat or you are welcome come and receive a blessing (hold your hands crossed in front to signal this).

PRAYER

We thank you that we have been able to be guests at your feast, O God.

We pray that one day no one will be left out, that all will share equally in the resources of the planet.
We pray that gratitude for what we have received will make us part of the changing of our world. AMEN

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

OFFERING PRAYER

As your money is received, you will be given small pieces of paper and something to write with

ACTIVITY - Contributions to a Shared Christmas Celebration

On the sheets of paper given out during the offering, draw or write your favourite food or what you would like for Christmas dinner. On the other side you might like to draw or write the names of those you will share Christmas dinner with this or have shared it with in the past.

Bring your paper up and place it on the communion table as a way of giving thanks for the food we have and those who share it with us.

Please remain at the front for the offering prayer.

We come with an attitude of gratitude.
May the abundance we have to share remind us of others less fortunate than ourselves.
We offer our gifts of money, food and time to serve others
We bring our reflections with thanks for our shared Christmas celebrations.

For all these things, we give thanks. Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

WOV 246 'The North Wind is tossing the leaves'

Words: John Wheeler

Music: William G James

1 The north wind is toss-ing the leaves, the red dust is o-ver the

5 town, the spar-rows are un-der the eaves and the
by, the joy-bells are greet-ing the day, and the 8 grass in the pad-dock is brown, as we lift up our voi-ces and chimes are a-drift in the sky, as we lift up our voi-ces and 11 sing to the Christ-child, the hea-ven-ly King.

sing to the Christ-child, the hea-ven-ly King.

The north wind is tossing the leaves.
The red dust is over the town;
the sparrows are under the eaves,
and the grass in the paddock is brown;
as we lift up our voices and sing,
to the Christ-child the heavenly King.

The tree ferns in green gullies sway;
the cool stream flows silently by;
the joy bells are greeting the day,
and the chimes are adrift in the sky,
as we lift up our voices and sing,
to the Christ-child the heavenly King.

CONFUSED ABOUT THE STATUS OF THE TPPA?

The TPPA has been negotiated but it has not yet been signed by our or other governments involved. Between now and the 5th of February is a key time for those who wish to oppose it to remain active. Websites which give information include: "It's Our Future" <http://itsourfuture.org.nz/what-is-the-tppa/> which is resourced by Prof Jane Kelsey and others, or the Greenpeace website: www.greenpeace.org/new-zealand/en/take.../Say-no-to-the-TPPA/ You can read what the government says about it at: <http://mfat.govt.nz/Trade-and-Economic-Relations/2-Trade.../index.php> Also, TV3 news has this information: www.3news.co.nz/nznews/at-a-glance-what-is-the-tppa-2014100712 . ### THANK YOU FROM SUE MCRAE AND SOCKADOODLE

Special thanks to all Sockadoodle customers for your support over the past 2 years. The fundraising focus is now shifting a little from "Saving St Andrews" to helping others in need. A parcel of socks and hats made with donated wool was sent to Sweden this week to help Syrian refugees survive the harsh European winter. Sockadoodle is now taking orders for socks, hats, fingerless mitts, coin purses, hottie covers and tea cosies. These make great Christmas presents. For the next 3 months, all proceeds from Sockadoodle sales will go to ChangeMakers Refugee Forum, an NGO based in Wellington. If you would like to place an order, or would be interested in helping Sue McRae and Lois Robertson with the "Hats for Homeless" project planned for Feb-April next year, please contact Sue McRae on Ph 475 7899, visit the Sockadoodle Facebook page: www.facebook.com/sockadoodleSue for ideas and inspiration or send her an email: sue.mcrae.nz@gmail.com
