ORDER OF SERVICE

21 August 2016

Pentecost 14

Do people have to always fit the Law or might the Law fit itself around people?

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

We gather on this day made holy by religion seeking healing from what cripples us seeking to be straight dealers in a sometimes crooked world;
To discern when people are important and when law is paramount or when it is the other way round;

We gather too so we can simply 'be' in this sacred space:

Let us 'be' here together this day

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

FFS15 'Fancy Noah sailing in the ark'

Words and Music: Colin Gibson © 1998 Hope Publishing Company

Fancy Noah sailing in the ark, Ploughing through the wind and rain and dark;
all of a sudden, feel that bump, landed safe on Ararat's hump.
welcome to the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, every creature too, rainbow people, well what a motley crew, with a snow white dove to guide them, and an olive leaf their sign, rainbow people in a rainbow world.

Some folk want a world of this and that, mostly, this, if that is what they're at;
all God's plenty is our store, open wide the old Ark's door, step into the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, bridging earth and sky, rainbow people, God's promise in their eye and a shining arch to point them to the harmony of all things, rainbow people in a rainbow world.

Some folk like their world all black and white,
some folk like their world just wrong or right, we like colour, we like hue, we like me and we like you;

welcome to the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, children of the light, rainbow people, declaring God's delight in the multitudinous colours of a multifarious world.
Rainbow people in a rainbow world.

Some folk want a world of wrath and flame,
we prefer the gentle falling rain, black clouds gather, still it shines, pledge of seed and harvest times,
welcome to the rainbow world.
Rainbow people, joyful, full of mirth, rainbow people, all colouring the earth with the love and grace and laughter of a plenitudinous God, rainbow people in a rainbow world.

WELCOME

REFLECTIVE HYMN

'Let us reach down deep inside us'

Words: Susan Jones © 2015 Gaelic Traditional Melody arr John Bell FFS 10(i)

(sung with a space between verses)

Let us reach down deep inside us
to the place where quiet reigns; Find the Self who lives inside us knows our joy and knows our pains:
Let our ego stand aside there, shadow sharing space with light.
Let our inner selves rejoice at how Love shines in darkest night.

Silence

Wind and fire and earthquake pass but Spirit is not found in them; Still, small voice is hardly heard, but brings Love which does not condemn.
In lives buffeted by windstorms, rocked by quakes and scorched by fire, stillness brings surprising solace
as we find there, hearts' desire.

Silence

Sacred calm means minds can settle, hearts grow quiet, souls grow still;
Busy thinking slows its rhythm,
gives compassion chance to fill.
Even long-forgotten scars heal
as new balm brings a new way;
Every space and every crevice warms as Love arrives to stay.

Silence

Gospel

Luke 13: 10-17

Contemporary reading

from "Chapter 7, The Righteous Mind"

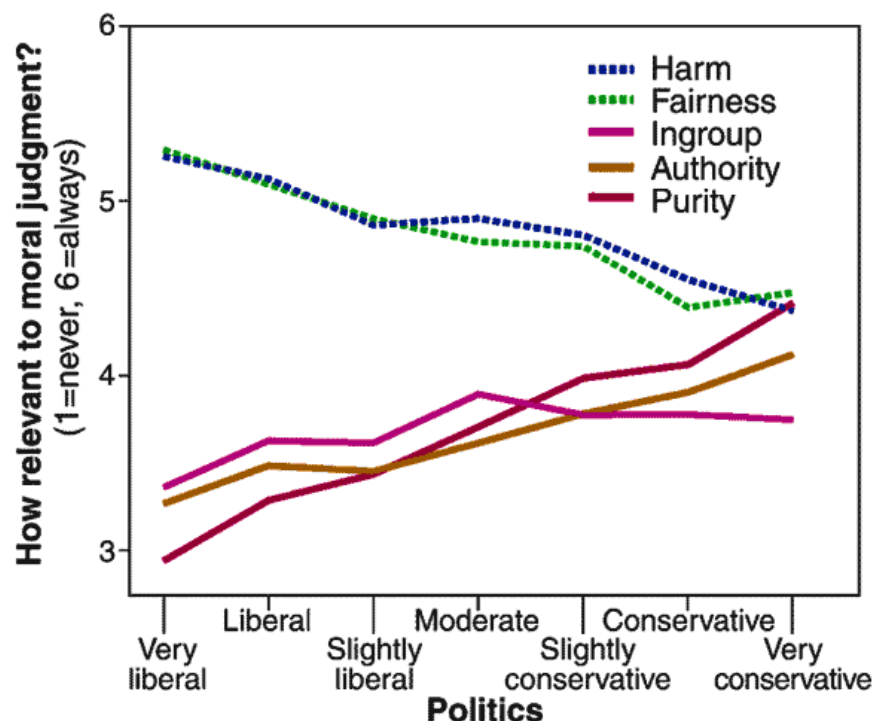

By Jonathon Haidt

I began this chapter by trying to trigger your intuitions about the five moral foundations... then defined innateness as "organized in advance of experience," ... This definition allowed me to propose that the moral foundations are innate. Particular rules and virtues vary across cultures.... But if you look for links between evolutionary theory and anthropological observations, you can take some educated guesses about what was in the universal first draft of human nature. I tried to make (and justify) five such guesses:

- The Care/harm foundation evolved in response to the adaptive challenge of caring for vulnerable children. It makes us sensitive to signs of suffering and need; it makes us despise cruelty and want to care for those who are suffering.
- The Fairness/cheating foundation evolved in response to the adaptive challenge of reaping the rewards of cooperation without getting exploited. It makes us sensitive to indications that another person is likely to be a good (or bad) partner for collaboration and reciprocal altruism. It makes us want to shun or punish cheaters.

- The Loyalty/betrayal foundation evolved in response to the adaptive challenge of forming and maintaining coalitions. It makes us sensitive to signs that another person is (or is not) a team player. It makes us trust and reward such people, and it makes us want to hurt, ostracize, or even kill those who betray us or our group.
- The Authority/subversion foundation evolved in response to the adaptive challenge of forging relationships that will benefit us within social hierarchies. It makes us sensitive to signs of rank or status, and to signs that other people are (or are not) behaving properly, given their position.
- The Sanctity/degradation foundation evolved initially in response to the adaptive challenge of the omnivore's dilemma... It ... can make us wary of a diverse array of symbolic objects and threats. It makes it possible for people to invest objects with irrational and extreme values—both positive and negative—which are important for binding groups together.

I showed how the two ends of the political spectrum rely upon each foundation in different ways, or to different degrees. It appears that the left relies primarily on the Care and Fairness foundations, whereas the right uses all five. http://righteousmind.com/wp-content/uploads/2013/08/ch07.RighteousMind.final_.pdf

'Do people have to always fit the Law or might the Law fit itself around people?'

HYMN

'From ancient times the stories flowed'

Words © Susan Jones Music: Lucerna Laudoniae WOV 77

From ancient times the stories flowed
From the Storyteller's heart;
Sons and parents, seeds that grow
Jesus taught with every part
*By words and actions, clear and bright
He brought life and love and light*

In the temple Jesus taught On the Sabbath calm and still People listening, as they thought, heard his words of truth and skill.
*By words and actions, clear and bright
He brought life and love and light*

Then he saw a crooked back Needing healing, love and more
He supplied it, earning flak
From those who revered the law
By his actions, clear and bright Jesus changed her crippled life

We the story tellers now
Spelling out what's just and right
Should the Law to people bow?
Or should Law insist its right?
*By word, by actions, do the right
To our world bring love and light.*

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying 'Hello' is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

OFFERING PRAYER

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice not already in the order of service, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

HYMN

FFS 32 'God who sets us on a journey'

Words: © Joy Dine. Tune Hyfrydol WOV 439

God who sets us on a journey to discover, dream and grow, lead us as you led your people in the desert long ago;
journey inward, journey outward,
stir the spirit, stretch the mind,
love for God and self and neighbour marks the way that Christ defined.

Exploration brings new insights, changes, choices we must face;
give us wisdom in deciding,
mindful always of your grace;
should we stumble, lose our bearings, find it hard to know what's right, we regain our true direction focused on the Jesus light.

End our longing for the old days, grant the vision that we lack once we've started on this journey there can be no turning back;
let us travel light, discarding excess baggage from our past, cherish only what's essential, choosing treasure that will last.

When we set up camp and settle to avoid love's risk and pain, you disturb complacent comfort,
pull the tent pegs up again;
keep us travelling in the knowledge
you are always at our side;
give us courage for the journey,
Christ our goal and Christ our guide.

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN
