Wednesday Lunchtime Concerts providing lunchtime music in the heart of the city since 1974
St Andrew's on The Terrace WELLINGTON

Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you. We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat. In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience. Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert and listed on St Andrew's website.

To be placed on the email circulation list for concert information, please email Marjan on marjan@marjan.co.nz. Also join our Facebook group Friends of St Andrew's on The Terrace Lunchtime Concerts,

Biography:

The Local Vocals started 15 years ago, comprising of parents of children going to Kelburn School. Back then they were called the Kelburn Chorale, and sang locally at St Michaels in Kelburn and in the community - in particular rest homes.

Over time the choir has grown in popularity and has been directed by Nicola Holt, Maaïke Beekman and now Simon Christie. The choir performs at St Andrews for their annual mid-year concert and at St Ninians Karori for their Christmas concert. The choir performs a broad range of repertoire and is delighted and very fortunate to be accompanied by one of NZ's foremost concert pianists and teachers, Emma Sayers.
