Christmas Day

'Opening the Door'

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith's journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We will sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

A door opened that first Christmas Day

A door to a new world, a new way

It beckons us into a commonwealth of God where the room is for all

A seat at the table for everyone

Will we step over the threshold into the reality of new life

Or will the invitation remain an illusion and we do not accept?

Which will it be?

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

WOV 228 'O come all ye faithful'

Words: C Frederick Oakeley, John Francis Wade

Music: Adeste Fideles. John Francis Wade

O come all ye faithful joyful and triumphant,

O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem.

Come and behold him,

born above the angels;

O come, let us adore Him, O come, let us adore Him,

O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

O sing, choirs of angels,

sing in exultation,

sing all who celebrate God's holy word.

To the Creator, glory in the highest;

O come, let us adore Him,

This bright day, we greet you,

born this happy morning,

Jesus! for evermore your name be adored.

Word spoken truly, now with us appearing;

O come, let us adore Him,

WELCOME

Kia ora tatou. Kia ora.

PRAYER AND JESUS PRAYER

Jim Cotter paraphrase on card

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW ROOM CANDLE

CAROL

COC34 'Open, open the stable door'

Words & Music: © Colin Gibson

Refrain: Open, open, open, the stable door, welcome, welcome, welcome, the baby's born, enter, enter, join in the celebration, fear not, here is room for us all.

There's a flock of sheep and a cow and a donkey, welcome, welcome.
Here's a puffing shepherd, three wise men wonky, welcome, welcome.

Refrain

What a crowd of folk come to see the baby, welcome, welcome.
One of them is drunk and another's crazy, welcome, welcome.

Refrain

Fallen off the back of a skip just lately? welcome, welcome.
Feeling rather bruised, yes, and shook up greatly, welcome, welcome.

Refrain

Can't afford a coat and the kids are crying, welcome, welcome.
Haven't found a friend yet, but I'm still trying, welcome, welcome.

Refrain

CAROL

'Away in a Manger'

Words adapted by © George Stuart and Susan Jones:
Music © William James Kirkpatrick. WOV 242 Cradle Song

Away in a manger, no pillow or bed,
the baby boy Jesus is born in a shed;
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the baby boy Jesus asleep on the hay.

While cattle are standing, the baby's asleep sought after by shepherds who leave all their sheep;
and wise men bring treasures; they've come from afar
to give gifts to Jesus; they followed a star.

Yes, Jesus is near me, I know he will stay close by me for ever and love me each day;
all children are blessed by him, we will all share a wonderful friendship in his tender care.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Vhari McWha

Gospel

John 1: 1-14

I have seen many doors.
Some are homely they open eagerly with a warm invitation to "Enter, do!"
Others, glass with advertising etched upon them, slide open noiselessly inviting me into the mall to spend my money,
As much as possible, please.
There's the door to work where I enter some mornings, gladly , or not so.
Other doors, ecclesiastical grey,
have been firmly padlocked for years.

This door lies ajar,
a glimpse beyond of simplicity and rustic charm over laden with mystery and awe, mother's milk and animal aroma.
It is not a world I know well, twenty first century urbanite that I am these days.

If I enter this world will I know what to do?
Will I be welcome?
Do I have the key which unlocks this world, and interprets its symbols and its mystery
so I know what I need to know?
The door is ajar,
One simple movement from me and it will swing wide wide enough for everyone to enter.

Crossing the threshold seems a very small step yet one as wide as a universe and as deep as an ocean.

Will I take that step
Or always be left wondering what might have been?

RESPONSE

For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
we give thanks

CAROL OF THE REFUGEE CHILDREN

'Away and in danger'

Words: © 2016 Shirley Erena Murray

Music: © William James Kirkpatrick. WOV 242 Cradle Song

Away and in danger,
no hope of a bed,
the refugee children,
no tears left to shed look up at the night sky for someone to know that refugee children have no place to go.

The babies are crying,
their hunger awakes,
the boat is too loaded,
it shudders and breaks;
 humanity's wreckage is thrown out to die,
 the refugee children
 will never know why.

Come close, little children,
we hold out our hand in rescue and welcome to shores of our land - in aroha, touching your fear and your pain, with dreams for your future
 when peace comes again.

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

These gifts of food and money are given with gratitude that we have received much ourselves. May they make a difference through the partner agencies with whom Christian World Services works. May hope, peace, joy and love be conveyed through this money to those in need worldwide. Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

HYMN

'Hark! Hear angel song.'

Words: Charles Wesley (adapted)

Tune: CH 4 301 Mendelssohn (Bethlehem)

Hark! hear angel song surround Wellington harbour, Marlborough Sounds.
Sparkling bright on every side joy arrives on morning tides!
See the hills gleam green with light see the sky, deep blue, clouds white sonshine, even when it rains, lights our souls as each grace gains.

*All creation strains to sing
Glory to this different king*

Hail the heav'n born Prince of Peace hail the Sun of Righteousness light and life to all he brings health and healing in those wings justice, love, and mercy come change our world and bring us home to each other; reconcile God and creatures, adult, child.

*All creation strains to sing
Glory to this different king*

BLESSING

SUNG AMEN
