

Samuel Marsden Collegiate School Choir

Wednesday Lunchtime Concerts providing lunchtime music in the heart of the city since 1974

St Andrew's on The Terrace WELLINGTON

Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you. We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat. In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience. Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert, and listed on St Andrew's website.

To be placed on the email circulation list for concert information, please email Marjan on marjan@marjan.co.nz. Also join our Facebook group Friends of St Andrew's on The Terrace Lunchtime Concerts, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/315497448862287/>.

Check out the noticeboards in the foyer each time you come.

Programme

Bring me little water Silvy Huddie W Ledbetter (1888-1946)

Altissime was formed in 2015 as the top choir for Samuel Marsden Collegiate School, and the choir won a Silver award in the Big Sing Finale that year. We love to perform a wide range of music, from Renaissance to Jazz and Folk to Waiata.

In 2017 Altissime recorded three pieces for the last ever Praise Be session, with performances of music by Marsden Old Girl, and now organist at Guildford Cathedral in England, Catherine Dienes. We will be performing her Ave Verum today.

Also in 2017, the choir recorded a composition by a then current student Year 13 student, Neakiry Kivi, which she had written for the New Zealand Navy's 75th Anniversary competition. Neakiry won first prize for this beautiful piece and you will hear the final part of it today.

We will miss her energy and expertise very much. Thank you to St Andrew's on The Terrace for inviting us to sing; to Maaike Christie-Beekman, our choir trainer, and to Marian Campbell for organising the event.

Today our concert is for the joy of making music and we hope you enjoy our singing and that your day is happier for hearing us.
