ASQ International Music Academy 2018

The ASQ International Music Academy is an annual chamber music course in Wellington run by the Aroha String Quartet. This year's Academy has taken place at St Andrew's on the Terrace from 23-28 July. Non-professional string players and pianists from New Zealand, Australia and China have participated in chamber group and string ensemble rehearsals, masterclasses, workshops and informal concerts under the tutorship of the Academy coaching team (see list below).

Today's concert is the culmination of several weeks of individual practice and two and a half days of rehearsals and coaching. We are very grateful to Alpine Silk, Hua Xing Violins and St Andrew's on the Terrace for their generous support, which has enabled the Academy 2018 to take place.
