Wednesday Lunchtime Concerts providing lunchtime music in the heart of the city since 1974
St Andrew's on The Terrace WELLINGTON

Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you. We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat. In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience. Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert, and listed on St Andrew's website.

To be placed on the email circulation list for concert information, please email Marjan on marjan@marjan.co.nz. Also join our Facebook group Friends of St Andrew's on The Terrace Lunchtime Concerts,

Biographies:

Laura Barton, Daniel Smith, and Liam Wooding formed the Tasman Trio in 2018 as musicians at the Australian National Academy of Music (ANAM) in Melbourne. The group explores classics from the piano trio repertoire alongside contemporary works, with a specific focus on music from the Asia-Pacific region. Career highlights include presenting two public recitals at ANAM, performing in the semifinals of the ANAM Chamber Music Competition, participating at the Adam Summer School, and performing in the St Andrew's on the Terrace Lunchtime Concert Series. This will be their second tour to New Zealand, where they will perform the Beethoven Triple Concerto with the Wellington Chamber Orchestra, as well as recitals in Wellington and Whanganui. The group aspires to represent - at home and abroad - a rich and diverse Australian and New Zealand musical culture by creating inspiring and original performances through the Chamber Music genre.
