

ORDER OF SERVICE

16 January 2022

Epiphany 2

Catching and sharing the dream

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics, and stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting. Printed copies of the reflection are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they can be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Sandra and Tony Kirby

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

O God who called all life into being,
the earth, sea and sky are yours.

Your presence is all around us.
Every atom is full of your energy.

Your Spirit enlivens all who walk the earth.
With her we yearn for justice to be done,
for creation to be free from threat,
for the hungry to be fed,
for captives to be released,
for your kingdom of peace to come on earth.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

FFS 63 'These Hills'

Words and music by Colin Gibson

Words and music © 1998 Hope Publishing Company

1. These hills where the hawk flies lonely, beaches where the long surf rolls, mountains where the snows meet heaven,
these are our care.
Pastures where the sheep graze calmly,
orchards where the apples grow, gardens where the roses cluster,
these are our prayer.
2. Cities where the young roam restless, lives brought to deep despair, homeless and powerless people,
these are our care.
Places where the Word is spoken,
hands held in serving love,
faiths of our many cultures,
these are our prayer.
3. All that the old world gave us, all that the new world brings,
language, ideas, customs,
these are our care.
Life finding joy and value,
faith seeking truth and light,
God heard and seen in all things,
this be our prayer.

WELCOME

Kia ora tātou.

Kia ora.

PRAYER

JESUS' PRAYER

Jim Cotter paraphrase

*Eternal Spirit
Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, Love-Maker, source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
loving God, in whom is heaven:
the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!
Your heavenly will be done
by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test,
strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and for ever.
Amen.*

TIME WITH THE CHILDREN

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

For all those of our community on summer holidays and especially for our children, we pray for fun, relaxation and adventure.

We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Traditionally we shake hands to pass the peace and say "peace be with you." Now that COVID-19 is here we ask that you pass the peace without shaking hands.

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Hebrew Bible

Psalm 36:5-10

E tipu e rea mō ngā rā o tōu ao

Grow up in the days destined to you.

Apirana T. Ngata

This is the opening line of a famous saying in my tribe. For our people - Ngāti Porou - these words have become embedded in our tribal identity as important directives that we are encouraged to aspire to. In the “days destined to you”, Ngata reminds us that each generation has its own mana (or authority), our own responsibilities and challenges, our own dreams and destinies to fulfil, and our own histories to tell about Ngāti Porou: who we are, our past, present, and future. If we consider this expectant, and I think hopeful, affirmation as a gift and responsibility, then taking real ownership of the “days destined to us” requires us to know what our forebears have entrusted us with.

RESPONSE

For the Word in scripture,
for the Word among us,
for the Word within us,
we give thanks.

OFFERING HYMN

AA 127 'Take my gifts' verse 3

Words © 1992 Shirley Erena Murray, (Admin. by Hope Publishing Company)

Music: ©1992 Colin Gibson Hope Publishing Co.

Take whatever I can offer – gifts that I have yet to find, skills that I am slow to sharpen, talents of the heart and mind, things made beautiful for others in the place where I must be:
take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me.

OFFERING PRAYER

Ana Gobledale

*Gracious God,
you have blessed us with so many good things.
May these gifts from us,
be used to open doors of welcome for all people, so they, too may experience the joy of abundance, and unity.*

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

LIFE IN THE COMMUNITY OF ST ANDREW'S

People share notices and visitors are welcomed. If you have a notice, please move to the front row, ready to speak briefly from the lectern.

For the benefit of newcomers, please introduce yourself before you begin.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Catriona Cairns

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Malaysia and Brunei and we pray for understanding between people of different faiths and religions. We hold all refugees in our hearts. We pray in particular for those detained for many years in Papua New Guinea & Nauru. We give thanks for progress that has been made and pray that their calls for justice might yet find a compassionate response. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Angie Warren-Clark and Helen White, list MPs. Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Foxton-Shannon Co-operating Church.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God,
And renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the city in which we live that it may be a place where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will may become what we do, and what we believe the strong impulse
of our worship and work.
Amen*

HYMN

WOV 669 'I am the light of the world'

Words & Music © 1969 Jim Strathdee. Music (Admin. by Desert Flower Music)

Chorus

I am the Light of the World.
You people come and follow me.
If you follow and love, you'll learn the mystery of what you were meant to do and be.

1. When the song of the angels is stilled, when the star in the sky is gone.
when the kings and the shepherds have found their way home,
the work of Christmas is begun!

Chorus

2. To find the lost and lonely one, to heal that broken soul with love,
to feed the hungry children with warmth and good food,
to feel the earth below, the sky above!

Chorus

3. To bring hope to every task you do, to dance at a baby's new birth,
to make music in an old man's heart,
and sing to the colours of the earth!
Chorus

BLESSING

May the God of Peace inspire us.

May the God of Justice empower us.

May the God of Hope encourage us.

as we seek to live out the dream of justice, peace and equality.

We welcome all visitors and invite you to stay for morning tea or coffee.

Please sign the visitors' book at the back of the church.

We hope you enjoyed worshipping with us. At St Andrew's we want you to feel at home—to join in with the activities of our community of faith, or to come and find your own spiritual place in your own time. If you would like more information about St Andrew's or to explore becoming a member or associate member, please fill in one of the welcome leaflets (at the back of the church) and hand it to a minister or a welcoming team member.

Wellington City Council now charges for weekend parking on the street. As well as that, there is a two hour parking limit. If you have parked on the street initially and are staying for an after-church activity, it may be possible to move your car into the St Andrew's/Braemar car park but please be careful that you do not block anyone in.
