Pentecost

“As a kite on a string, so it is with the spirit of God”

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.
Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.
Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.
We will sing the hymns without announcement.

*Please note your nearest fire exit.
The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.
In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.*

GATHERING

Feeling the breath of your Spirit warm on our cheeks

we turn to you in love.

Sensing your presence
wafting towards us, drawing us in,

we come into your house.

Buoyed up by the energy of your Spirit, blowing through our days

we bring you all our joy.

Tossed about by cyclones in our psyches,
storms in our souls,

we call to you for strength and stability and come to worship you.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

HIOS 7 'As the wind song through the trees'

Words: © 2005 Shirley Erena Murray

Music: © 2005 Swee Hong Lim. Hope Publishing Company

As the wind song through the trees,
as the stirring of the breeze,
so it is with the Spirit of God,
as the heart made strangely warm,
as the voice within the storm,
so it is with the Spirit of God.

Never seen, ever known where this wind has blown bringing life, bringing power to the world, as the dancing tongues of fire,
as the soul's most deep desire,
so it is with the Spirit of God.

As the rainbow after rain,
as the hope that born again,
so it is with the Spirit of God,
as the green in the spring,
as a kite on a string,
so it is with the Spirit of God,
making worlds that are new,
making peace come true,
bringing gifts, bringing love to the world,
as the rising of the yeast,
as the wine at the feast,
so it is with the Spirit of God.

OPENING RESPONSES

In the freshness of this new day

Thanks be to you, O God

For morning's gift of clarity it's light like the first day's dawn

thanks be to you.

In this newborn light

let us see afresh.

In this gateway onto what has never been before

let our soul breathe hope for the earth

for the creatures

for the human family.

Let our soul breathe hope. John Philip Newell

Trish McBride

There is darkness here, the darkness of dis-ease
 A shadowed huddle of strangers not yet one
 We light our lamps while wondering at the calm
 And flickering faces become friends
 And may-be-friends
 The dark recedes
 There is a woman
 Who speaks with authority
 From having worked and served and loved

Who proclaims my God
As Love, as Cure, for Love drives out the fear
Men speak of walls of language, race, sex, age and class
Being broken down by love and guts
In the face of common pain

Then the fire comes
As we remember the dead to the tolling of the bell
The fire comes
Each one carrying a Calvary cross
For someone dear
The fire comes
Bringing light of Easter victory
The fire comes – and still it comes –
Torch-bearers for those gone, a race still being run
The fire comes
To a song of peace – Dona nobis pacem
And in our midst a ring of flames
Flames of strength and faith and love
Separate flames but of one Fire
Celebrate with sparkling stars
Celebrate fear gone and darkness drowned
Celebrate life and hope with power
Celebrate with flying stars
Pentecost now!

HYMN

'Ruah, Spirit, come today'

Words: Jean Aldridge-Clanton. Music: ABERYSTWYTH Joseph Parry

Ruah, Spirit, come today,
as You've come through ages past changing all who seek Your way, giving hope for peace at last.

Help us claim this urgent hour with new visions You inspire;
send your Pentecostal power;
rushing wind transforming fire.

Ruah, Spirit, Breath of Life, giving birth to all we know, move in us our souls revive with Your everlasting flow.
Stir our hearts with dreams anew;
all our doubts and fears release;
may we see your wider view,
earth transformed through love and peace.

Ruah, Spirit, bold and free, forming and reforming all,
recreate communities
by your liberating call.
Sons and daughters join to bring peace and justice everywhere;
heaven and earth with gladness sing,
when your blessings all will share.

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

In bringing these gifts we pray for “peace and justice everywhere”.
We share our blessings in order to bless others.

Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

KITE BUILDING

You are invited to write a key word on a sticky note to describe what you feel you need to “fly” or for your spirits to soar (some suggestions might be: DREAMS, TRUTH, HOPE or COURAGE). Then come up when you are ready and stick your note on the tail of our kite.

---

LITANY for those who would fly kites

Those who fly kites know that kites are earthbound and cannot lift and soar until they are caught by the wind.

People and churches are earthbound and cannot be themselves until the wind of God's Spirit lifts them to fly.

Kites are not free to thrust and move until they are let go to explore the skies.

People and churches are not free to love and care until they can let go and catch the Spirit which is love.

Kites have no power and direction unless they are caught and controlled by the wind.

People and churches have no power and direction unless they allow the Spirit of God to move within them.

Let us pray...

O God, may your Spirit lift us from being earthbound and free us to soar, to explore,
to have direction and purpose.
O God, help us to fly as people freed by your Spirit,
to live and to love.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Sonia Groes-Petrie

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Peru and the Methodist Church of Peru. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Catherine Delahunty and Bill English List MP's. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of Tawa Union Church.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

on card

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We sing of God the Spirit, who from the beginning has swept over the face of creation, animating all energy and matter and moving in the human heart.

*We sing of God the Spirit,
faithful and untameable,
who is creatively and redemptively active in the world.
The Spirit challenges us to celebrate the holy not only in what is familiar, but also in that which seems foreign.*

*We sing of the Spirit,
who speaks our prayers of deepest longing and enfolds our concerns and confessions, transforming us and the world.*

*We offer worship
as an outpouring of gratitude and awe and a practice of opening ourselves to God's still, small voice of comfort, to God's rushing whirlwind of challenge.
Through word, music, art, and sacrament,
in community and in solitude,
God changes our lives, our relationships, and our world.*

ADVANCE INFORMATION ABOUT GATHERINGS IN MAY, JUNE & JULY

May 15th (Pentecost) the Worship Committee will lead the Gathering. Susan will be leading other Gatherings except for the following: June 12th Jim Cunningham takes the service. This is followed by an afternoon wedding, so our congregational conversation will be in Conference Rooms 1 & 2. On June 19th (Disability Sunday) a 'dance-as-sermon' entitled GRACE will be danced by Jennifer De Leon (Auckland). She will also perform STRIPPED BARE in St Andrew's Hall Friday night (17th June) and Saturday afternoon (18th June). (Suggested koha $20 waged, $10 unwaged.). Please promote this to people you know who are interested in dance. Work also is in hand for celebration of the 30th anniversary of Homosexual Law Reform in July, probably July 3rd. July 17th, will feature your poetry choices – details soon.

WEB-LINK FOR LECTURE

Following last Sunday's service, Norman Wilkins suggests that this lecture (link below) details the "domination" system comprehensively for those who may be interested. Naomi Klein says that the environmental crisis is part of a whole system of exploitation and degradation of people.

The venue and tea arrangements are to be finalised, but please diary the date now. This is a good chance to talk with a Moderator before the General Assembly he will be moderating.

THE SECOND PSALMS PROJECT AT POLL SALACH - EASTER SUNDAY 1998

*While I was looking for Easter snow on the hills
You showed me, like a concentration of violets
Or a fragment from some future unimagined sky
A single spring gentian shivering at our feet.*

-Michael Longley

The Psalms in the Old Testament comprise poems/prayers/invocations directed to God and written by people a very long time ago. In the twenty first century let's compile another set of psalms.

We simply need poems nominated which St Andrew's people have found...

- a. nourish their soul and/or develop their wisdom
- b. inform about the sacred/human intersection
- c. offer help on the journey of life.
- d. develop and grow their spirituality/faith/discernment
- e. increase awe, wonder and reverence (any or all of the above)

It's easy:

1. Choose your poem - this may be a poem you have written yourself (bravo) or a poem by someone else chosen from your own reading (also bravo) -anything from the last 1600 years or so.
2. Write a brief paragraph about why this poem is your choice (connecting with at least one of the reasons above. It may help others access the intent of the poem in hearing your thoughts about it)
3. Type out the poem itself and its Author and title and also your "why" paragraph.
4. Email the poem and also your reason for choosing it to the church office - office@standrews.org.nz - or post/hand it in to the office with your name and contact details and the details of the book where you got it from. Head your email 'The second psalms'.
5. Do this by the mid-June (say 15th).

A selection of nominations will be presented at a St Andrew's Sunday gathering on July 17th as part of the service. All nominated poems and the "why they were chosen" will be printed in a booklet available to everyone a little later.

Any questions about any part of this process, direct to Mike Wespel-Rose, Fiona McDougall or Susan Jones.

WINTER FILM SERIES 2016 - “The Stories of Our Lives”

This series looks at the “stories” of our personal lives. They shape our lives, our responses to life, and even our expectations about life. These stories come from our own experience, from our families, from the society and time we live in. But the stories also come from the way God sees and knows and loves us. Sometimes the “stories” of our lives are supported and reinforced by God’s story for us.

At other times the stories conflict. The films in this series can be seen as contemplations which allow us to examine the stories of our past, how we live in the present and how we view the future.

By reflecting on these stories we come to a deeper understanding of ourselves and of how God is with us throughout our life’s journey.

The format of the evenings will be: input; viewing of a movie; reflection material for personal use over the coming week.

Dates (all Thursday evenings) August 18th, 25th, Sept 1st, 8th and 15th. Time 7-9pm.
Cost koha. Venue Pa Maria Marist Spirituality Centre, 78 Hobson Street, Thorndon.

CONFERENCE: WOVEN TOGETHER? CHRISTIANITY AND DEVELOPMENT BETWEEN NEW ZEALAND AND THE PACIFIC - Dates: 9-10 June 2016

Venue: Hunter Council Chambers, Kelburn Campus, Victoria University of Wellington

Organisers: Philip Fountain and Geoff Troughton

This conference seeks to examine Christianity as a development actor by investigating the roles that Christianity has played in influencing development and humanitarian practices, ideologies, rituals, networks and imaginations in the Pacific.

The conference will also probe the flip-side of this relationship; namely, the ways in which development and humanitarianism have influenced and reshaped Pacifica Christianities. The conference is interested in analysing all aspects of the interweaving of Christianity and development in the Pacific.

The conference is organised by the Religious Studies Programme with support from Victoria University of Wellington, UNESCO and the New Zealand Aid Programme.

The draft conference programme and registration information is available at the conference website: <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/sacr/research/religious-studies/woven-together-conference>

Early bird registration closes on 16 May.
