29 April 2018

---

Fifth Sunday in Easter

The Treaty in Wellington
29 April 1840 – 29 April 2018

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We usually sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Printed copies of the reflection are usually available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

This is the day two peoples signed a treaty in this very harbour

Surrounded by the hills of this land, pen was put to parchment

On this day we remember that moment

And we reflect on how the relationship has been since

We ask for the ability to do better

We ask for the courage to be true Treaty partners

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together. We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Hebrew Bible

Genesis 17:1-7, 9-10a

read by John Morgan

Contemporary reading

"Te Wharepouri"

read by Tuparahuia Pita

Te Wharepouri, a local rangatira who signed both the Deed of Sale for the Port Nicolson Block and Te Tiriti o Waitangi, when later asked was reputed to have said to Colonial Wakefield.

"... I thought you were telling lies, and that you had not so many followers. I thought you would have nine or ten, or perhaps as many as there are at Te Awaitei [a whaling station at the head of the Marlborough Sounds]. I thought that I could get one placed at each Pa, as a white man to barter with the people and keep us well supplied with arms and clothing; and that I should be able to keep these white men under my hand and regulate their trade myself.”

Despite this Te Wharepouri carried his hopes for unity to his death bed and it is said his dying message was;

"I muri nei kia pai ki aku taonga Maori, taonga Pakeha, kia tae ake te haruru o to reo ki ahau i Te Reinga”

“After my departure, let the future of Māori and Pākehā be positive, that word of it will resonate with me in Te Reinga”

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks

HYMN

‘Whakaria Mai’

NZ Folk Song

Tune ‘How Great thou art’ TIS 155

Oh Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

Whakaaria mai
Tōu rīpeka ki au
Tiaho mai
Ra roto i te pō
He kona au
Titiro atu ai
Ora, mate
He au koe noho ai

REFLECTION

‘Covenant, God-style’

Susan Jones

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (we say together as much of this as we can)

We are a cloth of diverse colours, made from many gifts and graces.
We are the people flowing forth from the Creator, surprising ourselves
with the things which can be done.

We are raw material for rewarding relationships
as our lives interweave, contributing one to the other,
holding each other firm
when one is weak or breaking.

We are each worthy of being respected and cared for,
essential to the pattern,
skilled in our appointed tasks,
vehicles for unexpected wisdom and skills,
sources of laughter and sharers of tears,
working with each other that, one day,
this world may be a place where all people live in justice, freedom and peace.

This is our hope, this is our faith,
Christ Jesus will be our company and the Spirit gives life to the weaving

Dorothy McRae McMahon The Glory of Blood Sweat and Tears

OFFERING PRAYER (said together)

We give thanks for what we have received and ask that these gifts will be received by those who need them
So may it be
AMEN*

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

*People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice not already in the order of service, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.
For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Here in Central Presbytery, we pray for leaders and people of Hutt City, Uniting Congregations, Lower Hutt.

HYMN

'The Treaty came here for the signing'

Words © 2017 Susan Jones

Music AA 85 'Let justice roll down' by Colin Gibson

Music © 1995 Hope Publishing Co.

The Treaty came here for the signing
From Waitangi to the Cook Strait
And Williams called for rangatira
To make their mark in their place
How do we live as two peoples?
Sharing the land and the sea?
How do we honour the Treaty
And legislate for sovereignty?

The harbour surrounded the party
Its hills as yet unmarked with homes
The chorus of birds loud and lovely
Trees growing, green, living poems
How do we live as two peoples?
Sharing the land and the sea?
How can we honour the Treaty
And care for this land and this sea?

The twenty-ninth day of that April
The year eighteen forty, they signed
The thirty-two-strong rangatira
With multiple questions in mind:
How do we live as two peoples?
Sharing the land and the sea?
Will these men honour the Treaty
And maintain our sovereignty?

Today others too now have joined us
Skin colour is of every hue
This land and this sea must support us
How can we care for them too?
Our history's not one we are proud of
The Treaty's been a battleground
Ignored, forgotten, dishonoured
But now we are turning that round.

Let all treat each other with justice
And care for this land and this sea
Let all of us honour the Treaty
So all can be equal and free

BLESSING (in Maori and English)

Heather Mataamua

SUNG AMEN

THANK YOU
