WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.
Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.
Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.
We will sing the hymns without announcement.

*Please note your nearest fire exit.
The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.
In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.*

GATHERING

Today Jesus draws nearer to the city, pausing just over the hill to stay with friends, beloved friends, Mary and Martha and Lazarus; Love is shown in shocking dimension.
Can we, like Jesus, hold the pain and joy together?

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

53 HIOS 'God within our deepest thought'

Words: © 2005 Shirley Erena Murray

Music: ©2009 Colin Gibson

God within our deepest thought, come where human words fall short, come when human eye and ear cannot get the message clear, when the signals we receive tell no truths we can believe.

From the earth our voices rise:
battle cries and lullabies, blessings met with blasphemies, pictures that distort and tease, human triumph, human joy, human play, inhuman ploy.

Give us honesty and grace each within our listening place, each with eye to what is true, finding treasures old and new, widening our view to see where another's truth might be.

Yours the truth that Christ has brought, yours the love his life has taught;

give us insight to discern, make us passionate to learn language of the loving Way new-translated for our day.

OPENING RESPONSES (please remain standing)

We explore again the mystery we call God, Looking within, deep, and deeper still.

We follow Jesus on his journey,
Looking beyond the cost and the perfume, to the heart.

We sense the Spirit in the air, as close as perfume's fragrance, as wide as sky's reach.

We pause on our own journeys and look for love though it be mixed with the death of so much we long to keep.

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.
Kia ora.

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together. God bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

Contemporary reading

'Body Language' by Susan Jones

Woman-with-no-name
why did you wear the label 'sinner'?

What was it you had done, or had done to you that earned you that tag so publicly?

And, knowing yourself to be so described what happened inside that gave the courage, the energy, to gatecrash the party at Simon's house what deep inner need drove you there your precious jar of ointment carefully cradled next to your body what was going on inside to over-ride for you the murmurs of disapproval the angry mutterings the hiss of air sucked in between irritated teeth?

and, having taken them by surprise, when you reached his feet bursting into tears with the grief and pain and joy and relief and deep sadness how did it feel to offer, without the customary restraint, all your heart's devotion, your whole self, your very being.

Acting it out with your body this much abused body

now wholly used to express the deepness of your self a deepness which till now you had held secret, safe, inviolate, hidden away from men

Glad to do this for him filled with a grateful love for he did not forgive in lordly manner expecting you to grovel but forgave with understanding eyes so you were made whole

so you,
having known the depths of pain, despair, violation could do for him out of that dark experience out of the deep spaces the sorrows of your life had carved into you out of that black place now illumined with love you could do for him what Simon never could you could anoint him for his burial

You and he knew it because you and he knew that pain and joy are one and grief and love are intertwined you and he knew what happens when the body is taken by force when violence is the apparent winner

you and he knew that love missing makes the finest dinner tasteless and love present gathers all together and makes us whole

Found in Mark 14:3-9, Luke 7:36-50 and possibly John 12: 1-8

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us, for the word of God within us, we give thanks

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Like drops of perfume, our acts can be small yet like its fragrance, fill the space around us.
We know even a small act different from expected practice can expose us to ridicule and shame.

Yet, the fragrance of that offering can also linger not only for that one night, but through centuries, sweetening difficult dark moments for others, far removed in time and space but not in circumstance, the congruence of the moment creating a bond with those who also wish to give what seems so little and yet means so much.

*We affirm small offerings
We affirm brave movements made by frightened people out of overpowering love.
We affirm courage in all its forms and gratefully breathe in the fragrance of Love.*

HYMN

FFS 50 'Nothing is lost on the breath of God'

Words & Music: © 1996 Colin Gibson.
Hope Publishing Company.

Nothing is lost on the breath of God, nothing is lost forever;
God's breath is love, and that love will remain, holding the world forever.
No feather too light, no hair too fine, no flower too brief in its glory, no drop in the ocean, no dust in the air, but is counted and told in God's story.

Nothing is lost to the eyes of God,
nothing is lost forever;
God sees with love, and that love will remain,
holding the world forever.
No journey too far, no distance too great, no valley of darkness too blinding, no creature too humble, no child too small for God to be seeking and finding.

Nothing is lost to the heart of God,
nothing is lost forever;
God's heart is love, and that love will remain,
holding the world forever.
No impulse of love, no office of care, no moment of life in its fullness, no beginning too late, no ending too soon, but is gathered and known in its goodness.

OFFERING PRAYER

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

HYMN

AA 127 'Take my gifts'

Words: ©1992 Shirley Murray.

Music: ©1992 Colin Gibson. Hope Publishing Company

Take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me,
gave me light and food and shelter, gave me life and set me free.
Now, because your love has touched me,
I have love to give away;
now the bread of love is rising, loaves of love to multiply!

Take the fruit that I have gathered from the tree your Spirit sowed, harvest of your own compassion, juice that makes the wine of God; spiced with humour, laced with laughter – flavour of the Jesus life, tang of risk and new adventure, taste and zest beyond belief.

Take whatever I can offer – gifts that I have yet to find, skills that I am slow to sharpen, talents of the hand and mind, things made beautiful for others in the place where I must be:

take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me.
