ORDER OF SERVICE

28 August 2016

---

Pentecost 15

If we forget the spring of living water,
and wells that cannot hold it,
how shall we quench our thirst?

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

The living water springs up in the small places of our lives,
it is seen in tears of joy and sorrow,
experienced in a bottle poured out or a cupful given;

We thirst for living water

The wells we dig are sometimes not deep enough,
often poorly constructed,
so they cannot hold the water we need;

We thirst for living water

How else would we quench our thirst?

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

FFS 57 'Song of Faith that sings forever'

Words: © 1999 Shirley Murray. Music: © 1999 Colin Gibson
Hope Publishing Company

Song of faith that sings forever
through God's people, ages long,
Word that holds the world together
when our hearts take up the song,
always, always somewhere sounding,
though the source we do not see,
counterpoint to all despairing,
it is hope that sets the key.

Song of faith in exultation,
raising through the vaults of prayer,
tune of simple celebration
offered up in open air,
song in chapel and cathedral,
descant to our daily tone,
song from sickbed or in prison:
faith must often sing alone.

And when life would overwhelm us,
when there seems no song to sing,
hear the constant voice of courage
out of fear and suffering:
all who've loved and trusted Jesus,
all who lift us to be strong,
endless, endless are the voices
of the faith that makes the song.

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou.

Kia ora.

PRAYER

We give thanks for living water poured out for us
*The splash of bathwater, cleansing and renewing transforming waters of baptism
cool water gulped down on a thirsty day;*

We give thanks for living water poured out for us
Challenging words from a long-ago prophet the healing words of an ancient psalm challenging words from the Teacher's heart;

We give thanks for living water poured out for us
*Loving words from the lips of loved ones
praise from a demanding teacher inclusion by those with whom we want to be;*

We give thanks for living water poured out for us
*Actions we did not expect on a day fraught and busy dreams in the night which illumine our days
still small voice of God whispering in our hearts;*

We give thanks for living water poured out for us

From Made for Love by Joy Cowley

How often will a word or phrase rise off the page
and like some winged phoenix fly to our hearts
to become the burning presence of love.

It can happen even on those grey days
when rain is falling behind the eyes, blinding us to the goodness of earth.

The word made flesh! The word made fire!
The word the instrument of the Word!

The One who turns a cross into the tree of life,
whom we recognise in the breaking of bread,
who walks close behind us, picking up those things we try to discard and making them his treasure,
yes, he is the One who takes language
and turns it to sacred fire.

Why would we use words to limit the One who knows no boundaries to love?
The very thought is laughable.
All you and I can offer is emptiness and the desire to be consumed by his light.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

'I heard the voice of Jesus say'

Author: Horatius Bonar, 1846

Composer: John B. Dykes, 1868

Tune: "Vox dilecti" CH4 408

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Come unto me and rest;
 lay down, O weary one, lay down,
 your head upon my breast."

I came to Jesus as I was,
 weary and worn and sad;
 I found in him a resting-place,
 and he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Behold, I freely give
 the living water; thirsty one,
 stoop down and drink and live."

I came to Jesus, and I drank
 of that life-giving stream.
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 and now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "I am this dark world's Light.
 Look unto me; your morn shall rise
 and all your day be bright."

I looked to Jesus, and I found in him my Star, my Sun;
 and in that Light of Life I'll walk
 till traveling days are done

THE CHURCH IN QUESTION: A CONVERSATION

7th September 2016, 7.30-9.00pm at JJ Murphy (upstairs), 119 Cuba Mall
Much critiqued and frequently written-off, the church is both an embattled and surprisingly durable entity. In New Zealand the church has seen significant membership drop-off leading to questions about its continuing viability. But at the same time vitality and innovation abound. The dizzying, ever-expanding variety of formations and styles now in existence prompt further questions about the church as a sociological and theological category. Join us for a broad-ranging conversation on the state of the church today and its future directions.

Conversation partners:

- Dr Doug Gay: Lecturer in Theology and Religious Studies, University of Glasgow
- Dr Matthew Scott: Pastor, Lifepoint Church; Adjunct Lecturer in Religious Studies, Victoria University
- Dr Susan Jones: Minister, St Andrew's on the Terrace
- Dr Steve Taylor: Principal, Knox Centre for Ministry and Leadership, Dunedin
