WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics, and stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting. Printed copies of the draft reflection are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Our city in the Spring'

Words © 2020 Bronwyn Angela White used by permission

Music: Leoni (The God of Abraham Praise) WOV 53

1. Our city in the spring is rich with kōwhai's gold and gardens glow with tulips after winter's cold.
We rush outside to walk barefoot on new-mown grass sparrows and tūi jubilate as we pass.
2. The oak tree's vivid green, the rātā's crimson red roses come into leaf in their neat garden bed.
We ride the treehouse lift like angels on a cloud when blossom falls in someone's hair we laugh aloud.
3. Our city in the spring glistens with rain-washed glass of windows into busy worlds. The underpass echoes our quickening tread; graffiti's spray-can pleas remind us that our homeless are 'the least of these'.
4. Our city in the spring—its chaos and its charm
Botanic Gardens, filthy gutters, nail-pierced palm.
The rainbow overhead reflected on the spire symbol of justice, welcome, peace: our heart's desire.
5. Our city in the spring, rich with geranium red bright spear-thrust gladioli, toe-toe's creamy head.
Beloved community for whom death's lost its sting
Give thanks for city's life, of resurrection sing!

PEACE OF CHRIST—PRAYERS OF HOMECOMING and A NEW PRAYER

Peace be with you

And also with you.

Peacefulness to the people and peace to the land...

...We are forgiven. We are restored.

And so we pray together:

Creating, Evolving, Nurturing Spirit

We honour the mana of naming, describing and bringing-into-being through the power of Breath and Word.

The ground on which we stand is holy, Whenua Tapu, a place of mana tangata, where we show leadership in care for the rights of all people; a commonwealth of justice and liberation.

We are thankful for our resources:

we will be generous in sharing with others, gracious in learning from others.

May we not offend when we mean to welcome, not interject when we need to listen.

We let go of past hurts and memories which scar us—things we have done, things done to us, harmful attitudes we have absorbed.

We will be mindful, not falling back into negative patterns, as we learn new ways of being, a new appreciation of our full humanity.

We focus on things that are life-giving and true, rejecting defensiveness and cynicism.

*We live in the abundance of the universe:
the sustenance of our mother the earth,
the nurture of our father the sky,
the oxygen-breath of forest, the manaakitanga of land.*

For this is our promise today, our aspiration for tomorrow and our dream for the future.

Kia kaha te mahi!

Amen

HYMN

'We plough the fields' (adapted)

Words: Jane Montgomery Campbell, Matthias Claudius, Public Domain

Music: Johann Abraham Peter Schulz, Public Domain Tune: WOV 59

If you have a notice to share, please come forward during the last verse

1. We plough the fields, and scatter the good seed on the land but it is fed and watered by nature's mighty hand;
which sends the snow in winter, the warmth to swell the grain,
the breezes and the sunshine, the soft refreshing rain.

Chorus:

*All good gifts around us are given by nature's hand;
then thank the Earth, oh thank the Earth, for all its bounty grand.*

2. In Earth we see the goodness of all things near and far,
the colours of each flower, the shine of evening star;
the winds and waves refresh us, the birds are always fed;
and we, earth's human creatures, shall make our daily bread.
3. We offer thanks, great nature, for all things bright and good,
the seed time and the harvest; our life, our health, our food.
We give back of the bounty that Mother Earth imparts—our tribute and our labour, the work of hands and hearts.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

*If you have a notice, please be ready to speak briefly from the lectern.
For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.*

OFFERING—Music

Whose hands are these?

Neil Diamond

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

OFFERING PRAYER & AFFIRMATION

Bless the work of our hands

Diann Neu/Bronwyn White

LEADER: We give thanks for these gifts of money and food, time and love.
Blessed be the hands that bring these symbols—of our work, occupation, vocation; of our creation and craft.

LEFT: *Blessed be these hands that have touched life.
Blessed be these hands that have nurtured creativity.
Blessed be these hands that have held pain.*

RIGHT: Blessed be these hands that have embraced with passion.
Blessed be these hands that have become knotty with age.
Blessed be these hands that have tended gardens.

MEN: *Blessed be these hands that have planted new seeds.
Blessed be these hands that have cleaned, washed, mopped, scrubbed.
Blessed be these hands that have tenderly stroked a face.*

WOMEN: Blessed be these hands that have harvested ripe fields.
Blessed be these hands that have closed in anger.
Blessed be these hands that are wrinkled and scarred from doing justice.

LEFT: *Blessed be these hands that play musical instruments.
Blessed be these hands that are gnarled with arthritis.
Blessed be these hands that have reached out and been received.*

RIGHT: Blessed be these hands that dance over the keyboard.
Blessed be these hands that tie ribbons and neckties.
Blessed be these hands that love when words fail.

WOMEN: *Blessed be these hands that have tended the dying.
Blessed be these hands that give to charities and to buskers.
Blessed be these hands that light a candle in darkness.*

MEN: Blessed be these hands that have gestured in frustration.
Blessed be these hands that wave banners of protest and peace.
Blessed be these hands that have washed another's feet.

ALL: *Blessed be these hands that hold the promise of the future.
Blessed be the works of our hands. Amen.*

and respond with our hearts and our hands.

REFLECTION

“It matters what we do”

Bronwyn White

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Lois Robertson

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Cameroon and the Council of Protestant Churches in Cameroon. We remember the detainees of Manus and Nauru Islands, yearning that their cases be resolved. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Damien Smith and Nick Smith list MPs. Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Khandallah Presbyterian Church.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God, and renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the city in which we live that it may be a place where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will may become what we do, and what we believe the strong impulse
of our worship and work. Amen*

HYMN

'When Jesus set his table'

Words and tune © 2018 Amanda Udis-Kessler—used with permission

Music score is over the page (in the centre fold)

1. When Jesus set his table, no one was turned away.
That table was a promise of blessing and of grace
So set the table fully. Invite the whole world in.
If we would share love's welcome then here's where we begin.
2. No race, no creed, no nation, no love of heart and vow,
No gender is rejected. The table's waiting now
So set the table fully. Invite the whole world in.
If we would share love's welcome then here's where we begin.
3. Whoever we find troubling and seek to keep outside,
That is the very neighbour who must not be denied
So set the table fully. Invite the whole world in.
If we would share love's welcome then here's where we begin.

BENEDICTION

J Nelson-Pallmeyer (adapted) / Bronwyn White

May we awaken to the presence of that we name as God
here in the ordinary place.

May we awaken to the power of love
here in the ordinary crowd.

May we build a neighbourhood of justice for all now in this ordinary time.

May we daily work to build a world at peace
now with these ordinary hands.

Go now in peace, to love and serve,
to plant and to harvest;
to bless each other and all of creation with the work of your hands And know that you are loved this day and always—

REMEMBERING PARIHAKA

Wellington Quakers will be gathering around the Parihaka Memorial in Pukeahu Park on Parihaka Day, 5 November, this year. We will be commemorating the day in 1881 known as "Te Rā o te Pāhua" or the 'Day of Plunder' when about 1,500 armed constabulary and volunteers invaded Parihaka.

Quakers consider that the creative passive resistance campaign the Parihaka people mounted for many months was a wonderful model of pacifist action. There is evidence that the campaign influenced significant figures in history such as Gandhi; and yet Te Whiti and Tohu, the Parihaka leaders, have been largely ignored in their own land.

We would like to recognise the significance of the Parihaka campaign and the dreadful consequences that ensued for the whole community.

We will quietly gather around the memorial for about an hour from 5:00pm on 5 November and would be very pleased if members of your congregation would join us in this act of commemoration and tribute.

For further details our contact person is Murray Short, (phone 027 436 7484)

Yours in Peace and Friendship.

MUSIC GROUP IMPERFECT OFFERING is returning to St Andrews-on-the-Terrace once to perform the music of Leonard Cohen. This acclaimed band is presenting an all-new programme of Cohen's most beloved songs tracing a journey from his first album in 1967 to his last in 2016. With a story that spans a Jewish upbringing in Montreal, through Greek Island life with his muse Marianne to New York's hang-out Chelsea Hotel, Imperfect Offering will present the best songs from this journey.

Songs include the astonishing "Hallelujah", "Suzanne", "Chelsea Hotel", "The Future", "Bird on the Wire" and songs from Cohen's extraordinary last album You Want it Darker released just weeks before Cohen's death. This nine-piece band includes five vocalists and violin lovingly performing this extraordinary repertoire.

"Utterly blown away - exquisite violin, stunning arrangements."

"Sometimes better than the originals - Wow, just wow!"

John will give two presentations under the overall title 'Ethical Perspectives on the Climate Emergency'. These will be held on two consecutive Sunday afternoons 8 and 15 November 2020 at 3.30pm at St Ronan's Presbyterian Church, Eastbourne.

1. COVID-19 and climate change Sunday 8 November 3.30-4.00pm

Ethical perspectives on the climate emergency

Rev John Howell

John has had a long-time interest in environmental ethics. He is author of a book of poems, Homeless (Mākarō Press, 2017) and he contributed to both the second and third Pacific Climate Change Conferences. John is a retired Presbyterian minister with wide ecumenical experience.

John will give two presentations under the overall title Ethical perspectives on the climate emergency. These will be held on two consecutive Sunday afternoons 8 and 15 November 2020 at 3.30pm at St Ronan's Presbyterian Church, Eastbourne.

I COVID-19 and climate change Sunday 8 Nov 3.30-4.00pm

The New Zealand Government made a number of ethical decisions in its response to the COVID-19 pandemic. My analysis teases these out. I suggest these could provide a basis for dealing with the climate emergency

II Ethical considerations of climate change using the notion of 'common good' Sunday 15 Nov (3.30-4.30pm)

In seeking a moral basis for addressing the challenge of climate change, I will compare two approaches as contained in Economics for the Common Good by Jean Tirole<sup>1</sup> and The Righteous Mind – why good people are divided by politics and religion by Jonathan Haidt<sup>2</sup>

Wellington visitors can travel on the East by West ferry Queen's Wharf-Days Bay
