

Pohl-Gjelsten Trio -

"Music to pass the time in Lockdown"

Peter Gjelsten, violin and viola, Helene Pohl, violin, Rolf Gjelsten, cello

Wednesday Lunchtime Concerts providing lunchtime music in the heart of the city since 1974

Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you.

We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat. In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience. Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert, and listed on St Andrew's website.

To be placed on the email circulation list for concert information, please email Marjan on marjan@marjan.co.nz. Also join our facebook group Friends of St Andrew's on The Terrace Lunchtime Concerts, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/315497448862287/>.

Check out the noticeboards in the foyer each time you come.

Otis Prescott-Mason, piano

Peter Gjelsten, violin

Jess Jenkins, viola

Jack Moyer, cello

Like many musical families, Rolf, Helene and Peter discovered unexpected varieties of possibilities for music making during lockdown, which they shared with friends over 14 weekly Zoom concerts. This concert is a selection of the musical riches they sampled together during that extraordinary time. They are delighted that AHUREI is joining them in rounding out the programme today.

Rolf and Helene are members of the New Zealand String Quartet. Peter, their son, is 17 and in Year 13 at the Chilton Music School. Otis and Jess are also finishing secondary school this year, and Jack is in Year 12. AHUREI were Silver Award winners at the 2020 Secondary Schools Chamber Music Contest.

Programme notes provided by the performers.
