WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened.

In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

GATHERING IN COMMEMORATION FOR ORLANDO FLORIDA

You are invited to bring the tea light candle you have been given, bring it to the front table and light it as the poem is being read

MOURN but do not look away

Sierra DeMulder

Take the time to count to 50

Now add family.

Add wounded

Acknowledge the shooting took place at a gay bar.

Acknowledge that the nightclub was most likely filled with predominantly queer people of colour.

Recognize those who knew the shooter in Orlando report that he was heavily homophobic and hardly practiced his faith.

Allow the condemnation of this violence and this broken person without anti-Muslim ideology.

Acknowledge that the shooter was, in fact, an American and a licensed gun owner who used a weapon meant for war....

Acknowledge that this is the worst mass shooting in US history but also the 134th (with four or more victims) this year...

Recognize that this has always been America; that technically, the worst mass shooting in our history was at Wounded Knee with an estimated three hundred Lakota murdered.

Know this was 126 years ago.

Do the math.

Count how few generations separate us from this.

Admit that this sort of violence is not new, that it is not a product of Islam or radicalism but of us.

It is in our blood, our history-- the centuries of oppression and violence and exploitation that have gone unhealed.

Now, count to 50.

Count to 300.

Mourn but do not look away

AA 132 'Tell my people I love them' verses 1, 2, 4 and 5.

Music: Leonard Barlotti aar. Jan Harrington and Guy Jansen

*Tell my people I love them,
Tell my people that I care
When they feel far away from me
Tell my people I am there*

Tell my people where-e'er they go
To claim my risen power
My peace and joy and love
Is for them hour by hour.
Tell my people...

Tell my people who grieve and mourn
To hold the rainbow high Live for a bright new world
Where no more lovers die.
Tell my people...

Tell my people throughout the world
To strive for peace today
Show love for enemies
Be servants of the Way.
Tell my people...

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together.

God bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

Gospel (read responsively)

Matthew 5 from

Good as New: A Radical Retelling of the Scriptures

By John Henson

Splendid are those who take sides with the poor:

they are citizens of the Bright New World

Splendid are those who grieve deeply over misfortunes:

the more deeply they grieve the stronger they become

Splendid are the gentle:

the world will be safe in their hands

Splendid are those who have a passion for justice:

they will get things done

Splendid are those who make allowances for others:

allowances will be made for them

Splendid are those who seek the best for others and not themselves:

they will have God for company

Splendid are those who help enemies to be friends:

they will be recognised as God's true children

Splendid are those who have a rough time of it because they stand up for what is right:

they too are citizens of the Bright New World.

Contemporary reading

by Frederick Beuchner

If we only had eyes to see and ears to hear and wits to understand, we would know that the Kingdom of God in the sense of holiness, goodness, beauty is as close as breathing and is crying out to be born both within ourselves and within the world; we would know that the Kingdom of God is what we all of us hunger for above all other things even when we don't know its name or realize that it's what we're starving to death for. The Kingdom of God is where our best dreams come from and our truest prayers. We glimpse it at those moments when we find ourselves being better than we are and wiser than we know. We catch sight of it when at some moment of crisis a strength seems to come to us that is greater than our own strength. The Kingdom of God is where we belong. It is home, and whether we realize it or not, I think we are all of us homesick for it.

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

REFLECTION

'GRACE'

danced by Jennifer De Leon

HYMN

FFS 50 'Nothing is lost on the breath of God'

Words and Music: ©1996 Hope Publishing Company. Colin Gibson

Nothing is lost on the breath of God, nothing is lost for ever;
God's breath is love, and that love will remain,
holding the world for ever.
No feather too light, no hair too fine,
no flower too brief in its glory;
no drop in the ocean, no dust in the air,
but is counted and told in God's story.

Nothing is lost to the eyes of God,
nothing is lost for ever;
God sees with love and that love will remain,
holding the world for ever.
No journey too far, no distance too great,
no valley of darkness too blinding;
no creature too humble, no child too small for God to be seeking, and finding.

Nothing is lost to the heart of God,
nothing is lost for ever;
God's heart is love, and that love will remain,
holding the world for ever.
No impulse of love, no office of care,
no moment of life in its fullness;
no beginning too late, no ending too soon,
but is gathered and known in God's goodness

TIME WITH THE ADULTS

WOV 183 'I Danced in the Morning (Lord of the Dance)'

Music: adapted from Simple Gifts. Words: © Sydney Bertram Carter

I danced in the morning when the world was begun
I danced in the moon, the stars and the sun
I danced down from Heaven and I danced on Earth at Bethlehem I had my birth.

*Dance, then, wherever you may be
I am the Lord of the Dance, said He
And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be and I'll lead you all in the dance, said He.*

I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee they would not dance; they would not follow me so I danced for the fisherman, for James and John they came with me and the dance went on.

Dance, then ...

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
the holy people said it was a shame so they whipped, they stripped, they hung me high and they left me on the cross to die.

Dance, then..

I danced on a Friday, when the sky turned black
It's hard to dance with the Devil on your back
Oh they buried my body, they thought I'd gone
But I and the dance still go on.

Dance, then ...

They cut me down, but I leapt on high
I am the light that will never, never die
But I'll live in you if you'll live in me
I am the Lord of the Dance, said He.

Dance, then...

BLESSING

SUNG AMEN

WINTER FILM SERIES 2016 - "The Stories of Our Lives"

This series looks at the "stories" of our personal lives. They shape our lives, our responses to life, and even our expectations about life. These stories come from our own experience, from our families, from the society and time we live in. But our stories also come from the way God sees and knows and loves us. Sometimes the "stories" of our lives are supported and reinforced by God's story for us. At other times the stories conflict. The films in this series can be seen as contemplations which allow us to examine the stories of our past, how we live in the present and how we view the future. By reflecting on these stories we come to a deeper understanding of ourselves and of how God is with us throughout our life's journey. The format of the evenings will be: input; viewing of a movie; reflection material for personal use over the coming week. Dates (all Thursday evenings) August 18th, 25th, Sept 1st, 8th and 15th. Time 7-9pm. Cost koha. Venue Pa Maria Marist Spirituality Centre, 78 Hobson Street, Thorndon. Contact Brian Cummings (04) 212 4691 or bkcummings@xtra.co.nz
