GATHERING

We have come to be together, safe, warm, connected

and to acknowledge our awe at the forces of nature

The sun does not always shine, winds are not always still there can be turbulence without and within

We know that storms, be they welcome or challenging, will pass and rainbows will come again as signs of hope.

Let us celebrate life and storms in the Presence we name God

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

AA114 'Out of such sun and air'

Words & Music: © 1988 Colin Gibson

Out of such sun and air
what Christ may come,
shining with new and lovely light
on our dim and shrouded lives;
Stirring our sleepiness with dreams,
visions of life beyond compare.
Out of this sun and air
come, Christ, however you will come.

Out of such cloud and mist
what Christ may come,
blurring the clear and simple lines
of our settled scheme of things;
Calling on faith and hope and trust,
daring to danger, trial and risk.
Out of this cloud and mist
come, Christ, however you will come.

Out of such sudden storm
what Christ may come,

sweeping across the startled sky
of our calm and peaceful ways;
Driving with tempest winds of change,
testing with tumult and reform.
Out of this sudden storm
come, Christ, however you will come.

PRAYER

When we ponder storms, so many images spring to mind:
It is easy to understand Divine Presence in the summer storm bringing rains that break the drought, refreshing all that grows and relieving tension and humidity.

We give thanks for life-giving waters.

We search for the God of Justice and Compassion
when storms of human-generated crisis, involving family, community, nation or all of us
swirl around and catch us in their chaos.

Compassionate Spirit, give us courage to row against wild tides and clear sight to choose the right way forward.

How do we find God when weather systems clash,
and nature's destructive overwhelming forces against which humans are powerless cause death and damage on land and at sea?

Compassionate Spirit, be with us to guide, strengthen
and comfort in the storms of life.

How do we find God in our inner storms,
when visibility is nil, our charts and compass lost,
the sand-banks moved, the beacons gone,
and sense of direction disappears?

Compassionate Spirit, be with us to guide, strengthen
and comfort in the storms of life.

WELCOME

E te whānau Karaiti ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.

JESUS PRAYER

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

TIME WITH CHILDREN (Round, with congregation)

Margaret Megwyn

I hear thunder, I hear thunder
Hark, don't you? Hark, don't you?
Pitter, patter raindrops, pitter patter raindrops
I'm wet through. So are you!

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together. We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

for the Word within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

'In Our World' Vs 1, 6

Words: © 2016 Susan Jones. Music © 2016 Vivien Chiu. Used by Permission

In our world we find delight
for creation, day and night,
brings us solace, joy;
Spirit grows, refreshes, gleams
as the earth fuels richer dreams
just by being here;

*May this beauty never end
May this solace always be here
May the human race take notice
and show divine compassion.*

Storm brings dark clouds, water falls
lightning's crash astounds us all

as the front rolls in;
rain that lashes window panes
brings new life to parched farmland
rehydrating fields;

*May this beauty never end
may this rain continue watering
may the human race take notice
and show divine compassion*

HYMN

'Let us reach down deep inside us'

Words: © 2015 Susan Jones. Music © Gaelic Trad arr John Bell FFS10 (i)

(Sung with a silence between verses)

Let us reach down deep inside us
to the place where quiet reigns;
Find the Self who lives inside us
knows our joy and knows our pains:
Let our ego stand aside there,
shadow sharing space with light.
Let our inner selves rejoice at how
Love shines in darkest night.
Silence

Wind and fire and earthquake pass
but Spirit is not found in them;
Still, small voice is hardly heard,
but brings Love which does not condemn.
In lives buffeted by windstorms,
rocked by quakes and scorched by fire,
stillness brings surprising solace
as we find there, hearts' desire.
Silence

Sacred calm means minds can settle,
hearts grow quiet, souls grow still;
Busy thinking slows its rhythm,
gives compassion chance to fill.
Even long-forgotten scars heal
as new balm brings a new way;
Every space and every crevice
warms as Love arrives to stay.

Silence

JESUS PRAYER

Jim Cotter Version

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

With the bread we need for today, feed us.
With the food and money gifts we give today,
From our need or from our surplus,
May others, no less deserving than ourselves, be fed.
And in this giving and receiving
May givers and receivers alike be blessed.
Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

Bernard Beckett

Precis: As a great admirer of modern science, and as a passionate agnostic, I have always struggled to define a personal philosophy that might provide a grounding for our expanding understanding of the physical world, while underpinning my reluctance to commit to particular cultural mythologies. Although at first blush the two appear to lead easily into some form of naturalism, I've never been convinced by this approach. My talk will be an attempt to outline my current position, with regard to both the philosophy of science and those beliefs that sit necessarily beyond its influence. My tentative conclusion is one of what I shall call collective objectivism, and I will attempt to explore the relative merits and pitfalls of my evolving stance.

Bio: Bernard Beckett has been a high school teacher for the last twenty five years. During that time he has taught Mathematics, Economics, English, Media Studies, Philosophy and Drama.

He is the author of ten novels and a book of non-fiction, Falling for Science, which explored the relationship between science and story telling. He lives in Porirua with his wife, Clare, and his four year old boys, Alexander and Sebastian and with the birth of our third child, a delightful, albeit nocturnal, young chap by the name of Avery, our family is complete. I couldn't be happier.

A much more in-depth bio is available at
