WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We may sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Printed copies of the reflection are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

GATHERING

We gather after a hundred years of education;

light-bearing and truth telling,
preparing girls for the world they face.

We gather after millennia of faith;

light bearing and truth fulfilling, preparing people for the world they face.

This Pentecost we bring light and truth together with passionate fire;

We celebrate this day the fire and light and truth brought by faith and education into our world.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

AA 132 'Tell my people I love them'

Words © Leonard Barlotti vv 3,4 Guy Jansen

Music: © Leonard Barlotti arr Jan Harrington and Guy Jansen

*Refrain: Tell my people I love them, tell my people I care;
when they feel far away from me, tell my people I am there.*

Tell my people I came and died to give them liberty;
as they abide in me they will be really free. Refrain

Tell my people where'er they go to claim my risen power;
My peace and joy and love is for them hour by hour. Refrain

Tell my people to share their wealth and fight the sin of greed, care for the refugee, the hungry they're to feed. Refrain

Tell my people throughout the world to strive for peace today, show love for enemies, be servants of the Way. Refrain

PRAYER and JESUS PRAYER

Jim Cotter paraphrase

*Eternal Spirit, Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, Love-Maker, Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all, loving God, in whom is heaven:
The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!
Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In the times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From, trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For your reign in the glory of the power that is love,
now and for ever. AMEN*

TIME WITH CHILDREN

Chaplain, Queen Margaret College

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room programme to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together. We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Feel free to pass the peace with those nearby or move to greet others further away. Passing the peace consists of shaking hands and saying "Peace be with you." The response is "Peace be with you" or just "And with you." Or, simply saying "Hello" is a good idea. Also feel free to simply observe if you wish!

Gospel

John 14: 8-17

Contemporary reading

"Queen Margaret of Scotland"

Read by QMC Chaplain Deborah Wilson

Born over a thousand years ago, Margaret and her family fled to Scotland, when their own land was invaded. There they became refugees, protected by King Malcolm the third. Malcolm fell in love with Margaret and asked her to marry him. At first, Margaret refused because she wanted to be a nun. Then she realised she could serve God, still marry Malcolm and serve her country as well. They married and parented six sons and two daughters.

Margaret was a strong woman, leading the country with her husband. She was known as a fair queen. She set up schools. She built hospitals. She helped people who wanted to go on pilgrimages by starting a ferry service across the sea to St Andrews in Fife.

Her favourite possession was a book of stories from the Gospels, which some say was given to her by her husband. This very book has survived and can be seen today in the Bodleian Library in Oxford.

Under Margaret, Scotland was no longer an uncivilized backwater, but a modern, European, religiously orthodox country ruled by a powerful royal couple.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks

SCHOOL SONG

'Girls of Queen Margaret'

Led by the Cherubim Choir (Junior School Choir, Queen Margaret College).

Girls of Queen Margaret sing of our College
Faith in her future and pride in her past.
We of the present now pledge her our service,
Eager and resolute whatever be the task;
Proud of her name with its noble tradition –
Margaret of Scotland, the wise and the good –
May we her daughters, bear it with honour Upholding the fame which for centuries has stood.

God keep us all when far we are scattered.
Lost to the paths and the friendship of youth;
Though we must follow the beckoning future,
May we be led by the Light of Truth.
May we be steadfast to seek and to follow –
Heedless of censure and careless of praise –
Fullness of knowledge, perfection of wisdom,
True understanding at end of our days

HYMN

Ch 4 593 'She sits like a bird brooding on the waters'

Words and music © John Bell Wild Goose Publications

She sits like a bird, brooding on the waters,
Hovering on the chaos of the world's first day;
She sighs and she sings, mothering creation,
Waiting to give birth to all the Word will say.

She wings over earth, resting where she wishes,
Lighting close at hand or soaring through the skies;
She nests in the womb, welcoming each wonder,
Nourishing potential hidden to our eyes.

She dances in fire, startling her spectators,
Waking tongues of ecstasy where dumbness reigned;
She weans and inspires all whose hearts are open,
Nor can she be captured, silenced or restrained.

For she is the Spirit, one with God in essence,
Gifted by the Saviour in eternal love;
She is the key opening the scriptures,
Enemy of apathy and heavenly dove

OFFERING AND OFFERING PRAYER

We bring our gifts of money for the work of this church here and beyond these walls;

We bring food

for those who need it.

We ask both food and money are blessed in their work so that both are able to spread Love abroad in the world.

So may it be

AMEN

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

PRAYER FOR QUEEN MARGARET COLLEGE

Deborah Wilson

(90th Jubilee Prayer)

Loving God, Creator of earth and Source of Life

Bless Queen Margaret College

May our School be a place where it is good

To teach and learn, to make friends and celebrate life

Where your light guides our path in the search for truth.

And your good news is told and lived each day

A sacred space

May our School be a place where each person is listened to

And your image in each one is valued

Where we encourage one another

And, when things go wrong, forgive one another

A community of compassion.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

led by Lynne Dovey

Renew your people, God, and renew our life in this place.

Give us a new spirit of unity with all who follow Christ, and a new spirit of love towards all people.

Bless the city in which we live that it may be a place where honest dealing,

good government, the desire for beauty and the care for others flourish.

Bless this church that what we know of your will

may become what we do,

and what we believe,

the strong impulse of our worship and work.

AMEN.

HYMN

'And did those feet in former times'

Words: © Susan Jones 2000: this version 2014 Tune: CH 4 #106 Jerusalem

And did those feet in former times
walk upon scree and tussock brown and did the man, Jesus the Christ cross mountains high and rolling downs?
and did he know the morning mist?
and did he know the harbour's sheen?
and did he love this cityscape its terraced streets, the urban scene?

And does he still walk this our land,

talking and laughing with us yet?
And does he know that stab of need when all our other friends forget?
And is he there when wine is poured?
And is he there when bread's prepared?
And does he laugh when life's alright?
And does he weep when it is not?

Be with us Christ, as we step out.
Come with us on our lifelong quest.
Be our true guide, on our right hand,
be with us, walking and at rest.
So we will know life to the full,
be there to see us through the night.
For we would be your followers pursue your Way with all our might.

PRAYER FOR LIGHT FOR THE WAY (said standing)

Light of truth, light of truth
Help us follow the light of truth
Word of light, lamp of Christ
Keep us following in your light

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN

As we go forth from this place, may it be that we are blessed with the strength of a superhero as she fights for good,
the wisdom of a judge as she discerns the truth,
the light of love as within the heart of ordinary women, so more will know that Love surrounds them every moment of every day.

MY KIDS VILLAGE BLOG ABOUT PARENTING AND CHILDCARE ISSUES

I recently launched a blog for My Kids Village <https://www.mykidsvillage.co.nz/blog/> and the response has been really encouraging. There are a lot more people using the website since we started writing about parenting and childcare issues.

As I think about new topics for the blog, it got me thinking about how the juggle of family-life and work-life has changed over the generations. Has it even changed at all? One of the things I value most about being part of St Andrews is the awesome people I get call my community. Many of you are grandparents and you have so much wisdom, which I regularly lean on! I would like to ask for your input to help me better understand your experiences of raising young children and what advice you would give my generation of parents.

If any grandparents, or great-grandparents, are interested in participating please send me an email or a text. I'll organise a group conversation once there are a few voices to take part. My email address is gillian@mykidsvillage.co.nz and my phone number is 02102871460. Thanks so much! Gillian Brookes.

INTERESTED IN A GROUP ABOUT SPIRITUAL PRACTICE?

After June 2's reflection on Communion and Prayer, a suggestion has been made about running workshops on spiritual practices. If anyone is interested they could email Susan at minister@standrews.org.nz or text her on 027 321 4870.

COMMON DREAMS CONFERENCE

HEALTH AND SAFETY PLEASE BE AWARE

The health and safety of everyone in our community is important. It is good that lots of people remain after the Gathering for morning tea. Here we have a lively mixture of hot drinks, elderly people, children and a number of people in a small space. Please watch for children. We have supplied areas to sit and enjoy your conversation. Please feel free to move chairs in the last couple of rows to make more room. ‘All’ are welcome, let's keep ‘all’ safe! Susan

DCM FOODBANK APPEAL

We recently held our Foodbank Appeal for Winter, which is always thanks, in a very large part, to all our faith community supporters. We had a great day, and received 81.5 boxes of food, which will be a great boost to our Foodbank shelves throughout the winter months.

Donations of food are still welcome – attached is the shopping list we used at the appeal. These items are still those we need the most going forward:

- Tinned soup, stews and ready meals
- Pasta and curry sauces
- Tinned fish
- Jam, honey, peanut butter
- Tinned fruit
- Biscuits, crackers, muesli bars
- Soap, toilet paper, washing powder
- Tooth brushes and toothpaste

Food can be dropped off to DCM week days, to the Chaffers St. New World donation bin anytime, or via your local weekly offering.

DCM BOOKFAIR

DCM's 24th annual fundraising Bookfair will be held on Saturday 17 August 2019 at Shed 6, Queen's Wharf, from 8am-6pm. We're calling on your help to make it a huge success for DCM once again.

We need to fill the following roles:

- Publicity blitz leading up to the day - Distributing publicity materials throughout Wellington.
- Publicity blitz on the day - Handing out flyers around the waterfront area, directing people to the Bookfair.
- Tills - Handling cash transactions and bagging up books. Must have excellent customer service skills and able to do simple arithmetic.
- Floor and customer experience - Tidying books and helping with customer queries. Must have good English and be willing to learn the layout of the venue and books on the day.
- Welcoming and queue management - Handing out bags and maps at door, directing customers, counting customers as they enter. Must be confident and an assertive communicator.
- Catering - Assisting with the volunteer refreshments, keeping area stocked and clean. Must be well organised and thorough.
- Pack down - Packing up the books at the end of the day. Must be prepared for physical labour.

The day will be split into four shifts:

- 1st shift, 7:30am-12:00pm
- 2nd shift, 11:30am-3:00pm
- 3rd shift, 2:30pm-6:00pm
- Pack-down, 5:30pm- finish

Our 'publicity blitz' requires helpers ahead of the Bookfair, and on the day itself. We need volunteers to help distribute flyers and posters around Wellington. Please let us know if you can help with this initiative and we'll get in touch with more info.

If you're able to volunteer this year please get back with your name, cell phone number, preferred role, and preferred shift to events@dcm.org.nz. Feel free to do more than one shift! For those of you volunteering for the third shift, please let us know if you would be happy to stay a little longer to help with the pack-down.

If you're on Facebook, please join our event:

<https://www.facebook.com/events/2200885046614000/> - and share with family and friends.

Donate your books – and bags!

In the meantime DCM would love your book donations. Find out where to drop off your books here: <https://www.dcm.org.nz/bookfair>.

We would also appreciate donations of reusable bags to help make this year's Bookfair plastic bag free.

This event would not be a success without our wonderful volunteers, so we hope you'll join us in 2019!
