Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you.

We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat.

In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience.

Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert, and listed on St Andrew's website.

Rupa Maitra:

Rupa studied with Pamela Bryce at Otago university where she completed a BMus in 1990, gaining several prizes in performance and musicology. Rupa was a member of the Southern Sinfonia between 1986 and 1997, including as principal second violin in 1994-97. Recent teachers include Martin Riseley. Rupa plays in various chamber groups in Wellington and is a member of the first violin section of Orchestra Wellington.

Owen Moriarty:

Owen began his formal guitar studies in 1997 at Massey University, graduating in 2003 with a Masters degree in performance music. In 2003, Owen headed to the US where he studied towards a Graduate Certificate at the University of Southern California (Los Angeles). While there, he studied under James Smith, and with LA Guitar Quartet members Scott Tennant and Bill Kanengiser, with subsequent/additional tutelage from Brian Head, Martha Masters, and Pepe Romero.

Apart from his general public performances, Owen's self-titled debut CD was released through ODE Records in 2003, and he has since recorded six more with Naxos, Rattle Records, and Atoll Records. As a founding member of the NZ Guitar Quartet, Owen completed seven tours on behalf of Chamber Music NZ, and three tours with Arts on Tour. Having performed all around New Zealand, in recent years Owen has also given performances in Australia, USA, Portugal, Mexico, Thailand, China, Spain and throughout the United Kingdom.

Duo Tapas formed in 2010. As well as completing a tour for Arts on Tour in 2013 and playing throughout NZ and in Beijing, Duo Tapas have released two CDs through the Ode Label.
