Wednesday Lunchtime Concerts

providing music in the heart of the city since 1974

Douglas Mews – Organ Going Dutch for Lunch

Dutch organ music from 17th and 20th centuries

Welcome

It is wonderful that you have come. Thank you.

We want your experience today to be the best that it can be and would appreciate you taking a moment to read the following before the concert commences.

Keep safe by locating the exit nearest to your seat.

In the event of an earthquake, our recommendation is to Drop, Cover and Hold.

Bon appetit! You are welcome to have your lunch during the performance. Switching your cell phone to silent is important to the performers and other members of the audience. Your support by way of a donation and telling others about the concerts would be fantastic and very much appreciated. It does make a difference.

If you wish to photograph or video today's concert, please ask for permission from the performer(s) before the concert begins. This is important.

We invite you now to sit back, relax and enjoy the concert.

Our Mission

is to create a lively, open Christian faith community, to act for a just and peaceful world, and to be catalysts for discovery, compassion and celebration in the capital.

These lunchtime concerts are advertised through Radio New Zealand Concert's Live Diary at around 8.10 am on the day of the concert, they are also advertised on Eventfinda, Dominion Post Arts Pages and Arts Wellington online, and listed on St Andrew's website.

To be placed on the email circulation list for concert information, please email wednesday@standrews.org.nz. Also join our facebook group Friends of St Andrew's on The Terrace Lunchtime Concerts, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/315497448862287/>.

Check out the noticeboards in the foyer each time you come.

Programme

Onder een Linde Groen

Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck (1562 – 1621)

Under the linden tree on the heather,
Where we had shared a place of rest,
Still you may find there, lovely together,
Flowers crushed and grass down-pressed.

Prelude and Fugue

Cor Kee (1900 – 1997)

Pavana Lachrymae

Dowland arranged by Sweelinck

Flow, my tears, fall from your springs!
Exiled for ever, let me mourn;
Where night's black bird her sad infamy sings,
There let me live forlorn.

Suite (1969)

Albert de Klerk (1917 – 1998)

Canon – Cantabile – Fuga - Arabesque

Mein Junges Leben

Sweelinck

'My young life is ending, with its joy and sorrow.
My poor soul will be deftly separated from my body.
My life can continue no longer, it is weak,
indeed it must pass, and with it, my sorrow.'

Thema met variaties

Hendrik Andriessen (1892 – 1981)

Douglas Mews is a freelance Wellington musician specialising in performance on historic keyboard instruments. He is organist at St Teresa's Church Karori and Artist Teacher at the NZSM. He studied at Auckland University with Anthony Jennings and then at the Royal Conservatory in the Hague with Bob van Asperen.

Programme content provided by artists

Sunday May 2nd 7pm

We are celebrating the return of our Croft pipe organ, now fully restored. Come and join us for a fun, variety show that demonstrates the new sound and versatility of the organ. From Handel to Abba and Rimsky-Korsakov to Gershwin, there is something for everyone to enjoy.

Several renowned organists will perform including

Paul Rosoman and

Roy Tankersley, Peter Franklin,

our Principal Organist and our team of St Andrew's organists.

In addition we have special guests: Larry Reese,

NZSO Principal timpanist,

Counsel in Concert (the popular lawyers choir) and a brass ensemble.

Our own Jane Keller,

Mark Stamper and

Richard Keller will also feature.

Bring your family and friends!
