

Stringendo Wellington Children's Orchestra

Wednesday Lunchtime Concerts providing lunchtime music in the heart of the city since 1974

Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you.

We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat.

In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience. Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert, and listed on St Andrew's website.

To be placed on the email circulation list for concert information, please email Marjan on marjan@marjan.co.nz. Also join our facebook group Friends of St Andrew's on The Terrace Lunchtime Concerts, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/315497448862287/>.

Check out the noticeboards in the foyer each time you come.

Biography:

Stringendo was formed in 2015 and consists of string players aged 7 to 16 from the Wellington region, conducted by Donald Maurice. Its primary focus is music from the baroque and classical periods. The children perform four concerts a year usually including one as part of the annual Tumanako commemoration of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and one in the St Andrew's on the Terrace lunchtime concert series. Stringendo is financially neutral with no fees paid and no charge to participate. The orchestra's rehearsal venue is provided free by SGI-NZ Wellington. The Soka Gakkai International movement began in New Zealand in the mid 1960s through the efforts of a sole immigrant pioneer from Hiroshima, Japan— Mrs. Yuki Johnston.

Last Sunday Stringendo was delighted to perform in the Cello for Africa concert with Inbal Megiddo and Rolf Gjelsten to support the children at Tamariki School in Kenya
