WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics.

Please stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer.

We usually sing the hymns without announcement.

To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Printed copies of the reflection are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Monday, 11 November is Armistice Day, with Remembrance Sunday – always the second Sunday in November – being the day before. In the days and even weeks before these solemn days, people will don poppies to show their support for the Armed Forces. While red poppies are common, the white poppy has been another option available for nearly 100 years. When were white poppies invented? White remembrance poppies were first sold in 1933 by members of the Women's Co-operative Guild who had mourned the loss of loved ones on World War One. In 1934 the Peace Pledge Union started distributing the white poppy as an alternative commemoration symbol. The use of the white poppy as a symbol for peace began in 1926 by people who were in favour of ending all war.

Imperial War Museum Symon Hill, Campaigns Manager at the Peace Pledge Union, previously wrote for Metro.co.uk: 'White poppies are not a generic peace symbol. Nor are they a protest against remembrance. Quite the opposite: they are a symbol of remembrance for people who have died or suffered in war. That's why we wear them on Remembrance Day. 'White poppies also represent a commitment to peace. This follows from remembering the horrors of war. We never say red poppies glorify war – we know many red poppy wearers share many of our values. 'Instead, we challenge ways in which remembrance is misused to promote a positive image of war or dodgy claims about what war has supposedly achieved.' He continued: 'My white poppy doesn't mean I'm against remembrance. I wear it precisely because I believe in remembrance so much. Remembering the past means recognising its complexities, asking difficult questions, learning from history. If we don't learn from the past, we are condemned to repeat it.'

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks.

Amen

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice not already in the order of service, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Sweden and the Christian Council of Sweden. We remember detainees on Manus and Nauru Islands, yearning that their cases be resolved. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Jonathan Young (New Plymouth electorate) and Lawrence Yule (Tukituki electorate). Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Khandallah Presbyterian Church.

SUSAN AND ROGER'S FAREWELL LUNCHEON, Sunday November 24th

This is planned to be a sit-down occasion with a simple menu of cold meats and salads with tea, coffee and slices to finish. (This will replace the monthly brunch on the 2nd Sunday in December). To do this we need two things: 1. for parishioners to let us know if you will be able to come and 2. people to help with catering. On Sunday the blue Spirited Conversations folder will be at the back of the church for people to register their interest in attending along with tasks that require offers. Looking forward to having lots of spaces filled, Lois Robertson and Pam Fuller.

Several people have asked about making a donation for a farewell gift. This would be much appreciated. Please hand your donation as soon as possible to the office or make an internet payment direct to St Andrew's bank account – BNZ 02 0534 0004022 02. Please put 'Minister farewell' as the reference so we know what the deposit is for. Thanks, Lynne Dovey Parish, Council Convenor.

LETTER SEEKING VCA VOLUNTEERS 2019

VCA are currently looking to add to their team and are planning a training programme early next year. The working of the Chaplaincy Department within Wellington Regional Hospital is enhanced by an effective team of Chaplaincy Assistants. Our Chaplaincy Assistants give around 2 hours a week to visit all patients in a ward. This work is greatly appreciated by patients and families. Please see Ross Scott or Barrie Kennan for more information.

HEALTH AND SAFETY PLEASE BE AWARE

The health and safety of everyone in our community is important. Lots of people remain after the Gathering for morning tea. Here we have a lively mixture of hot drinks, elderly people, children and people in a small space. Please watch for children. We have supplied areas to sit and converse. Please feel free to move chairs in the last couple of rows to make more room. 'All' are welcome, let's keep 'all' safe!
