Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you.

We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat.

In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience.

Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission

is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert, and listed on St Andrew's website.

To be placed on the email circulation list for concert information, please email Marjan on marjan@marjan.co.nz. Also join our Facebook group Friends of St Andrew's on The Terrace Lunchtime Concerts, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/315497448862287/>.

Check out the noticeboards in the foyer each time you come.

Biography

Buzz is one of the world's top euphonium soloists and a leading figure in brass education in New Zealand. He was awarded a scholarship to study at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama (RWCMD) in Cardiff in 2010 where he learnt from the father-and-son combination and euphonium gurus Robert and David Childs.

While in the United Kingdom Buzz won many awards including the Best Euphonium Prize at the British Open Solo Competition, the RWCMD Concerto Competition, was the first student in the U.K. to get a mark of 100% for a final Masters recital, and he was named as the RWCMD's top student in 2012.

Buzz is the Principal Euphonium with the Wellington Brass Band and is an Artist Teacher at the New Zealand School of Music. He has performed with the National Band of New Zealand, Christchurch Symphony Orchestra, Auckland Philharmonic Orchestra, and the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra.

Buzz is a Besson Artist and performs exclusively on a Besson Prestige Euphonium with an Alliance DC3 mouthpiece.
