CELEBRATING ST ANDREW'S DAY

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.
Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics, and stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Today the ancient journey begins again, taking us into the future.
Let us keep watch together, for in the darkness light is growing and into the darkness signs are pointing....
Advent is here, let us travel together towards the new birth, towards the new start,
following the signs which show us the way.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

COC 8 'Child of Christmas Story'

Words: © 1992 Shirley Erena Murray, Hope Publishing Company
Music © 1992 Richard Madden

1. Child of Christmas story, stable straw and star,
small and sweet and gentle,
tell us who you are.
2. Child whose baby finger round our own is curled,
come to melt our hearts,
and come to change the world.
3. Child of Jew and gentile, child of white and black,
teach us how to love you,
teach us what we lack.
4. Child of Mary's courage, birthed in human pain,
tell us what your name is,
be our hope again.

WELCOME

E te whānau a Te Karaiti
ngā mihi aroha ki a tātou katoa.
Kia ora tātou.

THE JESUS PRAYER

Cotter paraphrase

*Eternal Spirit
Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, Love-Maker, source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
loving God, in whom is heaven:
the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!
Your heavenly will be done
by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test,
strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and for ever. Amen*

LIGHTING THE ADVENT CANDLES

Today is the First Sunday in Advent. Advent is a time of waiting and preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus. It is a time to hope for peace between people, and to walk in the light God gives us.

Each week between now and Christmas we will light a candle in our Advent Wreath. The wreath is a circle to remind us of God's never-ending love.

The branches are green to remind us of new life. The candles remind us of the light which came into the world with Jesus: light to brighten all of earth's dark places; light that grows stronger when we join in God's work of building and rebuilding lives.

One way we can do this is by supporting the work of Christian World Service.

LIGHTING THE ADVENT CANDLE OF HOPE

On this first Sunday of Advent we remember God's gift of hope and that we are called to be people of God's hope.

PARTNER STORY:

The Pacific Ocean links us with many people and lands who are facing the immediate effects of rising global temperatures. Already people have had to move from their traditional whenua or land. Others are trying to cope with salty water and the lack of drinking water.

The Pacific Conference of Churches has been relentless in voicing the cry of their people for climate justice. Like a canary in a mine, they have warned all people of the dangerous level of global warming in an effort to protect our common home for the unborn and future generations.

We seek climate justice.

LIGHT THE CANDLE

PRAYER

God of hope and possibility:
may we be people who shine the light of hope in your world through our words and by our actions. Amen.

HYMN

WOV 224 'Joy to the World'

Words: Isaac Watts (alt) Music G F Handel

1. Joy to the world! A new age dawns, it comes shalom to bring.
Let ev'ry heart prepare a room,
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n and heav'n and nature sing.
2. Joy to the world! Let justice come,
to all who need release;
for prisoners held in chains,
the damaged and the strained,
let them find freedom now,
let them find freedom now,
let them, let them find freedom now.

3. Graceful and true, the Saviour brings compassion all may share;
for poor and homeless, so may they find
their life becomes more fair,
their life becomes more fair,
their life, their life becomes more fair.

Welcome (Riah)

Carol

'Away in a Manger'

Words adapted by © George Stuart: Music © William James Kirkpatrick

WOV 242 Cradle Song

1. Away in a manger, no pillow or a bed,
the baby boy Jesus is born in a shed;
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the baby boy Jesus asleep on the hay.
2. While cattle are standing, the baby's asleep, sought after by shepherds who leave all their sheep;
and wise men bring treasures; they've come from afar
to give gifts to Jesus; they followed a star.
3. Yes, Jesus is near me, I know he will stay close by me for ever and love me each day;
he blesses all children; we know we will share a wonderful friendship in his tender care.

What does Christmas mean to you? (Taryn, Tessa, Kezia)

By: Taryn Murray

To me, Christmas is about family. Every other year, my family meets up with our New Zealand family. It is something that is really special because these people are very special. Christmas is when I take the time to look around and say, "I am so grateful that all these wonderful people are in my life. I am so glad that I am able to come all the way from America to spend time with these people. I love them so much." Overall, Christmas is a fun time of year to spend time with, and appreciate family.

By Tessa Murray

To me Christmas is a time where I get to spend quality time with family I don't get to see very often and show my appreciation to people by getting them gifts. It is also a special time for Christians to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. I enjoy Christmas time because I get to spend time with family, eat nice food, and open presents. Christmas also comes with a fun tradition, carolling. I think Christmas carols are a very important part of Christmas because it shows the Christmas spirit and anyone can sing them. People like to decorate their houses for Christmas and while it is fun to see Santa on someone's roof, carolling seems like a better option to me because you don't have to go on ladders to hang stuff from the roof and you don't have to buy all the overpriced decorations, it's a win win situation. I enjoy walking through the main areas of our community and seeing all the decorations that people have put up too. All the effort that people put in for celebrating Christmas has a real way of showing community spirit. Christmas is an important time for a lot of people and means different things for different people. To me Christmas is a time for festivities and celebration.

Ooooooooo

By Kezia Ross

To me Christmas is about spending time with family and friends. It's about relaxing and having fun. My family always goes to Waikanae where our go to spot is the beach. Another fun thing about Christmas is giving and receiving gifts. I think that just adds an element of excitement to it all. A lot of people, like us, also celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. Overall to me Christmas is a fun and relaxing 6 weeks off!

Prayer (Tessa)

Dear God. Dear stars, dear trees, dear sky, dear peoples, dear everything.

Today is the day that we celebrate when Jesus was born,
with him came hope.

Hope for a better today and tomorrow.

That hope gave the people before us

joy, faith, community, and the strength to survive.

Because of that, we are here today in celebration.

Today, we celebrate that hope that was born into the world hundreds of years ago.

We give thanks to God for creating the world that we live in today.

We give thanks.

We give thanks for what Jesus did to shape the world we live in today.

We give thanks.

We give thanks for the hope that has brightened our lives

We give thanks.

We give thanks for being able to be here today

We give thanks.

Amen

HYMN OF DEDICATION

COC 48 'Where is the room?'

Music: © 1993 David Dell. Words: ©1992 Shirley Murray

1. Where is the room, where is the house of Christmas?
Where shall we welcome Jesus,
where are the signs of home?
2. Let Christ have space, place at the heart of living,
centre for birth's new breathing,
cradle for hope and peace.
3. Let there be room, room for the friend and stranger,
room without hurt or anger,
room for whoever come.
4. Let love be here,
love for the Christmas stable,
love at our open table,
love to be shared all year.

OFFERING PRAYER

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

CELEBRATING ST ANDREW'S DAY

We have gathered to celebrate the one whose name our church bears.
Andrew, small town fisherman who left his livelihood to follow a compelling itinerant preacher.

We follow in his name on a Terrace far away from Galilee's nets and in a world far removed from first century Palestine.

Yet still following that same teacher all these millennia later.

Also today we begin the journey to Bethlehem, anticipating advent of light and life into a darkened world.

We begin this journey in Wellington in a world that still needs light and life as much as life did then.

*Let us walk in Andrew's footsteps,
let us walk with Jesus, as he did.
Let us walk together.*

HYMN

WOV 505 'Jesus calls us'

Words: Cecil F Alexander, Music: Edward John Hopkins, Public domain

Jesus calls us o'er the tumult of our life's wild restless sea, day by day his voice still sounds here,
saying, "Christian, follow me."

As of old St Andrew heard it
by the Galilean lake, turned from home and work and kindred,
leaving all for Jesus' sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship of the world's false golden store, from distractions that would keep us, saying, "Christian, love me more."

Jesus calls us: by your mercies, may it be we hear your call,
give our hearts to meet your challenge, serve and love you best of all.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Lebanon and the National Evangelical Synod of Syria and Lebanon. We hold all refugees in our hearts. We pray in particular for those detained for many years in Papua New Guinea & Nauru. We give thanks for progress that has been made and pray that their calls for justice might yet find a compassionate response. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Dr Tracey McLellan (Banks Peninsula) and Hon Mark Mitchell (Whangaparāoa). Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of St Ronan's Presbyterian Church, Eastbourne.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God,
And renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the city in which we live that it may be a place where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will may become what we do, and what we believe the strong impulse
of our worship and work. Amen*

HYMN

'In this place where now we gather'

Words © 2014 Fiona McDougal

Music © 2013 Vivien Chiu, used by permission

In this place

The musical score is written on a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are written below the staff, with measure numbers 5, 9, and 13 indicated at the start of their respective lines.

1. In this place where now we gath-er, we have lived our com-mon life,
In this place we've learned to-geth-er, mov-ing through both joy and strife, 9
In this place hope's grown with-in us as we shared the bread and wine, 13
In this place where all are wel-come, we have known a love that shines.

1. In this place where now we gather,
we have lived our common life.
In this place we've learned together,
moving through both joy and strife.
In this place hope's grown within us as we shared the bread and wine.
In this place where all are welcome,
we have known a love that shines.
2. From a past that saw the old folks travelling from lands afar;
from a past that brought mixed blessings to tāngata whenua.
From a past of change and challenge,
synthesising new ideas;
from a past that brought rich stories,
giving strength to face old fears.
3. In this time of fresh beginnings, opening our hearts with hope.
In this time of great adventure,
seeking out God's greater scope.
In this time we stand together,
reaching to our world anew.
In this time we make commitment to this city's greater good.

4. Let us join in celebration, making joyful harmony.
Let us join our hands and promise to treat earth respectfully.
Let us join and share our vision of a world that's just and free, Let us join in deep intention to live gently, lovingly.

BLESSING AND SUNG AMEN

CALLING A NEW MINISTER

As announced recently, we can confirm that the plan for a Minister candidate to preach for a call on 19 December 2021 will proceed. Further information on the candidate, who was recommended to the Parish Council by the Ministry Settlement Board, will be sent out to individual members next week. There will be an opportunity to meet the candidate at an afternoon tea in the hall on Saturday 18 December. The Sunday service will be followed by a Special General Meeting when members and associate members will be invited to vote on whether to proceed with a call to the candidate. Whānau members will also have an opportunity to vote although we will not be able to record those numbers when we send our recommendation to Presbytery. More details will follow shortly.

OFFER OF SUPPORT FOR WORKING WITH ZOOM

The following people have kindly agreed to be available after church to offer assistance in learning how to use ZOOM. This is in anticipation of perhaps needing to use it for services again in the future.

28th Sonia Common Room.

Please bring your devices and/or questions.

Many thanks to Callum, Emily, Hamish and Sonia for offering to share their expertise.

WHY THE FIRST 1,000 DAYS MATTER

The observation highlights a comment that mental health issues are "a symptom not a disease", that "health is an outcome of context" and that the Australians devolution of health care to Aboriginal Health and Social Services is far better than here (I base this on some extensive research/reading of the situation across the Tasman).

Please come to the SJEG on Sunday for a discussion on faith communities' response to those with mental health issues. It is more than casting out demons.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EDUCATION GROUP

The last Social Justice Education Group will have a Mental Health Consumer Advocate discussing faith communities' response to those with mental health issues. How do we interact with these people? How do we show love and acceptance? When to ask questions about how they are feeling? Responses to medication? Seeking assistance from medical professionals?

FINISHED A LOAF OF BREAD OR BOTTLE OF MILK?!!!

Please save the bread bag and the clip/tie and milk bottle tops. The bags are used at the Compassion Soup Kitchen for "takeaway" lunches and the tags and milk bottle tops get recycled. Please fold the bags and pack separately. There is a collection box on the North Vestry Table. Thanks- Kath, Trish and Brian.

LIBRARY NEWS

Joan Tyler writes...

"I have just finished reading "Travels with a Stick" by Richard Fraser detailing his journey of pilgrimage on the Camino to Santiago de Compostela. Richard is the minister of Greyfriars Presbyterian church in Edinburgh and instigator of the Greyfriars Project which, like DCM, looks to help the homeless and disadvantaged. His book tells of his journey, some of the people he met up with and his reflections as he journeyed on spirituality, the problems with the current official church and suchlike. From time to time he sees parallels with biblical stories and reflects on those.

I so enjoyed this book .that I will buy a copy for the St. Andrews library for others to enjoy.. It seems to me Greyfrairs Church sounds very similar to St Andrew's and I think Richard's book is one many St A's people might enjoy.

I got this book from the Library but intend to purchase a copy as I think it is one I will enjoy dipping into from time to time. I so enjoyed this book that I will buy a copy for the St. Andrews library for others to enjoy as well."

Mike Writes:

Joan has brought the book copy along to church this Sunday. It will be in the library for others to borrow and enjoy. Thanks so much to Joan for your thoughtfulness and generosity.

BRUNCH ON CHRISTMAS DAY

In recent years some of us who have been at church on Christmas Day have gathered together upstairs after the service for brunch. This has been a fun occasion and much appreciated by those who have come. We're looking for a volunteer to do a little bit of coordination for this this year, very low key. If you're intending to be in church and would be able to help out please speak to Fiona McDougal or email fionaredsquirrel@gmail.com. Thank you

AMNESTY NEWS

Dear congregation

Friday, December 10th is World Human Rights Day. As is our tradition here, there will be letter writing resources available at the back of the church and on the front church steps to offer people the opportunity to write letters on behalf of prisoners of conscience. This will be between 11am and 1pm on that Friday. Secondly, there will not be a congregational lunch in December this year. But there will be a meet and greet on Saturday 18th December in the afternoon. We will also have the Amnesty table set up then to give you the opportunity to write Amnesty letters. I will send information and internet links soon regarding the cases chosen for this year. At the moment it is John Morgan and Mike Wespel-Rose carrying the candle for Amnesty International here at church. It would be great if we could have one more person involved to support us. This would be a simple enough task where you would help with table set up and supporting people when they write letters on behalf of prisoners of conscience. Or you may have other ideas to encourage more participation. We normally have two or three events each year. It would be great if someone else would join us.

Thanks everyone.
