ORDER OF SERVICE

13 December 2015

Third Sunday in Advent

Happy Gifting

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

AA is the NZ hymnbook Alleluia Aotearoa. We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

We move from vaguely welcoming the season
to definite plans, lists and deadlines,
the pace accelerates ...
concerts celebrate the season ...
break ups mark end of year.

We carve out this space in which to be thoughtful, reflective to contemplate the meaning of it all and ponder these things in our hearts.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

WOV 246 'The North Wind is tossing the leaves'

Words: John Wheeler

Music: William G James

1 The north wind is toss-ing the leaves, the red dust is o-ver the
2. The tree ferns in green gul-lies sway, the cool stream flows si-lent-ly

5 town, the spar-rows are un-der the eaves and the
by, the joy-bells are greet-ing the day, and the 8 grass in the pad-dock is brown, as we lift up our voi-ces and chimes are a-drift in the sky, as we lift up our voi-ces and 11 sing to the Christ-child, the hea-ven-ly King.

sing to the Christ-child, the hea-ven-ly King.

The north wind is tossing the leaves.
The red dust is over the town;
the sparrows are under the eaves,
and the grass in the paddock is brown;
as we lift up our voices and sing,
to the Christ-child the heavenly King.

The tree ferns in green gullies sway;
the cool stream flows silently by;
the joy bells are greeting the day,
and the chimes are adrift in the sky,
as we lift up our voices and sing,
to the Christ-child the heavenly King.

OPENING RESPONSES (please remain standing)

In our land the sun shines brightly on our 'journey to Bethlehem'

The days are long and filled with light

Let us find the joy inherent in this journeying

Let us enjoy and rejoice!

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH AND THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

Partner Story from India

At the day's end, Indian fisherwomen are proud of the money they have earned. New to the business of working for themselves, they have taken fish in a new ice box further inland to sell or sold fish snacks for day workers. Training from Neythal has helped the determined women replace lost incomes from processing fish. As part of local women's groups they are confronting the violence caused by despair and the loss of cultural traditions, as well as challenging large-scale industry that is destroying their livelihoods through the legal system.

Lighting the Candle of Joy

Today is the third Sunday in Advent.

The first Advent candle reminds us to hope for a better world.

The second Advent candle reminds us that we can be part of bringing God's dream of peace to our world.

Today, we light the third candle – the candle of joy.

It reminds us that God wants us to be part of the world's healing,

bringing real joy to the people around us

by helping to rebuild lives.

We light a candle for joy.

HYMN

AA 159 'Who is the child?'

Words: ©1992 Shirley Murray

Music: ©1992 Colin Gibson Hope Publishing Company

Who is the child that is to be born,

Who is the child?

Less than a wisp of straw

in a stable,

brighter than sun, the light

from his candle,

this is the Christ!

Who is to sing the song of his birth,

who is to sing?

All whom the story touches

and changes,

hopeful and healed,

whom love rearranges,

these know the song.

Who is to dance the dance of his birth,

who is to dance?

Limbs that are leased

a life into freedom,

hands that will hold the world

in a welcome,

these know the dance.

Who are to be the bearers of Christ?
Who are they now?
All who give birth
to lively compassion,
carrying peace
as dearest possession,
these bear the Christ.

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We are glad you are here and hope you enjoy the toys and books at the back of the church.

God bless you. Amen.

*Rainbow Room is in recess for the school holidays.
Children are welcome to use the books and toys at the back of the church.*

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

'Pohutukawa Christmas'

By Barbara Sampson

In this southern place
pohutukawa stands all year
green and murmuring
wind-whipped
clinging to rocky shorelines.
But when pohutukawa breaks glorious red
against a clear blue sky
to the roar of rolling surf
we know Christmas has come!
Time to light the barbeque
slap on sunscreen
and celebrate.

Pohutukawa Christ,
You stand in our midst all year
singing your ever-green song of love.
But at Christmas you break out blood-red, flesh-soft
to the sound of a baby breathing.

Gift beyond description
we kneel to welcome you.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

CH4 334 'On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry'

Words: Charles Coffin Translated John Chandler, adapted Susan Jones
Music: © adapted from a chorale in Georg Wittwe's arr William Henry Havergal

On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry
announces that the Lord is nigh.
Awake and harken, for he brings glad tidings of the King of kings!

On Wellington's harbour, wind is high
the seabird wheels, with shrill, short cry;
this advent, may our hearts prepare for Christ to come and enter there.

Pohutukawas grace our shore
flowering, blood red, above surf's roar,
his life was not a peaceful green,
his wounds blood red, his pain was keen.

We hail our model, mentor, guide,
our refuge in whom we confide;
without his grace we waste away
like flowers that wither and decay.

Our grateful thanks sing now with glee,
advent reminds us we are free;
on harbour or on river shore
love will surround us evermore.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

*We affirm the prophets men like John the Baptist, women like Anna
who spoke out against injustice and greed,
calling the nation on its hypocrisy;
foretelling a better future.*

*We affirm the word of prophets like Zephaniah,
the words attributed to Mary in the Gospels,
stubbornly believing deliverance would come that people now bound would be freed, outcasts would be brought in and those on the margin would become the centre.*

*In the light of their courage we look within for strength to be prophets in our own time;
speaking out about trade
which doesn't seem as fair as its title,
homes as scarce as ever,
poverty which does not seem to be becoming history any time soon, abuse and violence as rampant as ever,
diseases of our easy civilized lives
which cripple bodies and minds.
abuse of our planet
leaving future generations in debt.*

*We affirm that we need help
from beyond ourselves
from amongst us
and from within.*

OFFERING PRAYER

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Bronwyn White

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Serbia, Montenegro and the Republic of Macedonia and the Ecumenical Council of Churches in Serbia and Montenegro. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Rino Tirikatene and Phil Twyford and the people of their electorates of Te Tai Tonga and Te Atatu. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of St Ninian's Uniting Parish, Karori.

CAROL

'Joy to the World!'

Words: Isaac Watts (alt). Music G F Handel
Antioch WOV 224

Joy to the world! A new age dawns
It comes, shalom to bring.
Let ev'ry heart prepare a room,
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n and heav'n and nature sing.

Joy to the world! Delight in good;
let all their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains,
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat, repeat, the sounding joy

Joy to the world! Let justice come,
To all who need release;
For prisoners held in chains,
the damaged and the anxious,
let them find freedom now,
let them find freedom now
let them, let them find freedom now.

Graceful and true, the Saviour brings compassion all may share
for poor and homeless,
so may they find
their life becomes more fair
their life becomes more fair
their life, their life becomes more fair.
