Lent 4

No one drinks old wine and immediately desires to drink new wine.

Gospel of Thomas 47

WELCOME TO ST ANDREW'S ON THE TERRACE

Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome here.

Please join in the congregational responses printed in bold italics, and stand if you are able, for the hymns and the offering prayer. We usually sing the hymns without announcement. To use the loop system in the church, turn your hearing aids on to the appropriate setting. Printed copies of the reflection are available at the back of the church for people with extreme hearing loss. For others they may be picked up at the end of the Gathering.

Please note your nearest fire exit.

The church and hall have been earthquake strengthened. In an earthquake: drop, cover and hold.

Today's service is led by Rev. Ross Scott, Honorary Assistant Minister

PRELUDE

GATHERING

Come into this gathering place!
Come in and find peace and rest,

Come in and let our hearts sing
for all the blessings that are ours this day.

JESUS' PRAYER

Jim Cotter paraphrase

Eternal Spirit

Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, Love-Maker, source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
loving God, in whom is heaven:

the hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!

Your heavenly will be done
by all created beings!

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom

*sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test,
strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and for ever.
Amen.*

LIGHTING THE RAINBOW CANDLE

TIME WITH THE CHILDREN

Ross Scott

BLESSING THE CHILDREN (All stand)

We send you to the Rainbow Room to hear stories, ask questions and have fun together.

We bless you. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

Traditionally we shake hands to pass the peace and say "peace be with you." Now that COVID-19 is here we ask that you pass the peace without shaking hands.

THE WORD IN TEXTS

Trish McBride

Hebrew Bible

Deuteronomy 5:16

Gospel

Luke 5:33-39

Gospel of Thomas Saying 47

Jesus said, "It is impossible for a man to mount two horses or to stretch two bows.

And it is impossible for a servant to serve two masters; otherwise, he will honor the one and treat the other contemptuously.

No man drinks old wine and immediately desires to drink new wine. And new wine is not put into old wineskins, lest they burst; nor is old wine put into a new wineskin, lest it spoil it.

An old patch is not sewn onto a new garment, because a tear would result."

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Wendy Matthews

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

We think today of the people of Norway and the Christian Council of Norway. We pray for all refugees. In New Zealand, we remember those in Parliament, and today we name Karen Chhour and Tamati Coffey, list MPs. Here in the Central Presbytery, we pray for the leaders and people of Johnsonville Uniting Church.

PRAYER FOR ST ANDREW'S

*Renew your people, God,
and renew our life in this place.
Give us a new spirit of unity
with all who follow the Way of Jesus and new bonds of love
with people of other faiths.*

*Bless the city in which we live
that it may be a place where honest dealing,
good government,
the desire for beauty,
and the care for others flourish.*

*Bless this church that what we know of your will
may become what we do,
and what we believe
the strong impulse
of our worship and work.*

Amen

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

*St Andrew's is an open community and all are invited to Christ's table.
Wherever you are on your faith journey, wherever you have come from and wherever you are going to, whatever you believe, whatever you do not believe, you are welcome to participate in the communion. This is God's meal for all people.*

COMMUNION HYMN

FFS 17 'For everyone born, a place at the table'

Words: © 1998 Shirley Erena Murray

Music: © 1998 Colin Gibson (Hope Publishing) 5 verses

1. For everyone born, a place at the table,
for everyone born, clean water and bread,
a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,
for everyone born, a star overhead,
and God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice and joy!
2. For woman and man, a place at the table, revising the roles, deciding the share,
with wisdom and grace, dividing the power,
for woman and man, a system that's fair,
and God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice and joy!
3. For young and for old, a place at the table,
a voice to be heard, a part in the song,
the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled,
for young and for old, the right to belong,
and God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice and joy!
5. For everyone born, a place at the table,
to live without fear, and simply to be,
to work, to speak out, to witness and worship,
for everyone born, the right to be free,
and God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice and joy!

COMMUNION LITURGY

THE COMMUNION: GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING.

The peace of God be with you.

And also with you.

In the presence of the living God

we lift our hearts in joy and give thanks.

Let us give thanks for the continuity of the universe;
for the sun rising day by day, and the moon waxing and waning;
for all the life with which we share this planet;
for the interactions and connections that bind us to it,
and the elements of which all is composed.

Let us give thanks

and seek to live in harmony with all about us.

Let us give thanks for those who grow and prepare our food
For those who educate our children and care for us in old age
For those who nurse us when sick and support us when dying
For those who keep us safe.

Let us give thanks for all who contribute to our daily living

Let us give thanks for the flow of human history;
for the events that have shaped and moulded us
and all our sisters and brothers;
for the ones who question that history;
for the ones who unearth the stories of the vanquished,
the oppressed, the forgotten, the unrecorded.

Let us give thanks

and take our place in the human story,

struggling for the unity of humankind.

Let us give thanks for prophets and martyrs and poets;
thinkers and preachers and healers;
for the ones who have linked thought and action;
for reformers and rebels and strikers.

Let us give thanks

and join with them in the quest for justice.

Let us give thanks for all who have revealed or discovered deep and lasting truths;

let us celebrate their lives and deaths, their thoughts and writings,
their continuing witness in the world today.

Let us give thanks

and share in spreading this prophetic vision.

Today we give thanks for Jesus of Nazareth,
in whom Christians believe God was especially present,
one of the channels through which God
was made known to humanity.

On the night that he was betrayed,
he feasted with his followers;
he took bread, gave thanks and broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying words like
'Take this and eat it, broken for you.
Do this whenever you eat it in remembrance of me'.
In the same way, after supper,
he took the cup of wine, gave thanks,
and gave it to them saying words like
'Drink from it all of you, the wine of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many.
Do this whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

For all that Jesus of Nazareth means to us,

We give thanks.

So today we share bread and wine together
as a sign that we are one humanity,
as a pledge that we will work for justice,
as a foretaste of that which can be despite what is and what has been.
May the Spirit that guides us all be present in this feast, taking this bread and wine, the concerns that we have expressed and the lives that we lead, transforming them all for the unity of all creation and the service of love.
God, whose body is all creation,
may we come to know you in all the earth
and feel you in our blood.
So no part of us, or the world,
be lost to your transforming grace.

Thanks be to God, say all who worship in spirit and truth.
Thanks be to God, for the gift of life.

THE DISTRIBUTION

*Please remain in your seat and the bread and wine will be brought to you.
The bread is gluten-free. The dark fluid is grape juice the light fluid is wine.
In these Covid days please keep your mask on till the person serving has passed you, then consume the bread, replace your mask to receive the wine or grape juice and wait till the server has passed you before drinking. Thank you.*

We say to each other....

The bread of life broken for you

The cup of blessing poured out for you.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

The feast is ended and the work of the world lies before us.

Many who work for change suffer resistance.

So make us strong.

Many who do new things sometimes feel afraid.

So make us brave.

Many who challenge the world as it is, arouse anger.

So grant us inner peace.

Many who live joyful lives are envied.

So make us generous.

Many who try to love encounter hate.

So we trust in you, O God of gracious love. Amen.

(Liturgy by the Rev Diane Gilliam-Weeks)

HYMN

‘Where Does Compassion Start?’

Words © 2009 Shirley Erena Murray

Tune: Love Unknown by John Ireland WOV 257 (i)

(A response to the ‘Charter for Compassion’)

1. Where does compassion start?

How does compassion grow?

Her seed is at the heart

of every faith we know:

compassion honours others' place,

dethroning self with willing grace.

2. How does compassion thrive in worlds of greed and grief?
Her goodness stays alive
through those of strong belief:
compassion, luminous and clear,
outshining wastes of war and fear.
3. Where is compassion's role in cultures, or in creeds?
At centre, with the soul
who feels another's needs:
compassion brings the touch of friend,
a bandage that will bind and mend.
4. Dynamic is the power that heals, restores and gives, connecting at the core
with everyone who lives,
transcending culture, colour, race,
compassion builds the house of peace.

SIR LLOYD GEERING SCHOLARSHIP IN RELIGION:

In 2021 The Religious Studies Department at Victoria set up a Sir Lloyd Geering Scholarship in Religion to commemorate 50years since the establishment of the Religious Studies Department at VUW with Lloyd as its head.

As part of it's winding up process SATRS made a substantial contribution to the Scholarship fund.

This week we received a note from the Department to say that late last year they had been able to advertise an inaugural scholarship and that an award has since been made to Arama Tairea, who has now enrolled to pursue his MA thesis in Religious Studies.

His research will examine contemporary understandings of religion (and non-religion) among Cook Island people in New Zealand.

If you would like to know more about the Scholarship contact Pam Fuller pjfuller@gmail.com or phone 04 475 8240.
