Sing for Peace

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

Peace is more than a quiet morning with a calm sea

more than cessation of noise when building stops

It is more than a warm feeling somewhere below your heart

more than order and tidiness when the kids are in bed

Peace is strong and robust

just and fair

Peace is hard won and worthwhile,

the work of communities of peacemakers worldwide.

Let us sing today for peace,

Let us sing for peace together.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

FFS 10(i) 'Come and find the quiet centre.

Words: © 1992 Shirley Erena Murray

Music: © 1989 WGRG, Iona Community. Traditional arr John Bell

Come and find the quiet centre
in the crowded life we lead,
find the room for hope to enter,
find the frame where we are freed:
clear the chaos and the clutter,
clear our eyes, that we can see
all the things that really matter, be at peace, and simply be.

Silence is a friend who claims us, cools the heat and slows the pace,
God it is who speaks and names us,
knows our being, touches base,
making space within our thinking,
lifting shades to show the sun,
raising courage when we're shrinking,
finding scope for faith begun.

In the Spirit let us travel,
open to each other's pain,
let our loves and fears unravel,
celebrate the space we gain:
there's a place for deepest dreaming,
there's a time for heart to care,
in the Spirit's lively scheming
there is always room to spare!

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

PRAYER

HYMN-AS-PRAYER (tune below)

AA 44 'Gentle God when we are driven'

Words: © 1982 Shirley Murray Music: © 1982 Jillian Bray

Gentle God, when we are driven past the limits of our love,
when our hurt would have a weapon
and the hawk destroy the dove,
at the cost of seeming weak,
help us turn the other cheek.

Gentle Spirit, when our reason clouds in anger, twists in fear,
when we strike instead of stroking,
when we bruise and sting and smear,
cool our burning, take our pain,
bring us to ourselves again.

In the mirror of earth's madness
let us see our ravaged face,
in the turmoil of all people
let compassion find a place,
touch our hearts to make amends,
see our enemies as friends.

Let our strength be in forgiving
as forgiven we must be,
one to one in costly loving,
finding trust and growing free,

gentle God, be our release,
gentle Spirit, teach us peace.

HIOS 28 'Sing for Peace'

Words © 2004 Shirley Murray. Music © Vivien Chiu

Everything that has voice
sing for peace, speak for peace,
given chance, given choice,
work for peace, write for peace,
resonating ev'rywhere,
echoing our common care:
ev'rything that has voice, sing for peace!

All the world longs for peace
cries for peace, dies for peace, let the children, every place
sleep in peace, grow in peace, home and country safe to be
where the spirit rises free,
all the world longs for peace, cries for peace.

Ev'ryone who has breath,
 you and I, passers-by,
 ev'ry tenant of the earth
 plant for peace, gather peace,
 cultivate a neighbourhood
 cherishing our neighbours' good:
 ev'ryone who has breath, live in peace!

Contemporary Reading

'Peace' Gerard Manley Hopkins (1844-89)

When will you ever, Peace, wild wood dove, shy wings shut,
 Your round me roaming end, and under be my boughs?
 When, when, Peace, will you, Peace? I'll not play hypocrite
 To own my heart: I yield you do come sometimes; but That piecemeal peace is poor peace. What pure peace allows Alarms of wars, the daunting wars, the death of it?
 O surely, reaving Peace, my Lord should leave in lieu
 Some good! And so he does leave Patience exquisite,
 That plumes to Peace thereafter. And when Peace here does house
 He comes with work to do, he does not come to coo,
 He comes to brood and sit.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
 for the Word among us,
 for the Word within us, we give thanks

REFLECTION

'Where does peace begin?' Susan Jones

SONG:

'It is time, let the white poppies bloom'

Words: ©2015 Shirley Murray. Music ©2015 Colin Gibson

It is time! Let the white poppies bloom
 and the blood of the past stain no more;
 It is time for the sowing of seed
 that will outgrow the jungles of war.
*And the soul of the world will be healed (will be healed)
 and the darkness give way to the sun,
 and the terror of nuclear night will be gone
 in a peace that will never be done.*

It is time that the white poppies grow
 through the hatreds and hurts that survive,
 it is time for the tumbling of towers,
 and the building of trust kept alive.
And the soul of the world will be healed...

It is time: let the white petals float
over countries and cultures and lands;
It is time that the dreams that were lost
be reclaimed by our hearts and our hands.
And the soul of the world will be healed...

OFFERING PRAYER

It is out of gratitude that we give these gifts of food and money. They come with the prayer that all may know abundance of goods and of peace in all places in our world. So may it be AMEN

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

HYMN

AA 27 'Come to the Celebration'

Words and Music: © Marnie Barrell

Come to the celebration, all who are hungry,
the best wine is ready, and the loaves of bread;
here he comes, the bridegroom, to welcome the people,
to share out the food and see that all are fed.

Who is invited to the house of the bridegroom,
to live while the dead are left to bury the dead?
Beggars from the roadside, amazed at the asking,
are called to the table where the feast is spread.

What kind of party is this wedding reception?
The first are the last and yet the last are first.
Royal guests of honour are standing and waiting until all the servants satisfy their thirst.

Come empty-handed when you come to the table;
the drink flows forever, there is ample food.
Taste the wine of heaven and never be thirsty,
and see, as we break the bread, that God is good!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Paul Barber

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Slovakia and the Reformed Christian Church in Slovakia. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Gareth Hughes and Jan Logie List MP's. Here in Wellington, we pray for the leaders and people of Knox/St Columba Presbyterian Church, Lower Hutt.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

St Andrew's is an open community and all are invited to Christ's table.

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome to participate in the communion. This is God's meal for all people.

COMMUNION LITURGY

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up

Let us give thanks and praise

at this sacred table,

we give thanks and praise this day for Peace

It is right to give thanks and praise

for we have been granted access to the deepest peace known to humanity;

Peace passing all understanding, soothing hearts, calming minds.

A peace hard won and deeply valued

by all those over the centuries

who have worked for peace
and made peace and kept the peace.

Hope in this peace has endured

through war and nuclear bomb

through riots and anarchy

through chaos, abuse and violence.

And so as the choir sings the ancient words

we range ourselves alongside

all who have worked for peace through the ages,

who lived and worked with Jesus
and all his followers since.

Choir: Holy, holy, holy One,

filled with power and might

Heaven and earth are filled with your glory

The glory of the power that is love

Blessed are they who come in the name of all that is life giving and loving Hosanna in the highest Let gratitude ring across the sky

Blessed is our brother Jesus,
sometimes called the Prince of Peace,
who walks with us in the spirit of life,
who, after a meal with his friends,
people much like us, took bread,
gave thanks, broke it and said:

‘This is my body which is for you Do this to remember me’

In the same way also the cup,
after supper, saying words like

‘This cup is the new covenant,
Do this whenever you drink it, to remember me.’

Come now disturbing Spirit
breathe on these earthly things and make us one.
Open our eyes, unlock our hearts, name us here;

Heal, in us and our world, all which needs healing transforming despair into hope that we may go out with power to release peace in the world.

Adapted from All Desires Known by Janet Morley

The original of this prayer was first used on Easter Day 1987 in the St Hilda Community

Communion is served by intinction. You are invited to come to the front of the church and receive the bread, or a gluten-free cracker, taking a piece large enough to dip into the wine (silver cup) or grape juice (pottery cup). Then you're invited to eat the bread (cracker) dipped in wine or juice.

Or, remain in your seat to be served if mobility is difficult. If you don't wish to receive communion, please remain in your seat – we're glad you are here with us.

HIOS 19 ‘Deep in the Human Heart’

Words: ©William L (Bill) Wallace. Tune: Diademata WOV 163

Deep in the human heart
the fires of justice burn;
with visions of a world renewed
through radical concern.
as Christians we are called to set the captives free,
to overthrow the evil powers
and end hypocrisy.

This is our task today,
to build a world of peace;
a world of justice, freedom, truth,
where kindness will increase;
a world from hunger freed,
a world where people share,
where every person is of worth
and no-one lives in fear.

Taking the step of faith,
we leave the past behind
and move into the future's world
with open heart and mind.
by grace we work with Christ,
as one community,
to bring new hope and fuller life
to all humanity.

BLESSING and SUNG AMEN

ST ANDREW'S COMMUNITY NOTICES

SPIRITED CONVERSATIONS - Monday August 8th at 6.15pm in the Centre

Speakers: Dr Ben Gray, Newtown Union Health Service and Grant Robertson MP.

Topic: Problems with Health – Introduction by Dr Ben Gray: New Zealand has a good health service by international standards. However there are some significant problems. Ben will start his presentation by briefly discussing the impact of income inequality and how New Zealand is not addressing this issue well, and how this is a large contributor to health outcome inequities and conclude by arguing that an important issue is that we are trying to do too much and that it is unlikely that we will make a big difference to health outcome inequities if we don't ration more and stop providing some services. Grant Robertson to reply. Catered Meal $10pp. RSVP in the blue clip folder at the back of the church.

Science, Spirituality and the importance of NOT knowing.

Tuesday August 16, 12:15 - 1pm

Elizabeth Connor

Precis: Science and spirituality are usually pegged on opposite sides of a great divide. There are the debates of creationism versus evolution; traditional healing versus mainstream medicine; the 'evils' of genetic modification versus the 'sacredness' of nature. Elizabeth thinks these polarised debates cause more damage than good. In this talk she will present her vision, in which scientists, artists and mystics join forces as rebel explorers to tackle the biggest baddest issues facing humanity.

"The unknown is the most important part of science and spirituality," she says. "Let's face it. There is so much more that we don't know than what we do. Unless we find a way to feel comfortable in the unknown and work with it, we have no chance of tackling major issues like climate change, social collapse, war, hunger, overpopulation. Both science and spirituality give us tools to face the unknown and discover meaning in it."

In her talk Elizabeth will tackle such questions as:

- what is the essence of science?
- is science living up to its role in society?
- Is religion still important in this increasingly secular and globalised world?

Bio: When Elizabeth Connor was fourteen she had a dream of starting a renaissance that would reunite science, spirituality and the arts and spread across the world reconciling conflicts. Now, almost twenty years later, her plan is roughly the same.

She now directs The KinShip, a Wellington-based consultancy, which uses storytelling and other creative tools to help scientists, council staff and other groups to collaborate across sectors and communities. She has worked with regional council staff working in freshwater management, helped postgraduate scientists connect with industry, directed Magnificent Science Variety Shows combining science with dance, theatre and music, run storytelling competitions for scientists and produced reports, podcasts, publications and performances.

Elizabeth has a Masters in Science Communication from Imperial College in London and an Honours degree in Physics and Maths from Victoria University of Wellington. Her mentor was the late great kiwi scientist, Sir Paul Callaghan, who has been a great inspiration and kicked off her career. With Paul's support she was awarded the inaugural NZ Prime Minister's Science Communication Prize.
